FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

Iran will pay cash incentives to travel agencies that encourage Western tourists to visit the country, with special premiums for American tourists, the official Islamic Republic News Agency said.

The country wants to reach out to ordinary American citizens and let them know that despite the country's standoff with President Bush over Iran's nuclear ambitions, it welcomes U.S. citizens with open arms.

The agency said the tourism department will pay $20 per person to those who attract European or American tourists to the country.

NOTED. While you don't have to be rich to be his girl, you do have to pay $125 to see him perform.

The artist formerly known as the artist formerly known as Prince will begin performing in Las Vegas every weekend at a club inside the Rio hotel beginning Nov. 10.

The Grammy winner will perform at the club indefinitely, a P R Plus representative said.

QUOTED. "I think the secret of its success was that it was always about saving lives, not taking lives."

— David Hasselhoff, on why he thought "Baywatch," the television show he starred in for 11 years, was so successful. At one point, the show aired on every continent except Antarctica.

Seasons 1 and 2 of the series are being released as DVD boxed sets.

POLICE LOG

■ A rape was reported Wednesday, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

Reports state that an 18-year-old woman was raped between 1 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Wednesday inside a residence on Church Street.

Police spokeswoman Jane Cousins said officers are investigating a suspect, who is an acquaintance of the victim's.

■ Chapel Hill police are investigating a string of vehicle break-ins that occurred in the parking lot at 500 Umstead Drive.

According to reports, nine vehicles were broken into between late Wednesday and early Thursday.

In almost every incident, a window was smashed and the car stereo was stolen, reports state.

Chapel Hill police spokeswoman Jane Cousins said she believes Carrboro police have apprehended multiple suspects in the break-ins.

Lt. Cornell Lamb with the Carrboro police department said that the department had made four arrests on charges of breaking and entering a vehicle, possession of burglary tools and possession of stolen property, but that he would not be able to confirm whether the incidents are related until today.

■ A woman was arrested Thursday on charges of assaulting a law enforcement officer, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

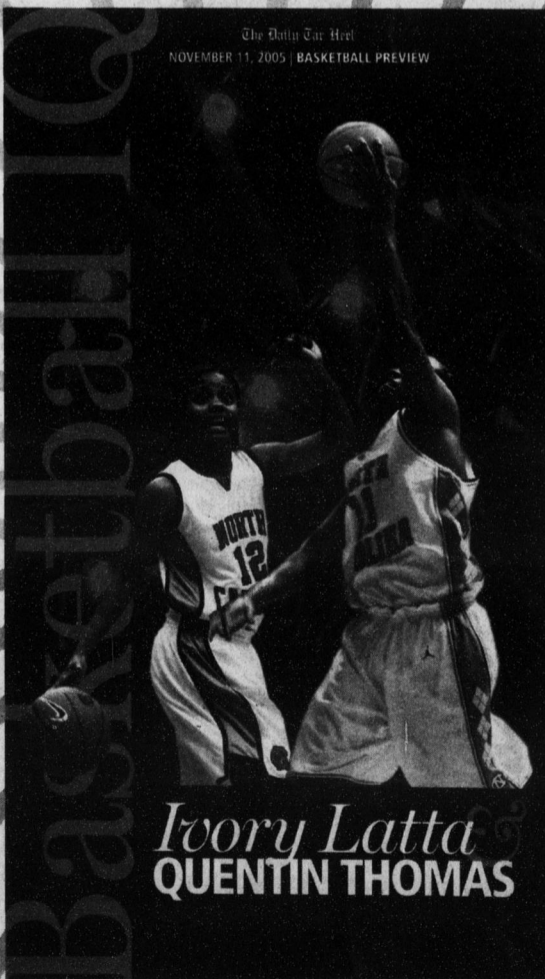

Reports state Karen Gail Meadows, 40, of 800 Pritchard Ave. Ext. Apt. D-13, was arrested during a traffic stop on Graham Street after a brief chase.

Meadows also was charged with possession of cocaine and drug paraphernalia, driving while impaired and speeding to elude arrest.

Meadows was brought before the magistrate and then taken to Orange County Jail in lieu of $1,250 bail, reports state.

She was scheduled to appear in court Thursday.
