CAROLINA CITY HOTEL.
J. A. PARROTT AND L. J. NEWBORN, Proprietors,
Carolina City, N. C.

EVERY possible attention paid to the comfort of guests. Suites of rooms for the convenience of families. Boats always in waiting to convey guests or others in pursuit of business or pleasure, to any point on the harbor. Charges moderate.
This Hotel is pleasantly situated on Bogue Sound, and immediately on the Atlantic Railroad, where guests enjoy the luxury of an almost perpetual sea breeze. The facilities for fishing and bathing cannot, anywhere, be excelled. The wide view of the ocean is bounded only by the horizon; and the Fort and Harbor are distinctly in view. The proprietors respectfully solicit, and will endeavor to merit, a liberal share of public patronage.

$50.00 SEWING MACHINES.
The Quaker City Sewing Machine works with two threads, making a double lock stitch, which will not rip or ravel, even if every fourth stitch be cut. It sews equally as well, the coarsest Linsey, or the finest Muslin, and is undeniably the best Machine in market. Merchant Tailors, Mantau-Makers and House Keeper, are invited to call and examine for themselves.
Mr. P. A. Wilson, Merchant Tailor, Winston, N. C., having tried our Machines, buys one of the Quaker City and pronounces it far better than any before in use.
All persons wishing to secure the agency for the sale of the Quaker City machine, in any of the towns of North Carolina, except the county of Wake, which is secured to Messrs. Tucker & Co., of Raleigh, and the county of Forsyth, taken to P. A. Wilson, of Winston, should apply soon by the undersigned, agents for the State. We will pay a reasonable per cent. to all persons taking agencies.
J. & F. GARRETT, Agents.

GASTON HOUSE.
WM. P. MOORE, Proprietor.
THE subscriber having taken charge of the above establishment, respectfully announces that it is now open for the accommodation of the TRAVEL-LING PUBLIC and BOARDERS GENERALLY.
The Gaston House is pleasantly located, from the south window of which there is a fine view of both the Neuse and Trent Rivers, while during the Summer, the south and west winds render the entire building delightfully cool.
The Rooms are large and well-furnished.
The Table is well supplied, from the Northern and Home Markets.
Having also large and commodious Stables and excellent Osters, he will board Horses by the day, week or month. He has also convenient arrangements for the accommodations of Horse Drivers.
The Proprietor will exert every effort to give entire satisfaction to those who may favor him with their patronage.
WM. P. MOORE,
1-dly

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber will attend at his office, on East Front Street, from the 2nd Monday in July next, to the 1st Thursday in August, for the purpose of receiving from the inhabitants of the New-bern District, their respective lists of Taxables.

Midsummer-Nights' Dream:
This Splendid $20, (4 GUINEA), LONDON PRINT, BEAUTIFULLY RE-ENGRAVED BY SARTAIN EMBELLISHES THE
Electric Magazine
For February, 1859.

TWO match prints, Scott and his friends, Shakepeare and his Contemporaries—25 Portraits adorn the January No.
Portraits of two Empresses—EUGENIA, of France in Imperial Robes, and MARIA THERESA, of Austria, embellish the March No. Other splendid plates will follow.
The ELECTIC invites all lovers of choice reading to its sumptuous pages, which contain—The best articles—crem gathered from 7 British Quarters and 9 Monthlies—like cream from the best of rich milk gathered into one, for the literary appetite of the reader and the family.
The ELECTIC is the best, richest in intellectual wealth, most varied, most fit from moral poison, most satisfactory monthly published.
Its portraits and artistic embellishments surpass all others. They are an attractive gallery of fine arts, refining in influence.
The ELECTIC is the cheapest, in view of the treasures it contains. Its reading matter is nearly equal in a year to three entire British Quarters, which cost $7. The ELECTIC is only $5. Its embellishments alone are worth that money.
It is the easiest and cheapest way of getting a choice library of current literature, good for all time.
An intelligent press, fair and near, and eminent men, commend THE ELECTIC in strong and emphatic language.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS!
TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
Paying in advance, the January number 1859 will be sent, embellished with two splendid match prints—Sir Walter Scott, and his friends and Shakespeare and his Contemporaries, containing twenty-eight portraits—surpassing all precedent.

NATIONAL POLICE GAZETTE.
THE Great Journal of Crimes and Criminals is in its Thirtieth year, and is widely circulated throughout the country. It is the first paper of the kind published in the United States, and is distinctive in its character. It has lately passed into the hands of George W. Matesell & Co., by whom it will hereafter be conducted. Mr.
Matesell was formerly chief of Police of New York City, and he will no doubt render it one of the most interesting papers in the country. Its editorial are forcibly written, and of a character that should commend for the paper universal support.

BAYARD TAYLOR
Writing for the New York Mercury.

The proprietors of this journal announce, with peculiar satisfaction, that they have at length secured, as a literary auxiliary, the graceful and brilliant pen of BAYARD TAYLOR, ESQ., a gentleman distinguished in the annals of literature as the 'GOLDSMITH OF AMERICA,' and one of the most popular, chaste, lively and versatile, of all the gifted writers of the public press of this country. Mr. Taylor has consented to prepare, EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE NEW YORK MERCURY,

a series of delightfully entertaining articles, one of which will be presented every week, exhibiting the POETRY; ROMANCE, AND ANECDOTE OF TRAVEL.
the scenes and sentiment, the fancy and physique, the gloss and novelty, as well as humor and realities, of a tour in foreign lands—not only depicting in those vivid colors for which he is celebrated, a fascinating picture of each interesting locale and incident, but mentally transferring, as it were, the enchanted reader to the very spot, and thus rendering him or her a part of the gratifying tableau. The first of this charming series of sketches will appear in the

