1859. EXCELSIOR. 1859

The 'Live Giraffe' Enlarged!!

$ 500

Offered towards the Purchase of Mt. Vernon!

BEST TALENT OF THE COUNTRY, SECURED.

Wishing to do something in furtherance of the noble project, in which the ladies of America are now engaged, I propose to give from the proceeds of the LIVE GIRAFFE, FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, to be appropriated towards the purchase of the house and grave of

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
'THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY.'

To raise the above-named sum, will require that I offer to the public, unusual attractions, both in the appearance and reading matter of my paper. This view of the question I have already considered, and partially matured, having secured a promise of contributions, from North Carolina's most distinguished men, their productions to be styled

'MOUNT VERNON PAPERS.'

First in my list of contributors I place the name of North Carolina's gifted orator and writer, Henry W. Miller, Esq., whose eloquence at the Bar and talent as a writer, no southern man can surpass. His name alone, as contributor to such a cause, can but elicit the enthusiasm in behalf of Mount Vernon, which it is my wish to inspire by this project.

Then, my list of contributors will embrace the following gentlemen, from whose pens will appear an article each week throughout the year: Henry W. Miller, Esq.; Duncanson K. McKee, Esq.; J. Parker Jordan, Esq.; Hon. Sion H. Rogers; Edward Cantwell, Esq.; Ed. Graham Haywood, Esq.; Hon. Warren Winslow; Rufus T. Helms; Quentin Busbee, Esq.; and James B. Shepard, Esq.

Superior talent cannot be secured in the South, nor can the talent of the South be better employed, than in fostering a spirit similar to that which moved the mind of the immortal Washington, and a more suitable cause could not be presented for the fostering of such a spirit, than that which I now present.

To be enabled to give $500, I must increase my list to five or ten thousand, but, surely, the weekly contributions of such men as those whose names I present, will insure that number.

I propose to commence the publication of the Mount Vernon Papers the first week in April, and hope by that time to have had added 1000 or 2000 names to my list, those who would commence with the beginning of the Mount Vernon Papers, will forward their names, at once.

Price of the 'Giraffe,' $2 per annum, in advance. To a club of three or more, $1.50 per annum. Address

Midsummer-Night's Dream.
This Splendid $20. (4 GUINEA).
LONDON PRINT, BEAUTIFULLY RE-ENGRAVED BY SARTIN EMBELLISHES THE
Electric Magazine
For February, 1859.

TWO match prints, Scott and his friends, Shakespeare and his Contemporaries—25 Portraits upon this January No. 1. Portraits of two Emperors—BENIGNA, of France in Imperial Robes, and MARIA THERESA of Austria, empress of the March No. 2. Other splendid plates will follow.

The ELECTIC invites all lovers of choice reading to its splendid pages, which contain—
The best articles—gathered from 7 British Quarters and 9 Monthlies—like cream from 16 pans of rich milk gathered into one, for the literary appetite of the reader and the family. The ELECTIC is the best, richest in intellectual wealth, most varied, most free from moral poison, most satisfactory monthly published.

Its portraits and artistic embellishments surpass all others. They are an attractive gallery of fine arts, refining in influence.

The ELECTIC is the cheapest, in view of the treasures it contains. Its reading matter is nearly equal in a year to three entire British Quarters, which cost $7. The ELECTIC is only $5. Its embellishments alone are worth that money.

It is the easiest and cheapest way of getting a choice library of current literature, good for all time.

An intelligent press, far and near, and eminent men, commend THE ELECTIC in strong and emphatic language.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS!
TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

Paying in advance, the January number 1859 will be sent, embellished with two splendid match prints—Sir Walter Scott and his friends and Shakespeare and his Contemporaries, containing twenty-eight portraits—surpassing all precedent.

TERMS.

The ELECTIC is issued on the first of every month. Each number contains one hundred and forty-four large octavo pages, double columns, on fine paper, neatly stitched in green covers, with one or more beautiful Steel Portraits by Sartin. The twelve numbers comprise three volumes of 600 pages each, with titles, indexes, and embellishments. Price, FIVE DOLLARS. The postage is only three cents a number, pre-paid at the office of delivery. Send your orders to

What the Press Say.

'Costar's' Exterminators are invaluable remedies for clearing houses of all sorts of vermin. With all confidence we recommend them.—N. Y. Daily Star-Register.

