War Departr ent, Adjutant General's Office, Washington August 15, 1862.

1. Officers of the regular army will, as a general rule, receive leaves of absence to accept the rank of Colone in volunteer regiments, but not lower grades. Non-commissioned officers and privates will be discharged on receiving commissions in volunteer regiments.

volunteer regiments,
II. The oath of allegiance will not be administered The earth of allegiance whire the administered to any prison against his own will; it must in all cases be a voluntary act on his part. Nor will any compulsory proise of honor be received. But oaths taken, and paroles given, to avoid arrest, detention, imprisonment, or expulsion, we voluntary or free acts, and cannot be regarded as compulsory. All persons guilty of violating such oaths or paroles will be punished according to the laws and nearest war.

III. The laws of the United States and the general laws of war, authorize, in certain cases, the seizure and conversion of private property for the subsistence transportation, and other uses of the army; but this must be distinguished from pillage; and the taking of property for public purposes is very different from its conversion to private tass. All preparty lawfully taken from the enemy, or from the inhabitants of an enemy's country, instantly becomes public property, and must be used and accented for as such. The 52d Article of Narauthorizes the penalty of death for pillage or plundering, and other articles authorize severe punishments for any officer or soldier who shall sell, embezzle, misapply, or waste military stores, or who shall permit the waste or misapplication of any such public property. The penalty is the same whether the offence be committed in our own or in an enemy's territory.

the offence be-committed in our own or in an enemy's territory.

IV. All preperly, public or private, taken from alleged enamies, must be inventoried and duly accounted for. If the property taken be claimed as private, receipts must be given to such claimants or their agents. Officers will be held strictly secoustable for all property taken by the more by their authority, and it must be returned for, the same as any other public property.

V. Where fora ing parties are sent out for provisions or other stores, the commanding officer of such party will be held accountable for the conduct of his command, and will make a true report of all property taken.
