The Charges and Specifications.

CHARGE THE FIRST.
Keep it before the People.

That whilst the steady and certain maintenance of the great COMPROMISE of 1850, is of vital importance to the Constitutional rights and interests of the Southern States, and to the safety and permanency of the Union—and the most important object to the whole country to be kept in view in the pending canvass for President and Vice President, the leaders of the Democratic party, whilst professing special zeal for the maintenance of these measures have shown by their actions that for the sake of party advancement they are ready to expose it, especially the Fugitive Slave Law, to the chance of a repeal or such a modification as to render its provisions useless.

SPECIFICATION 1st. That the leaders of the Democratic party, since the passage of the Compromise, in New York, Ohio, in Connecticut, in New Hampshire, in Massachusetts and in Rhode Island, have formed coalitions with the Free Soil abolitionist parties of those States, by which a bargain was entered into by the contracting parties, that the Candidates for office should be composed of an equal number of Democrats and Free-soilers and Abolitionists—and that by means of this coalition they have been enabled to carry the elections in those States, and to elect many rank Free-soilers and Abolitionists to office.

SPECIFICATION 2d. That the Democratic leaders in Congress, during the last session, encouraged by the success of these conditions in several of the States, laboured to effect and to a great extent did effect, a similar coalition between the Democratic party proper, the Disunionists and Secessionists, and the Free-soilers and Abolitionists throughout the Union for the purpose of carrying the Presidential election—and distributing the offices of Government.

CHARGE THE SECOND.
Keep it before the People.

That the Democratic Convention which assembled in Baltimore on the first of June last, was composed of the most discordant materials that were ever brought together for a common political object, and held together "by the cohesive power of public plunder" long enough to act—That it was composed of Barnburners, Free-soil-ers, Abolitionists and National Democrats from the free States, and of Secessionists, Disunionists and Union Democrats from the Southern States.

SPECIFICATION 1st. That in consequence of the united opposition to the Compromise, (but for totally different reasons,) of the Free-soilers and Abolitionists, the Convention was compelled after discussion, to refuse to pass a national platform of principles, recognizing the binding force of that Compromise, until after the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency was made.

SPECIFICATION 2d. That owing to the opposition of the great number in this Democratic Convention to the Compromise measures, the platform of principles put forth by the Convention, could not be, and was not adopted by the Convention, but according to high Democratic authority, was smuggled through just at the close of the proceedings, when not more than one third of the members was present—who were imperfectly heard even by those who were present —and when a considerable portion of those who did hear them voted against them.

CHARGE THE THIRD.
Keep it before the People.

That in consequence of the jarring opinions in the Democratic Convention upon the Compromise question, and the number of factions that compose the Democratic party of the Union, the Convention after a session of several days and a great number of ballottings, found it could not nominate any one of the men whose opinions were well known and decisive upon that measure, and who had been held up before the people as the only Democratic candidates for the Presidency—but in order to avoid breaking up without making a nomination, it was compelled to select an obscure individual in New Hampshire, whose course upon the slavery question, subsequent developments have proved, has been so contradictory, and whose position is so equivocal, that he is held up in the Free States as a rank Free-soil Wilnot Provisist—as opposed to the fugitive slave law—and in the Southern States as a strong pro-slavery man—as the "creation and choice" of the Southern rights Democrats.

SPECIFICATION 1st. That Franklin Pierce, the nominee of the Democratic Convention for the Presidency, as proved by the records of Congress, has voted in that body for and against receiving abolition petitions—and for and against Southern rights—that in New Hampshire he has used his influence in favour of sustaining the fugitive slave law since the passage of the Compromise, but never before—that he has been the leader of the Democratic party in that State, which has repeatedly in its Conventions and in the Legislature, passed the rankest Wilnot Provisist resolutions and instructing the Representatives in Congress from that State, to vote against the admission of any more Slave States into the Union.