'Costar's' remedies for all domestic pests, such as Rats, Roaches, Bed-Bugs, Ants, Fleas, &c., are invaluable; we can speak from actual knowledge of their merits. Druggists and Dealers should send their orders early, if they would secure a trade in them.—New York Journal.

'I shall write something about your Exterminators, as I can do so with propriety. They are selling rapidly here and destroying all vermin.—Ed. Banner, Fayette, Mo.

'Death to all Vermin.'

As Spring approaches,
Ants and Roaches,
From their holes come out,
And Mice and Rats,
In spite of Cats,
Gaily skip about.
Bed-Bugs bite
You, in the night,
As on the bed you slumber,
While insects crawl
Thro' chamber and hall,
In squads without number.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL WITH WHAT CERTAINTY Rats, Roaches, Mice, Ground Mice, Bed-bugs, Ants, Moths, Mosquitoes, Fleas, Insects on Animals, in short every species of Vermin, are utterly destroyed and exterminated by

T. L. HALL,
Formerly Proprietor of the Gaston House, Newbern, N. C., now at the WESTERN HOTEL, NEW YORK.
HAVING recently identified himself with the interests of this establishment, would respectfully solicit your patronage, and Southerners generally, visiting this city. As the design is to make this House in a great degree the Home of the Southerner, all who come to it are assured that they will find a genuine Southerner to attend to their wants and comforts.

The house is admirably located, especially for business men, being on Courtland Street only a few doors from Broadway, in the immediate vicinity of the Southern Railroad and Steamboat Stations. It has ample accommodations, having some 250 well furnished rooms for families. The table will compare well with any other in the city, besides it has all the other requisites of a first class hotel—Parlors, Reading Rooms, Baths, &c., &c.

BAYARD TAYLOR
Writing for the New York Mercury.

The proprietors of this journal announce, with peculiar satisfaction, that they have at length secured, as a literary auxiliary, the graceful and brilliant pen of a gentleman distinguished in the annals of literature as the 'GOLDEN RULE' of America, and one of the most popular, chaste, lively and versatile of all the gifted writers of the public press of this country. Mr. Taylor has consented to prepare, EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE NEW YORK MERCURY, a series of delightfully entertaining articles, one of which will be presented every week, exhibiting the POETRY, ROMANCE, AND ANECDOTE OF TRAVEL.

BAYARD TAYLOR, ESQ.

the scenes and sentiment, the fancy and physique, the gloss and novelty, as well as humor and realities of a tour in foreign lands—not only depicting in those vivid colors for which he is celebrated, a fascinating picture of each interesting locale and incident, but mentally transferring, as it were, the enchanted reader to the very spot, and thus rendering him or her a part of the gratifying tableau. The first of this charming series of sketches will appear in the

MERCURY FOR APRIL 30, (Week after next),
and the whole of them, an invaluable addition to the library of American Genius, will be SUPERBLY ILLUSTRATED, and in a style of art worthy of the eminent character of the author, and the exquisite tone of his contributions. As the engagement of Mr. Taylor, under such circumstances, is an effort of enterprise which the Journalism of the Union will be especially able to appreciate, we are confident of its approbation; and experience teaches us too flatteringly the success which attends such adventurous outlays, to permit us to doubt that

A SURPASSING INCREASE, in point of circulation and popularity, will be the consequence of this new attraction. 1d2w

All work warranted to give satisfaction, or the money returned.

Howard Association,
PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution established by Special Endowment for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

IN times of Epidemics, it is the object of this Institution to establish Hospitals, to provide Nurses, Physicians, Clothing, Food, Medicines, &c., for the sick and destitute, to take charge of the orphans of deceased parents, and to minister in every possible way to the relief of the afflicted and the health of the public at large. It is the duty of the Directors, at such times, to visit personally the interested districts, and to provide and execute means of relief. Numerous physicians, not acting members of the Association, usually enrol their names on its books, subject to be called upon to attend its hospitals, free of charge.

In the absence of Epidemics, the Directors have authorized the Consulting Surgeon to give advice and medical aid to persons suffering under Chronic Diseases of a virulent character, arising from abuse of the physical powers, maltreatment, the effects of drugs, &c. Various Reports and Treats on the nature and treatment of Chronic Diseases, by the Consulting Surgeon, have been published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent free of charge to the afflicted.

