

Excitement for the Next Month. We may reasonably expect that the next four or five weeks, in Newbern, will be unusually gay, and that during most of that time the town will be crowded to its utmost capacity.

The first excitement will be the Presbyterian Synod, which is to assemble at the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday next. It will be seen by a notice under our special notice head, that the resident pastor requests families who wish to entertain ministers while in attendance on the Synod, to notify him of the fact. Of course our citizens will be clever and throw open their houses to the servants of the most High.

One week later, Monday the 22nd, the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. are to assemble at the Lodge Room in this place. This meeting will not only bring a large number of members of the Order here as delegates, but, in all probability, quite a number of others who will be attracted by the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

It is our misfortune not to be a member of the Order, but we feel sure that the resident members will see to it that their visiting brethren are received and treated in a proper manner.

And last, though by no means least, comes, on the 8th of December, the annual meeting of the Methodist Conference of North Carolina. Then the crowd will amount to a jam—the town will be full, and all our citizens must, as we know they will, throw open their houses to the members of the Conference and visitors. What a nice time the Conference will be for old bachelors. New bonnets, new dresses and new ribbons will be then exhibited for the first time; in fact the town will be full of youth and beauty, and we may reasonably expect a good time, spiritual, social and otherwise.

Of the doings of all these bodies the Progress will endeavor to keep its readers posted. We shall have competent reporters on hand to report the proceedings of each especially for our own paper, and the public may rely on correct and reliable details of the proceedings in the columns of the Daily Progress.

In view of all these "coming events" we expect to have material out of which to get up a more than ordinarily interesting paper, and we would suggest to parties at a distance that this is a good time to subscribe. Daily paper $6; Weekly, $1.50 a year, in advance.

ONSLOW.—The Superior Court for Onslow is in session this week, Judge Heath presiding. Solicitor Stevenson and others of the profession from Newbern are in attendance. W. P. Moore, Esq., whose presence had been requested as a witness, left yesterday morning.

A NEW RELIGIOUS SECT IN IOWA.—Some sixty or seventy miles north of Council Bluffs, in the County of Monona, about fifteen miles from the Missouri River, there is a town, containing six or eight hundred inhabitants, generally known as Preparation.

This town is the Zion of a new body of religious enthusiasts, who call themselves "Conjoprezites," and their system of religion or religious organization "the Conjoprezion," the meaning of which term remains to the Gentile world a profound mystery.

At the head of the organization is a man by name Charles B. Thompson, who is besides the editor of a weekly newspaper called The Newspaper. This paper is large, well printed, and upon political and general subjects is edited with much ability.

Of this sheet one or two pages are usually devoted to the publication of what are called "open letters" upon religious subjects, addressed by Charles B. Thompson, as follows: "The Chief Apostolic Pastor and Evangelical Bishop: To all the Elders of Israel, Evangelical and Traveling Presbyters of the Ecclesiastical Kingdom, and to Bishops, Presbyters, Deacons and members of the Conjoprezion, scattered abroad throughout all the world, sendeth greeting."

These letters are all dated at "the tower of the flock," and are most curious specimens of incomprehensible cant, being made up of passages from the Bible, extracts from "the Book of the Law and Covenant of Israel," and remarks by "the Chief Apostolic Pastor," indiscriminately mixed up together.

From what we are able to learn from these letters, this curious sect believe in the Bible as the word of God; but also holds that it is in a measure done away with by new revelations made since the year 1848, by "the voice of Baaneum" through the medium of the "Chief Apostolic Bishop." These new revelations are styled "the Law and Covenants of Israel."

The property of the organization is held in common, and the earnings of all are thrown into the common stock, somewhat after the manner of the Shakers. The people are said to be quiet and orderly in their deportment, moral in their customs, and most devotedly and blindly attached to their religion or system of belief.

