ROWAN HOUSE .-- By M. L. Robards, SALISBURY, N. C.-This popular Hotel, by the indefatigable ROBARDS, still continues to sustain its former reputation for neatness, quiet, and good fare, and no house in North Carolina enjoys a better proportion of the patronage of the traveling public. It is located in the business portion of Salisbury, and remote from the bustle and confusion necessary attendant on railroad hotels. Here the weary traveler is sure of a quiet night's rest. An Oamibus, drawn arrival of the cars, for the use of the guests of the Rowan House, free of extra charge.

Stage passengers, remember, there is but one Stage Office in Salisbury, and that is kept at the Rowan House. When you arrive on the cars don't he misled by false out cries of "hirelings and ser-H. L. ROBARDS. vants." Sept 1 dly

OUTRAGE IN BLADEN COUNTY .- A correspondent of the Fayetteville Observer gives the particulars of a mest outrageous affair committed about 20 miles below Elizabethtown. The facts as we learn from the Observer are as follows:

"A company of young men, five in number, in tion. A comfortable Omnibus runs regularly to the a drunken spree on last Tuesday night, went to the depot on the arrival of the cars. With these efforts house of a very poor man of the name of Baker, to please, a liberal share of the public patronage is confidently solicited. and went in, apparently, friendly, when one of the crowd threw a pail of water on the fire and put the crowd threw a pail of water on the fire and put it out, leaving them all in total darkness. One of them then threw Baker's wife on the floor with great violence.

The poor fellow seized one of his two children, his wife springing up took the other, and they ran towards the house of his old father, a distance of three or four hundred yards; but they were overtaken, and Baker was most cruelly whipped, after throwing him upon the ground and choking him until he could not call for help. They then left him, and he went on to his father's. On arriving there, his mother told him his house was on fire, and on looking back he saw it was in a light blaze, and every thing the poor fellow had in the world was destroyed. The same lawless crowd then went to the house of his brother, another Baker, and broke open his door,-knocked down his wife, tere off his shirt, and ran the whole family off the place. His house and everything

The Bakers were remarkably harmless and inoffensive men. There is great sympathy for them in their neighborhood.

An old free negro by the name of Young, and his wife,-who live close by the Bakers,-were great degree the HOME OF THE SOUTHERNER, all who also most cruelly beaten, and nearly all their come to it are assured that they will find a genuine household furniture destroyed. It is generally believed this too was the work of the same law-

Three of the rascals have been arrested, and two have made their escape. CAPTURED .- A negro boy named Wiley, be-

MR. CLAY TO THE BOYS .- The Western Farmers Almanac for 1859, contains a letter from Ashland to one of his namesakes, which has never before been published, and is so characteristic of that great man that we take pleasure in transfering it to our columns:

ASHLAND, 7th July, 1845. MY DEAR LITTLE NAMESAKE :- Your parents have done me the honor to give my name to yon. On that account, and at the request of your good mother, I address this note, which she wishes to preserve for your perusal when, by the lapse of time, you shall have attained an age that will enable you to comprehend and appreciate its frendly purport.

Your parents entertain fond hopes of you, and you ought to strive not to disappoint them. They wish you to be good, respected, eminent. You can realize their most sangine hopes, if you firmly resoive to do so, by judicious employment of your time and your faculties. Shun bad company, and all dissipation-its inevitable consequence. Study diligently and perseveringly. You will be surprised at the case with which you will master branches of knowledge which, at first view, will frighten you. Make honor, probity, trath and principle your invariable guides. Be obedient, and always affectionately respectfully to your parents. Assidnously cultivate virtue and religion, the surest guaranty of happiness, both here and hereafter. In your intercourse with your fellow beings be firm, but at the same time bland, courteous and obliging. Recognize at all times the paramount right of your country to your most devoted services, whether she treats you ill or well, and never let selfish views or interests predominate over the duties of patriotism.

By regulating yourself according to these rules sincere wish of their and your friend.

H. CLAY.

Master HENRY CLAY.

CHESS-LETTER FROM MR. MORPHY .- The London Era, received by the Persia, contains a manly and straightforward letter from Paul Morphy to H. Staunton, wherein it is stated that the insinuations in the chess column of The Illustrated London News (edited by H. Staunton) as to Mr. Morphy says he leaves the matter of appointing seconds and arranging preliminaries with the gentlemen of the St. George Chess Club, and requests Mr. S. to fix a day for commencing the match. We make the following extract:

"Permit me to repeat what I have invariably declared in every chess community I have had the honor of entering, that I am not a professional player-that I never wished to make any skill I possess the means of pecuniary advancement-and that my earnest desire is never to play for any stake but hopor. My friends in New Orleans, however, subscribed a certain sum, without any countenance from me, and that sum has been ready for you to meet a considerable time past.
