IREDELL SUPERIOR COURT .- The Fall Term of the Superior Court for the County of Iredell, says the Express of Friday, is in Session at Statesville this week, Judge Manly presiding. We did not hear the charge of his Honor to the Grand Inquest of the Country, but learn that it was able and comprehensive. On Tuesday, Wilson, a negro boy, about twenty years of age, the property of Miss Nancy Allison, of this County, was put upon trial for the murder of Mrs. M. Freeland, in July last, by inflicting wounds with a heavy stick of which she died, for the purpose of robbery, and the particulars of which we detailed at the time. The panal was soon made up, the prisoner plead " not guilty," and the case proceeded. The testimony against the accused was circumstancial, corroberated by confessions made by the culprit at the time of his arrest and during imprisonment, leaving no doubt upon the minds of the jury and large concourse of people with which the court house was crowded pending the trial, that Wilson's hand perpetrated the horrid deed for which he will soon suffer the death penalty. Much care was taken in the examination of testimony and collating circumstances, which consumed the forepart of the day, and the pleadings were made in the afternoon. The case went to the jury about four o'clock, p. m., who retiring returned in ten minutes and rendered their verdict-Guilty of Murder!

For the State, Mr. Solicitor Lander: the unfortunate culprit was ably defended, by Messrs, L. Q. Sharpe and W. P. Caldwell, Esqs.

Wilson has been sentenced to be hanged, Friday 22 instant.

year was held, and "the last General Conference having decided that the making and vending of ardent spirits was an act of immorality, the question arose, whether or not those engaged in that business could be retained in the Church. After an interchange of views at/some length, it was decided, that those engaged in making or dealing in the article, who were now in the Church, should be borne with for a season, but that means should be ultimately used to rid the Church of the evil."

DAMAGES AWARDED .- Our readers may remember that in 1855, two brothers, named Everett, taking offense at some remark of Patrick McGowan, a mail agent on the Raleigh & Gaston Road, made a joint attack upon McGowan, at Weldon, beating him unmercifully, so much so, indeed, that his life was despaired of. McGowan sued for damages, claiming $10,000. After almost interminable delays the case was tried at the Superior Court for Wake Co., held this week at Raleigh, Judge Caldwell on the bench. The jury after being out an hour and a half, came in with a verdict of five hundred dollars damages. We presume the suit, lingering for over three years has already cost McGowan every cent of this and more too.

PULLED DOWN .- On last Friday night, the " Vigilance Committee" of Salem, rased the old wall, immediately below the Museum and Musicire satisfaction to those who may favor him with hall building, which should have been removed some time since, by the proper authorities.

> DRY WEATHER .- In several respects the past summer has been, says the Winston Sentinel, one of the most remarkable of which we have any recollection. We believe that the drought, in this section, has been more severe and protracted than any that has been experienced for a number of years. At this place, we have had no rain sufficient to wet the ground thoroughly, since the middle of July last. Very few of our farmers. have been able to sow their wheat this fall, and the consequence is that if put in at all, the crop must be unusually late.

> Hon. T. L. Clingman, Prof. Lecomte, S. C. College, and Prof. Buckley, N. Y., have recently taken barometrical measurements of several mountain peaks in Haywood and Jackson counties, North Carolina. It has thus been found that a peak of Smoky Mountain, near the Ten-essee line, is twenty-five feet higher than the pinnacle of the Black Mount Mitchell 6,711 feet above the sea level. Several peaks, it is estimated, are higher than Mount Washington, hitherto supposed to be the highest mountain east of the Mississippi.

A COWHIDING CASE .- A. Mrs. Ann Burges called vesterday, says the New York, Day Book of the 9th inst., upon her brother-in-law, Joseph Burges, doing business at No. 20 Warren street, and made an attack upon him with a rawhide, beating him about the head and arms. On being arrested, sile was taken before Justice Welsh, whip in hand. She gave in extenuation the usual plea that Mr. B. had spoken of her in disrespectful terms, and she had determined to punish him for it with her own hands. Justice Welsh properly remarked " that a woman unsexes herself by the performance of such an act ; that it was disgraceful and highly to be reprehended : that she had a me to it are assured that they will find a genuine husband, and if she had been injured in any
