What's in the best interest of the leg?

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

John Wood's leg was amputated from the knee after a 2004 airplane crash. He asked doctors to give it to him so he could be buried a whole man when he died.

The limb, which Wood had kept in a smoker in a storage facility, was bought by Shannon Whisnant, of North Carolina, last week in the storage company's auction to recoup Wood's missing payments.

The two are now locked in a heated custody debate as to who should get the leg. Whisnant, who is charging adults $3 and children $1 to look at the empty smoker, now wants it back, anticipating Halloween business. Wood said he just wants his leg back.

"He's making a freak show out of it," Wood said.

NOTED. There's not a lot of love at Percy Julian Middle School in Oak Park, Ill.

Principal Victoria Sharts banned hugging among the 860 students anywhere inside the building. She said students were forming "hug lines" that made them late for classes and crowded the hallways.

"Hugging is really more appropriate for airports or for family reunions," Sharts said.

QUOTED. "I'll volunteer to marry them in the jail if they surrender."

— Lapee County, Mich., Sheriff Ron Kalanquin, about a young couple who robbed a bank.

Detectives determined that the stolen money was used to buy wedding rings, pay rent and pay the female's attorney for work on a child custody case, The Flint Journal reported.

POLICE LOG

■ Someone reported that their purse was stolen just after the shooting incident that took place early Monday at Visions Night Club, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

The club is located at 136 E. Rosemary St. The purse snatching was reported at 9:32 a.m. Monday, but the victim said the purse was taken about 1 a.m. Monday, reports state.

The purse, valued at $50, contained a $300 digital camera and $190 cell phone, according to reports.

■ Someone broke into the PTA Thrift Shop at 89 S. Elliott Road, stealing several framed replica pistols, valued at $40 each, according to reports.

Reports state that an unknown suspect broke through the store's front glass window at 10:18 p.m. Monday, causing $400 in damage.

■ A $2,000 black Hermes

handbag was stolen when someone broke into the left rear window of a car parked in the lot at 431 W. Franklin St., causing $200 damage to the car, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

The incident was reported at 1:15 a.m. Sunday, reports state.

■ Andres Ruggero Indacochea, 42, of 113 Barclay Road, was arrested on felony charges of automobile theft and breaking and entering with larceny, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

He also was arrested for driving without a valid license. Reports state that Indacochea was stopped for traffic violations at 4:49 a.m. Tuesday. A complainant said Indacochea broke into a shed and stole the vehicle he was driving.

According to reports, Indacochea was confined to Orange County Jail in lieu of $250 bail and was scheduled to appear Tuesday in court in Hillsborough.

Pamina Devi:
A Cambodian Magic Flute

"EXOTIC ... FLUID ...
AN AMAZING EXPERIENCE."
- SALZBURGER NACHRICHTEN

Friday, October 5 | 8pm | Memorial Hall

The brilliant classicism of imperial Vienna meets the mythic splendor of ancient Angkor in Pamina Devi: A Cambodian Magic Flute, a contemporary re-imagining of Mozart's fantastical opera. Performed in the refined, elaborate movement language of Cambodian classical dance and accompanied by a live instrumental ensemble, 32 dancers and singers take the stage to explore Mozart's masterpiece.

Carolina
Summer Reading Program

Call for 2008
Book Recommendations

All members of the UNC-Chapel Hill community are invited to suggest books for consideration. Criteria for book selection include the following desirable qualities:

- Intellectually stimulating, stretches students' minds, causes students to think about things they might not have thought about.
- Enjoyable, engaging, relatively short, easy to read, of current interest.
- Able to provoke interesting discussion.
- Appropriate for the level of maturity of incoming students.
- Having a theme or topic applicable to students' lives (for example, societal, political, or ethical issues).

To make your suggestion, visit the Carolina Summer Reading Program website: <http://www.unc.edu/srp/>. Full consideration will be given to all book recommendations received by Wednesday, October 24th.