Address, for Reports or Testimonials, Dr. GEORGE R. CALVERT, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth-street, Philadelphia, Pa.

DAILY DELTA.
TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 12.

'Go Ahead.'

In a recent lecture of Gen. Shields, on Mexico, delivered before the Roman Catholic institute of Baltimore, the speaker paid a just tribute to the 'goodness of heart' of the American soldiers. From Palo Alto, said he, which was the first battle to the City of Mexico, we were victorious no matter under what circumstances, the Americans were always victorious, I can't account for it. The enemy were not cowards, for we used to say they stood killing better than any people we ever saw. I cannot account for it unless it was that the Americans never counted the odds, but went at it and took it for granted that they would be victorious anyhow.

The Romans have said, and they were great fighters, that men who think they can do a thing generally do it. Audacity does wonders, and French audacity fought all Europe; but the audacity of the American beats them all—his motto under all circumstances is 'Go ahead.' It is fully as effective as both the Roman and the French audacity, and is short and sweet.

CHARACTERISTIC OF THE CRAFT.—Karl Unglidd, a journeyman printer, died at Detroit a few days ago, after wandering over a large portion of the world. 'According to the Ohio Statesman, he was banished from Baden, Germany, for participating in the revolution of 1848. He reached the U. States just in time to volunteer in the Mexican war, and was wounded and disfigured for life at the battle of Buena Vista. After the war he traveled from Maine to Louisiana, and to the frontiers of civilization, as a journeyman printer; commenced the first German paper ever published in San Francisco, joined a theatrical company in Cincinnati, and was everywhere known as a scholar, poet, musician and wit. He never remained long enough in one place to call it his home, but wherever he went he left friends who admired his extraordinary talents and his characteristic vagaries. He could spin a yarn, write a poem, make a speech, sing a song, bring a melody from a guitar, or tip a glass of lager beer with unequalled spirit and cosmopolitan elegance.

'A SCOTCH LORD.'—Grant Thorburn appears now and then in a New York paper with a reminiscence or a bit of an old story. Here is his last:

'In 1774, Dr. Webster was a popular preacher in the Kirk of Scotland, in Edinburgh. Business brought him to London, and one day when passing the House of Lords, his curiosity induced him to make an effort to step in and see them. None were admitted without an order except hobblermen's servants. Webster being ignorant of this rule, requested admittance. 'To what Lord do you belong?' said the door-keeper. 'To the Lord Jehovah,' replied Webster. 'The Lord Jehovah!' repeated the keeper, 'I have kept here seven years, but I never heard of such a Lord. Jack,' said he to his fellow keeper, 'here's a chap who says he belongs to the Lord Jehovah; do you know such a Lord?' 'Never heard of him,' said Jack. 'But,' said Webster, willing to keep up the delusion, 'there is such a Lord.' 'Pass 'im in' said Jack, 'I s'pose it's some poor Scotch Lord.'

AFFECTING.—A person following close behind a couple returning from a juvenile party at a fashionable residence in Pittsfield, a few weeks since, happened to overhear the young gentleman thus address his companion in a voice of the tenderest solicitude:

'Charlotte Angelina, you must not set your youthful affections on me, for I am doomed to an early grave—mother says I am troubled with worms.'

An involuntary cough from the listener interrupted the self-devoting reply which of course, was leaping to Charlotte Angelina's lips.

BROKE HIS NOSE.—In addition to the breaking of the street lamps, we learn that a man, while trying to discover a northeast passage from Trade to Tryon street by the light of a red nose a few nights ago, was taken by a boy for a street lamp and plugged with a brick-bat.

TO TURPENTINE MAKERS.

NATIONAL POLICE GAZETTE.

THIS Great Journal of Crimes and Criminals is in its Thirtieth year, and is widely circulated throughout the country. It is the first paper of the kind published in the United States, and is distinctive in its character. It has lately passed into the hands of George W. Matseel & Co., by whom it will hereafter be conducted. Mr. Matseel was formerly Chief of Police of New York City, and he will no doubt render it one of the most interesting papers in the country. Its editorials are forcibly written, and of a character that should command for the paper universal support.

Subscriptions, $2 per annum; $1 for six Months, to be remitted by Subscribers, (who should write their names, and the town, county, and State where he resides plainly), to