MERCURY FOR APRIL 30, (Week after next), and the whole of them, as invaluable additions to the library of American Genius, will be SUPERBLY ILLUSTRATED, and in a style of art worthy of the eminent character of the author, and the exquisite tone of his contributions. As the engagement of Mr. Taylor, under such circumstances, is an effort of enterprise which the journalism of the Union will be especially able to appreciate, we are confident of its approbation; and experience teaches us too flatteringly the success which attends such adventurous outlays, to permit us to doubt that A SURPASSING INCREASE, in point of circulation and popularity, will be the consequence of this new attraction. 1d2w

T. L. HALL,
Formerly Proprietor of the Gaston House, Newbern WESTERN HOTEL, NEW YORK.
HAVING recently identified himself with the interests of this establishment, would respectfully solicit your patronage (and Southerners generally, visiting this city). As the design is to make this House in a great degree the Home of the Southerner, all who come to it are assured that they will find a genuine Southerner to attend to their wants and comforts.
The house is admirably located, especially for business men, being on Courtland Street only a few doors from Broadway, in the immediate vicinity of the Southern Railroad and Steamboat Stations. It has ample accommodations, having some 250 well furnished rooms for families. The table will compare well with any other in the city, besides it has all the other requisites of a first class hotel—Parlors, Reading Rooms, Bath, &c., &c.

Howard Association,
PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution established by Special Endowment for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed afflicted with Viru-lents and Epidemic Diseases.

IN times of Epidemics, it is the object of this Institution to establish Hospitals, to provide Nurses, Physicians, Clothing, Food, Medicines, &c., for the sick and destitute, to take charge of the orphans of deceased parents, and to minister in every possible way to the relief of the afflicted and the health of the public at large. It is the duty of the Directors, at such times, to visit personally the infected districts, and to provide and execute means of relief. Numerous physicians, not acting members of the Association, usually enrol their names on its books, subject to be called upon to attend its hospitals, free of charge.
In the absence of Epidemics, the Directors have authorized the Consulting Surgeon to give advice and medical aid to persons suffering under CHRONIC DIS-EASES of a virulent character, arising from abuse of the physical powers, maltreatment, the effects of drugs, &c.
Various REPORTS and TRACTS on the nature and treatment of Chronic Diseases, by the Consulting Surgeon, have been published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent free of charge to the afflicted.

NAPOLEON'S DYING WORDS.—A late visitor at his tomb in St. Helena writes: 'I turned away from the house and tomb with deeper convictions than ever of 'the vanity of man as mortal.' Who would not? And that death-room! How the last words linger about it which Napoleon uttered in-from a crushed and bleeding heart!
'General Bertrand, I shall soon be in my grave. Such is the fate of great men. So it was with Caesar Alexander. And I too, am forgotten, and the Marengo conqueror and emperor is a College theme. My exploits are tasks given to pupils by their tutor, who sits in judgment upon, according to me censure or praise. And remark what is soon to become of me. I die before my time, and my dead body, too, must return to the earth, and become food for worms.— Behold, the destiny now at hand of him who has been called the Great Napoleon! What an abyss between my great misery and the eternal reign of Christ, who is proclaimed, loved, and adored, whose kingdom is extending over all the earth.

AN ENGLISHMAN TURNED TURK.—The Ceylon Times says:
The last steamer for Suez brought to our shores the Hon. Mr. Stanley, eldest son of Lord Stanley, of Alderley, who is on his travels eastward, having reached Suez in an Arab craft from Mecca, whither he had been to visit the shrine of the Prophet. The Hon. gentleman, we are informed had embraced Mahometanism, and travels with shaven crown, Fez cap, and long flowing robes, realizing outwardly, our ideas of a follower of the Prophet. He has been fraternizing with the Tambies in Colombo and Kandy, eating his rice and curry cross-legged on the floor, with his friends in true Oriental fashion, going to the mosques to worship, &c.

STABBING AFFRAY BETWEEN BOYS.—In Philadelphia, a lad twelve years of age, named Kane, was stabbed in the neck yesterday morning by a playmate named Casey, and severely wounded. The sufferer was taken to his home, where he was attended by a physician. Casey ran away, and has not since been arrested.

Mr. Bonner, of the New York Ledger, we see it stated, has purchased the trotting horse Lantern and mate for $10,000.
Mr. B. must be doing a flourishing business with his paper, to be able to pay such a large sum for horse flesh.

'The little darling—he didn't strike Mrs. Smith's baby a purpose; did he? It was a mere accident; wasn't it dear?'
'Yes, ma'am, to be sure it was, and if he don't behave himself, I'll crack him again.'

STRAWBERRIES.—In Patterson, N. J. the markets are flooded with strawberry, price one or two cents per basket.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

THIS valuable and widely circulated journal, endorsed upon its Fourteenth Year on the 11th of September.
It is an Illustrated Periodical, devoted to the promotion of information relating to the various Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Manufactures, Mill Work, and all interests which the light of Practical Science is calculated to advance.
All the most valuable patented discoveries are delineated and described in its issues, so that, as respects inventions, it may be justly regarded as an Illustrated Repository, where the inventor may learn what has been done before him in the same field which he is exploring, and where he may publish to the world a knowledge of his own achievements.

Reports of American Patents granted are also published every week, including official copies of all the Patent Claims. These Patent Claims are furnished from the Patent Office Records expressly for this paper, and published in the Scientific American in advance of all other publications.
Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, Agriculturists, and people in every profession of life, will find the Scientific American to be of great value in their respective callings.
Its counsels and suggestions will save them hundreds of dollars annually, besides affording them a continual source of knowledge, the value of which is beyond pecuniary estimate.