SPECIFICATION 2d. That it has been proved by the record, that Franklin Pierce was a member of the New Hampshire State Convention, which met in 1850, and which Convention unanimously passed a resolution declaring: "That the holding of human beings in bondage is a curse to any country; that we are opposed to slavery, black or white, in all its forms, and under whatever circumstances." That on the 20th of November, 1850, in a speech delivered in Manchester, New Hampshire, he said: "The men who would dissolve the Union on account of Slavery, did not hate or deplore it more than he did." That he has also been proved beyond the shadow of a doubt, that Franklin Pierce, on the 2d of January, 1851, in a speech at New Boston, New Hampshire, said: "I have been asked if I liked the Fugitive Slave Law. I answered no! I loathed it. I have a most revolting feeling to the giving up of a fugitive slave; the law is opposed to humanity—it is opposed to moral right."

SPECIFICATION 3d. That Franklin Pierce is now warmly supported at the South, by James M. Masson, Jefferson Davis, R. M. T. Hunter, A. P.
Butler, R. K. Crall and E. J. De Leon, secessionists and disunionists—the Savannah Georgia and Charleston Mercury, secession and dis-union papers—and at the North by the great body of the Democratic Free-soilers, including Martin Van Buren, John Van Buren, John A. Dix, President King, B. F. Hallett, B. F. Butler, David Wilcox, Thos. W. Doss, W. J. Brown, H. Hamlin, John Atwood, Moses Norris, and C. F. Cleveland, Free-soilers and Abolitionists—the New York Evening Post, Plaindealer, Albany Atlas, and Daily Democrat, Free-soil and Abolition papers.

VAYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is offered to the community with the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to realize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind, is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs, which are incident to our climate. And not only in the formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of Colds, Coughs, Hoarseuess, &c., and for Children it is the pleasentest and safest medicine that can be obtained. No family should be without it, and those who have used it, never will.
Read the opinion of the following Gentlemen, who will be recognized in the various sections of country where they are located—each and all as merchants of the first class and of the highest character—as the oldest and most extensive Wholesale Dealers in Medicine with an experience unlimited on the subject of which they speak. If there is any value in the judgment of experience, see

THIS CERTIFICATE.
We the undersigned, Wholesale Druggists, having been long acquainted with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, hereby certify our belief that it is the best and most effectual remedy for Pulmonary Complaints ever offered to the American People—And we would, from our knowledge of its composition, and extensive usefulness, cordially commend it to the afflicted as worthy their best confidence, and with the firm conviction that it will do for them what it has done for us.

GRAND MASTER'S OFFICE OF THE GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CARO- LINA.

Newbern, April 19, 1852.

To the Masonic Fraternity in North Carolina.
At the last communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge, it was Resolved, that each Mason in the State, both resident and active, be and he is herby most earnestly requested by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, to transmit as soon as possible to Brother A. T. JERKINS, of Newbern, C. W. D.
Directress, of Raleigh, WILLIAM SWAIN, of Greensboro, or E. MYERS, of Salisbury, as may be most convenient, the sum of $5, more or less, for the speedy erection of St. John's College, the receipt whereof will be weekly announced in the papers published in the aforementioned places.

Brothers, with confidence of success, I appeal to your liberality in behalf of this enterprise, the importance of which has been fully established by the Grand Lodge, and the general concurrence of the Brethren throughout the State. While enough has already been done to encourage the hope of success, and evince its entire practicality, much yet remains to be done to render this success certain, and even to procure unremittently the measures already commenced. And yet it is confidently believed, that the aid which you are able to render will be amply sufficient to accomplish all this, and that speedily. Upon your action then as Masons depends the success of an enterprise which promises the richest benefits to the cause of Masonry and of humanity in general—Some of our Lodges have contributed promptly and nobly to this work, and we only ask your careful consideration of the subject, convinced as we are that nothing more is needed to secure your cordial co-operation in a favourable and early response to this appeal.
Remember that in this as in every other social movement, harmony is its strength and support.
I am Fraternally and Respectfully, yours,
A. T. JERKINS,
Grand Master
