BEAUFORT JOURNAL. A Commercial and Family Newspaper,

PUBLISHED IN BEAUFORT, N. C.
The "Beaufort Journal" commenced its Second Volume, on the 12th of April, 1858. The Journal being the only paper published on Beaufort Harbor, and the only one devoted to its interest, the Editor appeals to all who feel an interest in that locality, to give their support to his paper. The Editor makes no hollow promises that his paper shall be the best in the country for the price, or that there will be any extra display of talent in its Editorial Columns, as is frequently the case in issuing Prospectuses for country papers, but he does pledge himself to publish a good paper—one worthy of a liberal support from the people of the State. It is the design of the Editor to make the Journal a first class Commercial Paper, to the Latest News, &c.

The Journal will continue, as heretofore, Indewill be devoted to local and commercial news, the pendent on all subjects. It will take sides with no political party, but will advocate such measures as are thought best calculated to promote the interests of the country and of our State.

As to the different localities in this vicinity, it is not our object to show partiality, but to advocate the claims of Beaufort Harbor, and leave Beaufort, Morehead, and Carolina Cities to stand on their own merits-believing that more good can be accomplished in this way than in discussing the claims or advantages of localities; -and we appeal to the citizens, those interested, and to the friends of these places, to give us their support.

The completion of the Atlantic & North-Carolina Railroad is near at hand, and it is very important that the only paper published on this Harbor should be widely circulated, in order that its Commercial advantages may become better known. Persons at a distance, who feel an interest in this place, will find the Journal to be very interestring, as we shall be careful to give all local news of any importance.

DROSPECTUS OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. VOLUME XIV. BEGINS SEPTEMBER 11, 1858.

Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers and Farmers! The Scientific American has now reached its Four teenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical and industrial, worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the Mechanic or Artizan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance em ployed in his business, if the Housewife wishes to get a recipt for making a good color, &c .- if the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the Manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to employ the best facilities in his business-if the Man of Leisure and Study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construcmowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderata can be found in the Scientific American, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science will attach prize cards to the articles, or flags to

MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 20, 1858.

The North Carolina State Fair.

To OUR MECHANICS AND FARMERS :- The next Annual State Fair is to be held in Raleigh on the 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd of October. It promises to be unusually attractive. Where are our farmers and machanics? Mechanics of Newbern, do you not mean to be represented there? Farmers of Craven, will you not contribute your mite to make the approaching Fair the most successful yet held in the State? We trust so.

Let it be remembered that all articles for exhibition will be taken up and returned free of charge. From the following Regulations the requirements made by the Executive Committee, of Exhibitors, may be ascertained: REGULATIONS. 1. All members of the North-Carolina State Agricultural Society will be furnished with a badge of membership, upon payment of the annual tax of $2, and will be required to wear the same during the Fair. This badge will admit the ladies of his family and children under eighteen years of age during the Fair. 2. Agricultural Societies and Institutions from other States are invited to send delegates. Such delegates will be presented with a complimentary card.

3. All exhibitors who intend to compete for the premiums of the Society, must become members of the same, and have their articles on the ground and entered at the Secretary's Office in Reception Hall, at or before 5 o'clock on Monday evening,

Oct. 18th, without fail, so that they may be arranged in their respective departments. 4. The regulations of the Society must be strictly observed by exhibitors, otherwise the Society Per annum. will not be responsible for the omission of any

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money | tion must have cards with the number as entered at the Secretary's office; and exhibitors in all cases must obtain their cards previous to placing their articles or animals on the Fair Grounds. 7. Those who wish to offer animals or articles for sale during the Fair, must notity the Secretary of such intention at the time of entry. 8. The Executive Committee will employ a day and night guard, and will use all reasonable precaution in their power, for the safe preservation of all articles and stock on exhibition, but will not be responsible for loss or damage that may occur. Exhibitors must give attention to their articles or animals during the Fair, and at the close of the exhibition attend to their removal. 9. The awarding committee or judges, selected for the next Fair, are earnestly requested to report themselves to the chairman of the Executive Committee, or at Reception Hall, upon the grounds of the Society on Tuesday morning, the 19th of October, 1858.

10. In no case can the judges award special or discretionary premiums; but will recommend to the Executive Committee any articles in their class which they may deem worthy of special notice and for which a premium has not been offered. 11. The judges on animals will have regard to the symmetry, early maturing, breeding and characteristics of the breeds which they judge, They will make proper allowances for the age, feeding and condition of the animals, especially in the breeding classes, and will not give encouragement to over-fed animals. 12. No stock of inferior quality will be admitted within the grounds; a committe will be appointed to rule out all below a medium grade. 13. Animals to which premiums have been awarded must be paraded around the track, that visitors may see the prize animals. 14. No person will be allowed to interfere with the judges during their adjudication.

15. The several superintending committees will give particular direction to all articles in their departments, and see that all are arranged in the best order possible to lessen and facilitate the labors of the judges in their examination. 16. The superintendents will attend each set of judges in their respective departments and point out the different articles or animals to be examined, the successful animals after the judges' reports have been made up and delivered to the chairman of the Executive Committee. 17. The judges will withhold premiums on animals or articles in their opinion not worthy; though there be no competition.

18. Premiums of $25, or upwards, will be awarded in plate or money, at the option of the person to whom the award is made. 19. Stock brought to the Fair for sale, will have an enclosed lot adjoining the Fair Grounds assigned them, with water convenient, where they can be kept at the expense of the owner. 20. Articles manufactured in the State, when brought in competition with foreign articles, will take precedence, other things being equal, and the foreign articles be entitled to the second premium. 21. Articles not enumerated will be entitled to discretionary premiums, at the option of the Exewhich it has received. They believe that the Mag- be in attendance during the hours of exhibition, to keep proper order. 23. No exhibitor will be permitted to enter more than one animal in each of the sub-classes, 24. Animals, when duly entered, are well provided for by the Society, without charge to the owner, and cannot be removed from the ground, except by permission of the Executive Committee. 25. All machines, implements, or other products of mechanical art, must be exhibited by their respective makers, or inventors, or improvers, or their assignors, to or for whom only premiums for such articles will be awarded. 26. Every machine or implement offered for a premium must be so designed or described as will serve to indentify it to future purchasers, and also the selling price of the article must be stated and marked on the labels, and in the published reports of premium articles. 27. Efficiency, cheapness and durability will be regarded as chief excellencies in every machine or implement.

28. The track will be open for the trial of harlarger amount of matter, more numerous and better ness and saddle horses every day during the Fair. 29. A band of music will be in attendance each day, during the hours of exhibition.

30. An efficient police will take charge of the grounds during the night.
