DAILY DOSE

She hates lawn police

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

When 70-year-old Utah resident Betty Perry was accused of not taking care of her lawn, she became angry. Perry was arrested, handcuffed and briefly jailed in July for declining a ticket for failing to water her lawn. She must pay a $100 fine and also faces six months of probation.

She was charged for refusing to give her name, accept a citation or allow herself to be handcuffed.

NOTED. Chunks of ice that smashed through a Canadian woman's roof came from the lavatory of an airplane flying overhead, investigators said.

Marian Liknes was on the phone in the bedroom when she heard what she thought was an explosion behind her. The ice was made up of toilet water, antifreeze, disinfectant and human waste.

QUOTED. "We all had a bit of a laugh when we saw the thing."

— Christian Kropp, presiding judge at the court in the eastern town of Sondershausen, Germany, after a 21-year-old man was convicted of sending a photo of his penis to an unknown woman through his mobile phone.
