UNNURPASSED!!!

For Sore Threat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a week constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book Keepers, Tailors, Sean stresses, Students, Arrists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhiliarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for prisons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free die'ed to excesive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poisons contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impantly.

Physicians, Clergymen, and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly rainable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

Your "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm," has done wonders. I was wholly despendent and wretched when I applied it, and in five hours the chills were removed and no fever has ensued. It is the sumplest cure imaginable, and a wonder of nature or art. I would not be without this "injectine" a single hour. By constantly wearing it I seem to be "ague proof." Yours very truly.

Yours very truly E. M. STOUT. Monite, Ata., July 23, 1860.

GENTLEMEN: I have been snatched from the grave by the application of your wonderful "Inpectine," or "Persias Fever Charm." For several years I have suffered every season with fever and sgue. Last Spring my life was threatened, but your remedy has destroyed the disease, and I am rapidly gaining an appetite and strength. Respectfully, yours.

D. N. BARRON.
