POLICE LOG

Two larceny incidents reported Wednesday in the Meadowmont Village area involved jewelry theft, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

Someone broke into a Cedar Club Circle home and stole items worth $11,000, including a gold ring with diamonds, a gold wristwatch with diamonds and a Sony digital camera, according to police reports.

Someone stole $2,900 worth of jewelry from a Cedar Berry Lane apartment, according to reports.

Reports state that both incidents — which were reported two hours apart — are under investigation.

A Chapel Hill man was arrested Wednesday for trespassing, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

Antwan Dupree Burnette, 23, of 8707 Orange Grove Road, was charged with misdemeanor second degree trespassing, according to reports.

Reports state that Burnette is being held in lieu of $300 bail.

Carrboro police responded Wednesday to reports of chickens running at large, according to Carrboro police reports.

Reports state that feral chickens were loose on Dillard Street after their owners moved.

The officer who responded attempted to capture the chickens but said it was impossible to get closer to them than 20 yards away. The officer planned to catch the chickens with a live trap Wednesday night, according to police reports.

A Carrboro woman reported seeing an injured deer near her house Wednesday, according to Carrboro police reports.

The officer who responded to the call from a Forest Court resident could not locate the animal, reports state.

DAILY DOSE

'The breast is best,' according to PETA

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals sent a letter to Ben Cohen and Jerry Greenfield, co-founders of Ben & Jerry's, urging them to consider using human breast milk instead of cow's milk in their ice cream products in order to benefit human health and ease the suffering of dairy cows and their babies on factory farms.

PETA spokeswoman Tracy Reiman said human adults consuming large quantities of milk meant for baby cows "just doesn't make sense."

Recent news reports state that a Swiss restaurant owner will start buying breast milk from nursing mothers and subsequently using it to replace 75 percent of the cow's milk in the food he serves.

NOTED. At least eight Phoenix, Ariz., fraternity members vomited milk into oncoming traffic below an Arizona State University footbridge, which may have caused a crash.

A woman rear-ended another vehicle after that vehicle stopped to avoid the vomit, according to a police spokesman. The woman was cited for the accident. She and her young daughter suffered minor injuries.

QUOTED. "The man was not fined for smoking a cannabis joint but for smoking. You can smoke cannabis but not tobacco in coffee shops."

— An Amsterdam police spokesman, who fined a 27-year-old man for smoking a joint because it had tobacco in it. Dutch cafes and restaurants have a zero-tolerance policy for mixing the two substances that went into effect in July.

Remember all those times you've wanted to let your teachers know how you feel about them?

NOW YOU CAN!

Nominate the best teacher you have had at UNC for a

UNIVERSITY TEACHING AWARD

and make your opinion count!

Here are some nomination comments from last year's nominations:

"He cares deeply about undergraduates—both as students and as people."

"His dedication to thoughtful teaching and his willingness to devote time to students, both through direct engagement and in finding opportunities for them to pursue further study and research or work experience is near legendary."

"Everyone should take this class, she has really inspired me and her energy lights up the room."

"Right out of the blocks, she showed enthusiasm for not only teaching but getting to know her students."

"She turned a boring, monotonous subject into an interesting and fun experience. She was ... enthusiastic about everything she taught our class. She was awesome, exciting, and unpredictable."

"He is an amazing presence in my life" long after having left UNC.

Visit www.unc.edu/teachawards to find out more about how you can say thanks to a deserving teacher at UNC.
