RALEIGH, Sept. 30. Dear Progress: - We are going to have a fine time of it at our State Fair. I learn from parties well informed on the subject that an unusual degree of interest is being manifested, and that the will be fully represented, as the time does not conflict with any of their own arrangements. The quantity of superior stock, particularly of horses, Brass Band-said to be the best Band in the State. | the difficulty was amicably adjusted. Stir up your people, for "there's a good time com-

hand, and my word for it, it will be handsomely | West & Broth, and John H. Stevenson carried out. Send up your young bloods, and let them take a turn in the lists with our "chaps"and let us see some of your celebrated Newbern beauties compete with Raleigh for the honor of ilso, from all parts of the State. Old Raleigh they will do so. against them all!

I was not present to hear Mr. Saunders' lecture excluded the members thereof-that is, they did that section of the country. not invite their attendance, or, in other words, did not give them tickets of admission. The policy of such a course is extremely doubtful, even if the Guards owed nothing to the press of Raleigh; but the fact is they are deeply indebted, not merely in this present instance, but also in every instance m which a word could be said for them. This is decidedly an unfortunate commencement-having brown the press upon its "dignity" and self-respect, and working injustice to the talented young

In connection with this I have to state that Captain Tucker has resigned the command of the company, (for what cause has not transpired,) and that Lieutenant, Charles H. Thompson has been flected to the captaincy. Captain Thompson will make a competent commander; but I confess to adislike for these sudden changes in organization.

A district constable, named Hint. Franklin, has entered an action against Mayor Harrison for false imprisonment, assessing his damage at $1000. The facts seem to be these: Franklin interposed without cause, in a case before the Mayor and made use of improper language. The Mayor ordered him to be silent and leave the office, or he would put him in the guard house. Franklin in leaving the office turned, and, addressing the mayor, said "G-d d-d you, I'll settle with you when you come out!" He was thereupon ordered under arrest and kept in the guard house one

In this connection, it may be proper to say, that Mayor Harrison has rendered himself extremely unpopular amongst certain lawless classes by his unflinching enforcement of the law. Those who knew Raleigh in years gone by, will readily perceive the improvement in the moral tone of he city. Rowdyism and street drunkenness are how almost unknown here, and negroes now for the first time, it would appear, seem to know their place. I need not add that the Mayor is sustained by the unanimous voice of the law and order loving citizens of the city. I understand the board of commissioners will sustain Mayor in Franklin's action against him. And so they

So you have received "several letters" "complaining of statements" made by "Walter!" What of that? You have been long enough in ther poor Walter, nor any other of your corresponlents, can please every body with whom he has to Indeed Walter does not try to do so. He has nothing to do with persons—he merely deals the fault is not Walter's. No one of the "several sept 21 Walter has yet disproved anything alleged by Walter to be a fact. But you had a paper returned of this you "Raleigh subscribers." Well, of this you may rest assured, that, whatever that have gained the friendship of ten where you have lost that of one. I can't imagine what the "Stockholder" has to complain of with reference to my remarks on the "gas question." I am a friend of CWAN & CO.'S LOTTERIES the enterprise; and in speaking of it, I but drew 'officer" of the Charlotte Gas Company. But, my dear Progress, I don't like controversy, and will have none.

The weather is delightful, though somewhat too cool for the season. WALTER.

KINSTON, Sept. 29, 1858. Dear Progress: - After a long time I have embraced an opportunity to drop you a few lines, and let you know how we are "progressing" in this section of our beloved country.

I have but little news to communicate, of interest, to your numerous readers.

Our County Court was in session all of last week. Much business of importance was transacted by the Court. The State Docket was unusually large, and many old offenders were fined and imprisoned for the transgression of the laws.

Quite a large number of legal gentleman were in attendance. Among them I noticed Hon. Wm. H. Washington, George S. Stevenson, George Green and Seth Attmore, Esqs., of Newbern; E. A. Thompson, George V. Strong and William Robinson, of Goldsboro'; Mr. Stallings, of Kenansville; John F. Wooten, George Washington, Captain-Mayor of Raleigh in a Fix-Won't George C. Woodley and Henry R. Strong, Esqs., of Kinston. I also had the pleasure of meeting with your townsman, Wm. H. Oliver, Esq. Mr. Oliver is one of the most energetic business men in North Carolina; he has a very extensive up country trade, especially from this county, and it continues to increase. I was also pleased to see in our town on last Saturday night, President Whitford; he called at the Pollock House a few exhibition will be a very superior one. Virginia down on the freight train. [Correspondence of the Daily Progress.] Superior Court-Capital Cases-No Civil Cases Tried-A Woman to be tried for murder, etc.

SMITHFIELD, Sept. 30th, 1858. Dear Progress: -Your valuable paper has found its way to our quiet town, and as you have had, as yet, no letter from this place, I will attempt to give you a synopsis of the doings of the week, it being the Fall Term of our Superior Court.

Three capital cases stood for trial at the commencement of the term: On yesterday, Exum, a slave, was put upon trial for the murder of Mr. Alvin Atkinson. Attorney General Jenkins, assisted by Wm. T. Dortch, for the State, and H. W. Miller, and A. M. and R. G. Lewis for the prisoner. After the examination of witnesses, and argument by counsel, the case was given to the jury, who returned a verdict of guilty.

To-day, Mrs Martha Morgan, indicted for the murder of Alex. Allen, was brought into court. by The excitement in her case was intense. Strong prejudices exist against and for her. The case was removed to Wake, on account of the prejudice in Johnson against the prisoner. She will be tried at Raleigh next week, when the Attorney General, assisted by Sidney Smith, will appear for the State, and H. W. Miller, A. M. and R. G. Lewis and Mr. Abell for the prisoner.

To-morrow, Friday, Henry, a slave will be put apon trial for the murder of a Mr. Murray. The Attorney General will appear for the State, and Geo. V. Strong and O. H. Bryan for the prisoner. After this case is disposed of Judge Caldwell says he will adjourn the court, so there will be no civil
