DAILY PROGRESS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 17, 1858

Written for the "Daily Progress," HOME.

BY BEATRICE. Give me a home where round the hearthstone, Gathers those we love so dear;

There let contentment be enthroned, Gem of joy and beauty rare. A home where love doth dwell supreme, And gentle words are spoken:

Which cheer our hearts and make life seem A life of peace unbroken. I care not where may be that home, Or whate'er its surroundings are; We think of it where e'er we roam,

For we know they're happy there, Then tell me not the world can give, The happiness we seek for: Or that in worldly pleasure live

All that our hearts could wish for, I would not for its pleasures part With a home where love is given, That love will cheer a lonely heart, When by false friends forsaken, Newbern, Nov. 16, 1858.

North Carolina. ATTEMPT TO RESCUE .- On Monday night last. says the Leisure, Hour of last week, an abortive attempt was made to liberate from our Jail, Obediah Christmas, who is to be tried next week at a slave. A bar of iron in one of the upper winbably owing to some alarm the persons engaged house is admirably located, especially for seemen, being on Courtland Street, only a few and a bag. T. H. C., was marked on the bag. had succeeded on the window, the difficulties to superable. To effect an entrance would require far greater skill and determination than was evinced in the attempt of Monday night. An effort was made upon the front' door, but without any success.

THE REVIVAL.—There have been fifty-four professions of religion during the religious awakening now going on in this place, says the Leisure Hour. Rev. Mr. Burton, after having preached some twenty four sermons was compelled to leave for other fields of duty. The conversions were made under his ministry. Rev. Mr. Moore, of the Methodist church, is assisting our resident ministers in advancing the good work. SUSPENSION OF NORTH CAROLINA TRADE.-For the last sixty days there has been almost a total suspension of North Carolina trade, consequent upon the inadequate supply of water in the feeder of the Dismal Swamp Canal. We understand that there is but three feet of water in the Canal, instead of the depth required by nine tenths of the vessels using that navigation.

Norfolk, Va., Day Book.

Miscellaucous. SUICIDE IN COURT.-A suit which had been in progress for some time at Columbus. (Ia.) and in which Wm. Mewherter, an old and well known citizen of the county, was defendant, terminated by the jury rendering a verdict that the defendant -who had been an agent for Shrewsbury & Price. millers-had in hand unaccounted for over $10,-000. At the time of the announcement of the verdict the court-room was densely crowded. Mewherter took a position to the right of the Judge's desk, in front and between the jury-box and the Judge, and as soon as the verdict was read drew Brackets, &c., done at short notice. Contracts taken a pistol and shot himself through the heart. As for fitting up and for erection of Buildings of all might be expected, there was much excitement, and the Court immediately adjourned. NEW YORK FOR SALE. - Amongst the singular events of the day, is the advertisement of the sheriff of New York, occupying three columns and a half, in which he offers to sell the greater part Lurches, Public Buildings; also for constructions of the real property of the city to the highest bidbelonging to Railroads, as Bridges of Stone, Wood | der, as (says the Post) the Prætorian legions sold or Iron, and all buildings required at Stations. Plans the Roman empire. The object of the sale is not stated, but it must be to satisfy the Lowberjudgment obtained more than a year ago on a sale of certain landed property to the city. New York city is, without any doubt, the most unfortunate community in the world in some respects. It is never free from the fangs of legal sharpers.

SENTENCE OF A POISONER.-Chamiski, who fatally poisoned four persons, in Barbour county, Georgia, was last week sentenced to imprisonment for life. The alleged poisoning occurred in Pike, in September, 1857, and resulted in the death of four persons. Mr. Thomas Frizzell, an old gentleman of about 80, his grand daughter, Miss Betsey Jane Frizzell, a young lady of about 15 or 16 and the wife and child of Mr. Dubose, the overseer. A number of others were made sick, but all recovered. The evidence against the prisoner was almost entirely circumstantial.

REWARD OFFERED .- A reward is offered for the discovery of Mr. James B. Billings, who is missing from his residence in New York. Mr. Billings was formerly room clerk at the Irving House, and when the Girard Hotel, in Philadelphia, was built, was employed in the same capacity there, but finally become a proprietor. He made a handsome fortune, and retired some two years since. He has been suffering with soften-DRINTERS' and ENGRAVERS' CARDS ing of the brain brought on by over exertion in his business. The malady had increased lately.

SPAIN.-Spain is in a fair way of having her hands full. She is preparing an expedition against the Moorish pirates of the Riff-a formidable expensive affair. Of the latter, the ships for the transport of troops, have already sailed except one, which is detained at Cadiz by stress of weather. How far the Spanish treasury can stand such drains as these remains to be seen.

JEWELS OF THE PRIZE RING .- Morrison's spar-Refers to Editor "Daily Progress," Newbern, N. C. ring exhibition and grand complimentary benefit came off in New York on Friday evening, in Hoym's theatre, Bowery. Two thousand five hundred tickets were taken at the doors. In addition to the presentation of the $5,000 stakes, he
