Weep not over p et's wrong, Mouin not his mischances; Sorrow is the source of song, And of gentle fancies.

Rills o'er rocky beds are borne, Ere they gush in whiteness ; Pebbles are wave-chafed and worp

Ere they show their brightness,

Sweetest glean the morning flowers When in tears they waken ; Earth enjoys refreshing showers

When the bows are shaken. Ceylon's glistening pearls are sought

In its deepest waters ;

From the darkest mines are brought Gems for beauty's daughters.

Thro' the rent and shivered rock Limpid waters breaketh :

'Tis but when the chords are struck That their music waketh.

Flowers, by heedless footsteps press'd, All their sweets surrender ;

Gold must brook the fiery test Ere it shows its splendor.

When the twilight cold and damp, Gloom and silence bringeth ;

Then the glowworm lights its lamp, And the night bird singeth.

Stars come forth when night her shroud Draws as daylight faintefh; THE PLACE STOLE

DEDICATION OF THE NEW BAPTIST CHURCH .-The dedicatory sermon of the new Baptist Church will be preached, says the Register, on Thursday evening next, by the Rev. Dr. Burrows, of Richmond, Va. Mr. B. is one of the most eloquent thorough renovation, from cellar to garret, and hav- divines of which the Baptist Church of Virginia can boast, and those who attend may rely on hearing a discourse worthy of the occasion. The Church is not entirely completed yet, but the interior is finished and presents a handsome appearance, reflecting great credit both upon the archi-tect, Mr. Wm, Percival, and upon the contractor, Mr. T. Coates.

The Baptist State Convention will commence its session in this city on this day, Wednesday, in the new Baptist Church. An unusually large number of delegates are expected to be in attendance.

MECKLENBURG AGRICULTURAL FAIR.-The 4th annual Fair of the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society, says the Western Democrat, was held on Thursday and Friday last. There was a very large number of persons in attendance from this and adjoining counties, as well as from South Carolina. We were gratified to notice articles on exhibition from Lincoln, Gaston, Rowan, Cabarrus, Union, Davidson, Guilford and Caldwell counties, N. C., and from York, Chester and Lancaster Districts, S. C.

The Fair was a complete success-there being a larger number and a better variety of articles exhibited than on any former occasion. It is the opinion of several 'experienced gentlemen, who have visited a number of Fairs, that the exhibit of cattle and horses was equal to any ever made in

The articles on exhibition in Floral Hall and in other departments were numerous and all above ordinary. We were highly gratified to see the ladies manifesting so much interest in the exhibition.

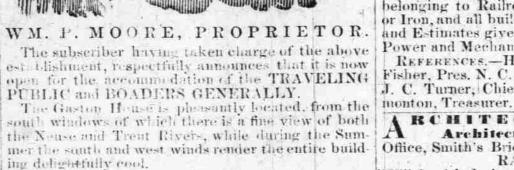

The Executive Committee and Mr. P. J. Lowrie I reasurer of the Society, and others, deserve thanks for untiring efforts to make the occasion

JUDGE ELLIS IN CHARLOTTE .- We find the following in the last Charlotte Democrat:

JUDGE ELLIS-Complimentary Party .- Hon. John W. Ellis, Governor elect of North Carolina, and his accomplished lady, were complimented with a party given by citizens of Charlotte at the Mansion House, on last Wednesday evening. It was quite a brilliant affair, and every way creditable to the managers, and to Mr. Elms of the Mansion. House, who spared no pains to render the occasion agreeable to all. The tables were boantifully supplied with all the delicacies heart could wish, and the whole arrangements display-

On Thursday the Judge visited the Fair Grounds where many of his old friends and acquaintances liad the pleasure of shaking his hand and welcoming him in their midst. He has many warm friends in Charlotte and Mecklenburg county.

NEW VOLUNTEER COMPANY .- The last Wilson Ledger says: We are gratified to learn that there is a prospect of forming a Volnnteer Company in this place. Such a move is worthy of commendation. Let Wilson be behind none of her sister DRINTERS' and ENGRAVERS' CARDS towns in military pride-she has young men Dealers in every variety of Agricultural Implements, Office.
