VALUABLE PLANTATIONS FOR SALE,

THE entire body of land usually known as the L Clermont and Ferry Plantations, formerly the bern is offered for sale. These ands extend from the month of Green Spring reck below Newbern to Brices Creek, about three miles above the Town, Trent River, Neuse River, Brice's and Green Spring Creek constitute their boundanies on three sides. The two Plantations are separated only by the road leading from Newbern to Beaufort and do not vary the Clermont Plantation is a good and commodious brick dwelling House and all necessary out houses a tip House stubles and a large and excellent barn at which any vessel coming to Newbern can load. On these lands are beds of marl, believed not inferior to any that can be found either in quan tity, quality, or the facility with which the marl can be used, as it is near the surface and in the fields, where it can be most profitably applied .-There are other material for manuring, such as Mud

The Ferry Plancation immediately fronts the Town of Newbern and has attached to it a Ferry to the Town, with the best channel of the River and Brice's Creek on the Plantation side of the River the whole extent of the lands. On these Plantations are several seine beaches in good order. The Bridge across Trent River on the Beaufort Road gives easy access from both Plantations to the Town of Newbern. The whole could be used as one plantation by a person desiring that quantity of land, or it could be separated advantageously as two plantations, - and the contemp sted Railroad to Beau fort or its vicinity cannot approach near Newbern without crossing the body of the lands. The whole or either Plantation is offered for sale and accompdating Terms will be given to a purchaser. Persons desirous of purchasing are invited to examine the lands and correspond with the subscriber at Washington or Newbern. R. S. DONNELL Newbern, N. C. April 18th, 1854.