However strange it may appear, this organization has during the last year rapidly increased from fifty to eight hundred members, and is still receiving large accessions to its members.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR IN CHINA.—Attack on Nantow.—There has been an expedition against Nantow, which is situated upon a narrow neck of land, bounded by a Deep Bay on the east and by Tyshan Bay on the west. The town stretches nearly three miles along the beach and contains altogether about 25,000 inhabitants. The walled town is on a hill at the western extremity. The wall is about two miles in circumference, but can offer no resistance to modern engineering. On the 10th of August, General Straube and Commodore Keith Stuart made a reconnaissance, and ascertained that landing could only be effected at high tide. Everything was put in readiness, and the little fleet made its way up near to the Chinese batteries. A shot was discharged, which was answered, and soon the troops were landed, who succeeded in scaling the walls of the town, and plundering its deserted houses. Two or three of the English were killed, and Captain Lambert and Lieutenant Danvers were lost by the accidental discharge of a musket. Commander Madden, of the Sanspariel, was mortally wounded by a galling. The town generally was saved from destruction on a petition from the inhabitants.

True goodness is like the glow worm, it shines most when no eyes, except those of heaven are upon it.

LOCAL MATTERS.

MORE BURGLARIES.—How Quietly the Authorities Sleep.—On Sunday night, as he supposes, Rev. Wm. Walsh had about $50 stolen from his book store on Pollok street. Mr. Walsh had to pay a debt in Richmond of $50 in specie, and was saving up silver for that purpose, and was in the habit, every time he got hold of a little silver, of putting it in a small tin box which he kept locked, and which he kept in his store. Having about $50 in the box, he went on yesterday morning to the box, intending to count the money over and put it up to send to Richmond, but when he unlocked the box and opened it he found that about $45 of the money had been stolen and the box carefully riddled and left in its usual place. Some gold, a few dollars, and a little silver was left in the box. The store was found all right, the door locked and windows fastened, and it is thought that the thief unlocked the door, then the box, got the money, locked both up again and left.

On the same night, Mr. J. E. Anyett heard and saw a man on his piazza, who he is satisfied was there for the purpose of robbery. Mr. A. seized his gun and probably would have shot the scamp but for the screams of his wife who was very much frightened.

So we go. We have no watch, and the authorities say there are no funds in the treasury to employ one that would likely be of any service. But something must be done, and it seems to us that the only way to keep our throats from being cut is to establish a citizens' watch, and let them, instead of spending their time in suppers and frolics, watch the town and protect the property and lives of its citizens.

DEPLORABLE ACCIDENT.—Last night, a few minutes before 9 o'clock, a most deplorable accident happened at the drug store of J. V. Jordan, Esq., nearly opposite our office. A negro girl, it seems, had been into the store for some medicine, which having obtained, she was passing out at the door, or making for it, when a rifle which Mr. Elisha Cuthbert and some other young gentleman were handling, went off accidentally, the ball hitting the girl in the back of the head somewhere and passing out at the chin, inflicting injuries of which she died almost instantly. The rifle was in the hands of young Cuthbert when it went off.

These are the facts as we learned them during the excitement of the moment, and are, we suppose, in the main correct. The girl belonged to Mrs. Nancy Lawrence, of this town, and we understood, was only 16 or 18 years of age.

This is one of those accidents which everybody regrets, but which no one can recall. No one, we suppose, can be as deeply mortified at the sad occurrence as is the young man whose hands held the gun that deprived the unfortunate creature of her life; and we trust it will serve as a lasting warning to the youth of the town to be careful in their use of fire arms.

THEFT.—Two barrels of spirits turpentine were stolen from 4 lot Mr. B. B. Lane had lying on the wharf on Saturday night last. A negro belonging to Mr. John Dibble has confessed the theft, and declared that he let some one on board the schooner Falconer have it, and that it was taken on board. The captain said that if the spirits was on his vessel he was not aware of it, and on Monday consented that the vessel might be discharged and searched. This, however, Mr. Lane declined doing. The boy, whose name is Amos, meanwhile, had run away, but as the Falconer was going down the river on Monday, a few miles below town, Amos came along side and made an attempt to jump on board, but failed to reach the deck, and, but for the assistance of the crew would have fallen overboard. They assisted him on board, however, when the captain asked him what he wanted. The negro replied that he wanted to go with them, whereupon the captain of the vessel, after overcoming some little resistance on the part of the negro, subdued him and brought him back to town. This is the captain's story, which may be correct, or it may not; we confess we have no doubts. Amos has been lodged in jail and the Falconer has sailed, but the lost turpentine has not been accounted for.

