BEAUFORT JOURNAL.

A Commercial and Family Newspaper,

PUBLISHED IN BEAUFORT, N. C. The "Beaufort Journal" commenced its Second Volume, on the 12th of April, 1858. The Journal being the only paper published on Beaufort Harbor, and the only one devoted to its interest, the Editor appeals to all who feel an interest in that locality, to give their support to his paper. The Editor makes no hollow promises' that his paper shall be the best in the country for the price, or that there will be any extra display of talent in its Editorial Columns, as is frequently the case in issuing Prospectuses for country papers, but he does pledge himself to publish a good paper—one worthy of a liberal support from the people of the State. It is the design of the Editor to Newbern and the public, that he has made arrange. make the Journal a first class Commercial Paper, to give reports of the Markets, Foreign and Domestic, the Lutest News, &c.

The Journal will continue, as heretofore, Inde pendent on all subjects. It will take sides with no political party, but will advocate such measures as are thought best calculated to promote the interests

OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. VOLUME KIV. BEGINS SEPTEMBER II, 1858.

Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers and Farmers! The Scientific American has now reached its Fourthe 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from the title, a dry, abstrase work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical and industrial, worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the Mechanic or Artizan wishes to know the best nachine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business, if the Housewife wishes to get recipt for making a good color, &c .- if the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way f improvements-if the Manufacturer wishes to keet osted with the times, and to employ the best facili ies in his business-if the Man of Leisure and Study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress nade in the chemical laboratory, or in the construcion of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, nowers, and a thousand other machines and appli ances, both of peace and war-all these desidera san be found in the Scientific American, and not else where.