COWARDLY.—If the New York drummer who talked so largely about cowardizing somebody at the Gaston House bar room, on Sunday night, had have addressed himself to the gentleman for whom his threats were intended, instead of the crowd, it would have looked much more manly. When we alluded to the adventure of a friend with a drunken drummer at Washington, a few days ago, we were of the impression that Gotham sent out more than one drummer—think so yet. Don't see why, then, this one should be offended. Is he the only drummer that comes out of New York?—or is he the one, who, in a drunken fit, tried to break into a gentleman's room at Washington on the 29th ult? If he is, the remarks were intended for him. When he visits Newbern again, we trust he will make his threats before the one for whom intended, and if so, we promise him that his ears shall be soundly boxed.

CHEAP JOB PRINTING.—The low prices and the superior manner in which we have been doing Job Printing has produced quite a rush to the Progress Office. This is as it should be, and proves conclusively that promptness and a liberal policy, in the management of any business, is the best. We now keep two first-class hands in the job department, and though we have been doing, and continue to do, a large amount of work, not a single job has been delayed beyond the time at which it was promised, and as our business men are beginning to find out that we are prompt, and reasonable in prices, no wonder that we should have a heavy run of work.

Recollect the place—"Daily Progress" Office, Pollok Street, near the Post Office, where all kinds of Job Printing is promptly, neatly and accurately executed, and no one disappointed.

WILL IT BE REVIVED?—Is or is not the Thespian Association to be revived for the present season?—that is the question. We believe that it is the general wish of our citizens that it should be revived, and we sincerely trust that it will. Our people will find it hard to get through the long winter evenings before us without amusements of some kind, and certainly the entertainments given by the Thespians are not only unexceptionable in themselves, but are more popular with the community than anything else that could be offered. By all means let the Association be revived, and we would suggest that it be done at once.

GRATIFYING.—We are pleased to learn that D. K. McRae, Esq., intends changing his residence from Raleigh to Newbern at an early day. We trust that the gentleman may find his new residence both pleasant and profitable. Mr. McRae was in attendance on our Superior Court, week before last, and also attended Court at Jones, last week.

OUR BRASS BAND.—The Newbern Brass Band were out on Saturday evening for the first time, and, considering that they have only been in possession of their instruments about three weeks, made most excellent music. We learn that the Band serenaded Judge Ellis, John D. Whitford, Esq., the Gaston House, and probably others. At Mr. Whitford's, we learn from one of the Band, they were kindly invited in, and that, after some little persuasion, a part, possibly all of them, played on a note that was not down on the music.

The Band is composed of good material, and is under, we are told, Prof. Statham, one of the best teachers in the country. With two handsome military companies and a Brass Band Newbern can get up a display on her own hook whenever the boys have a mind to do so.

BRING IT OVER.—Our bachelor book keeper, whose lonely condition should make him an object of pity and commiseration with all husbands and fathers, remarked yesterday that he wished Banks would move the big cake over to the counting room of the Progress awhile, and thus afford him the gratification of explaining its richness and superiority to the crowds of fair creatures who were flocking to see it. Bring it over, Banks; it may be the means of giving you an order for another. Who knows what result bringing the old back, in contact with the ladies might bring about?

BIG PUMPKINS AND SWEET POTATOES.—Our townsman, Col. H. J. Clark, acknowledges the receipt of a very acceptable present from his friend Dr. M. Selby of Hyde county, consisting of pumpkins and potatoes. The potatoes, generally, weigh about 3 lbs. and measured about 15 inches in length. One of the pumpkins weighed 77 lbs. These, and we suppose many more, were raised on the Doctor's farm in Hyde county. We would have no objection to his treating us just as he has treated Col. Clark—shouldn't grumble at all.

MISTAKE.—We committed an error yesterday, in reference to the town watch. We learn from the informant that the watch that were employed have been discharged, and that now the town is without any at all.—We have heard suggestions made in favor of a citizens' watch, and also in favor of a hired watch of ten or twelve persons, two of them to be mounted on horses and oversee the rest. Let us have something.

See the advertisement of Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator in another column. Sept 1-4ly

WOMEN.—D'Israeli, speaking of the society of refined and charming women, says: "It is an acquaintance which, when habitual, exercises a great influence over the tone of the mind, even if it does not produce any more violent effects. It refines taste, quickens the perceptions, and gives, as it were, a grace and flexibility to your intellect." Some where else, the same writer remarks that, "men are as much stimulated to effort by the sympathy of the gentler sex, as by the desire of power and fame. Women are more disposed to appreciate worth and intellectual superiority than men, or at least, they are as often captivated by the noble manifestations of genius, as by the fascinations of manners and the charms of persons."

And Sidney Smith says: "Among men of sense and liberal politeness, a woman who has successfully cultivated her mind, without diminishing the gentleness and propriety of her manners, is always sure to meet with respect and attention bordering on enthusiasm."

Again, another writer observes that, "Of all other views a man may, in time, grow tired, but in the contentances of woman there is a variety which sets satiety at defiance." "The divine right of beauty," says Junius, "is the only divine right a man can acknowledge, and a pretty woman the only tyrant he is not authorized to resist."

ROBER'S CAVE.—The Franklin (Pa.) Citizen of the 27th inst., has the following: "About five miles from this place, near where the Pittsburgh road crosses Sandy Creek, a singular discovery was made by Mr. Mason. While hunting bees, he noticed, under some rocks, a buffalo robe, and other evidences of the presence of some animals less laborious and less honest than those he was in search of. Being somewhat frightened, he called others, who, after some search, discovered jewelry of different kinds, worth in all, about $100. In addition to this, a pair of boots and pantaloons, a vest, cravat and fine coat, were picked up near the jewelry depot. The circumstance induced ten of the adjacent citizens to repair to the spot and lay in wait that night for the return of the depositors, but through the imprudence of kindling a fire after night, nothing was effected.

IN DISPENSING next morning, a sack of flour, three freshly-dressed chickens and a blanket were found unaccounted, as though they had been hastily left. Several other articles, such as powder, caps, an old revolver, augers, a bottle of chloroform, etc., were picked up.

THE FUN OF A MULE RACE.—At the County Fair at New Albany, Ind., the people had a most hearty laugh over a mule race after the fashion of an Irish Donkey race, where each man rides his neighbor's beast, and the last one in wins. It is not a bad way of closing up a cattle show. It is decidedly better than "female equestrianism." At New Albany, seven entries were made, and when the drum tapped they all started, but were in a few moments strung along the track for half a mile; persons were stationed at proper intervals for the purpose of keeping the mules in the track, which they did at considerable trouble. We never saw much frenzied excitement as the crowd exhibited when the last and winning mule entered by Andy Huncilman, came strutting up the stretch, followed by at least 2,000 people, shouting in the most deafening manner. The mule came slowly under the line—was almost pushed to the mark, we might say. One of the Judges sung out to the crowd that the time of the slowest mule was made in ten minutes and seventy-two seconds.

LADIES WHY DON'T YOU MARRY?—The statistics of various hospitals show that the unmarried are more than four times as liable to become insane as those that are married. The many young ladies in our city, who effect great indifference to the subject of matrimony, will no doubt, on learning the above information, consent to take partners merely to preserve their intellects unimpaired. One of our lady friends says: "There is nothing like getting married to bring young ladies to their senses."—Norfolk Day Book
