Number 42.

LOCAL.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

We desire to state for the information of all concerned, that we hold ourselves responsible for any and all articles that have appeared or may appear in this paper. SETH M. CARPENTER.

Democratic Executive Committee for Township No. 8.

S. M. Carpenter, T. A. Green, G. W. Claypoole, E. H. Meadows, B. B. Lane, Chas. Lovinier, H. C. Russell, J. R. Bailey, Wm. S. Phillips, Rufus Smith, John Lane, James H. Pool, Jacob B. Taylor, A. L. Bynum.

Democratic Executive Committee for Craven County.

J. E. Morris, Wm. G. Brinson, Thos. Stanly, C. H. Latham, H. C. Whitehurst, M. E. Manly, S. Radcliff, T. S. Howard, W. H. Jones, Alex. Justice, D. T. Carraway, H. B. Lane, Jas. A. Bryan, J. J. Wolfenden, John Ritch, H. T. Guion, Jno. H. Nelson, Jas. Hunter, Brice Ipoock, T. H. Mallison, W. B. Lane, Cicero Green, G. W. Charlton, Wm. Cleve, R. A. Russell, S. W. Latham, J. A. Ernul.

CORN.—Our market is very well supplied with all country products excepting corn. The supply of this necessary staple, has been for the past week very limited, there being no arrivals of corn vessels for several days.

CURIOSITY SHOP.—Auctioneer Ash, who has just completed his curiosity shop adjoining the Gaston House, has filled the premises with various articles in the dry goods and household line, which can be purchased either at auction or private sale. Mr. Ash offers for sale many useful articles at very low figures.

A GOOD MOVE.—We have been credibly informed that there is at this time in our city, a Detective, whose business it is to look out for all parties keeping gambling houses, or are in any way engaged in this most pernicious practice. We hope our citizens, salesmen, clerks, and all employees will avoid such places, as they lead the unwary into dissipation and frequently into trouble and disgrace.

MECHANISM.—We are pleased to note that the new machine works of Messrs. Edwards & Cuthbert, adjacent to Wade & Howard's Ship-Yard on South Front Street, are now complete and in successful operation. These experienced machinists are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line of business, and will promptly execute all orders.

BURGLAR PROOF.—We noticed on yesterday, at the 1st National Bank in this city, one of Miller's patent fire and burglar proof safes, which that cautious and solid institution has just purchased from the manufacturer at Baltimore. These are said to be the most perfect and secure safes manufactured in the world.

HERRING.—We noticed in our market yesterday, large quantities of very fine cured roe herring. They are larger and we think, finer in every way to the imported herring from Nova Scotia, and it would be well for our fishermen to put them up in small portable packages for family use—packing them in the same way as are Scotch or Nova Scotia herring, and can be sold in other markets than our own at remunerative prices. These herring that we noticed yesterday weighed from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  pound each.

NEW POTATOES.—It gives us pleasure to note the enterprise and go-aheadiveness of our merchants. Mr. B. B. Lane, of this city, is shipping large quantities of new Irish potatoes to the Northern markets, for which, we presume he realizes paying prices. We understand he has large orders ahead, and from the prospects at this time, will be able to meet promptly all demands upon him. Success we say to friend Lane.

TO RE-CUT FILES, &c.—Dissolve four ounces of saleratus to one quart of water, sufficient to cover the files, and boil them in it for half an hour; then take out, wash and dry them; now stand them in a jar, filling it up with rain water and sulphuric acid, in the proportion of four ounces of acid to one quart of water. If the files are coarse, they will need to remain in about twelve hours; but for fine files, six or eight hours will be sufficient. When you take them out, wash them clean, dry quickly, and put a little sweet oil on them, to prevent rusting.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—Our vegetable market, at the present time, appears to be abundantly supplied with the various early vegetables of the season, and the abundant supply enables our citizens to provide themselves with what they desire in this line at very reasonable rates. The recent welcome showers will add much to growing vegetation, and in a few days there will be no cause for complaint from citizens as to quantity, quality and prices.

NOT DEAD.—Mr. John Prime, of this city, desires to inform "all the world and the rest of mankind" that he is not dead, but still in the land of the living, and is now able to repair and stock guns in the best manner possible, and that he is also prepared to attend with promptness to the auxiliary branches of the gun trade. Mr. Prime repairs, adjusts and warrants Fairbanks' Scales. His shop is located on Pollock Street in the rear of Mrs. Prime's Millinery Establishment.

MR. EDITOR.—I am glad to see that X. Y. Z. has called the attention of the Common Council to this cow nuisance. There is a City Ordinance prohibiting the straying of cattle through our streets; why is it not enforced? Let us look at this matter squarely. There are about two hundred cows straying through our thoroughfares—some of them half wild—breaking down gates and fences, destroying gardens and flower-yards, injuring the side-walks and endangering the lives of women and children, and prowling about to the very great annoyance and discomfort of everybody. I think it is nothing but right and fair that the very small minority who own these cows should be taxed a mere nominal sum of ten or twelve dollars per head, for the privilege of letting their cattle stray through the streets, to the serious inconvenience of the entire population. If this law were passed, the amount of tax collected would assist very much in keeping our streets in order. W.

Hotel Arrivals.

XXX and the Ku Klux Organ.

MR. EDITOR.—XXX talks like somebody had hit him between wind and water in his article of June 4th, and it looks mightily that way to a man up a tree. He says "Democrat" and myself are the same man. He must have felt my lies as much as he did "Democrat's," but he crawls out of the thing like a crab, by abusing me and don't answer anything. He accounts for the difference in our condition by saying that he has given his time and his talent, and his influence, and spent his money to elevate my race. Well, if that aint enough to make a possum laugh! For any man to write such a thing as he did about the colored people, and talk about every colored woman in the whole country as he did—for he had just as well called the name right out as to say what he did say—and then talk about spending his money and time to elevate our race, is too thin. No, sir, he never was in the same boat with me, and we are going to see that neither he nor any of his stripe ever do get into the same boat that any of us get into. He says I tell a "falsehood" when I say he is an enemy to my race. All I've got to say about that is, just let any respectable colored person read your rough shot answer to "Democrat," and if he will call you his friend, then I've got nothing more to say; if he ever had a mother and don't damn you as long as he lives, then I am mightily mistaken. If you are a friend, then God grant that when you die we may never have another one, and we want you to die quick, too. You say you spent your money and time and talent and influence to elevate my race. Now let me see how much of a truth teller you are! How much did you ever give to a black man—unless it was about election times, when you wanted his vote for yourself or some other carpet-bagger? I'll bet everything I've got that you never gave one of them more than ten or fifteen cents at a time in your life. Now, about your talents: Nobody ever knew you had any until you answered "Democrat," and then it only seemed to be a talent for miscegenation. If you call that helping the colored people, then I suppose you did use your talents for them. Now about your influence. You have helped the colored people with that, just far enough to keep yourself in office ever since you have been here. And now about your time. Ten cents an hour, while you are at work, is all and more than its worth, and if ever you gave five minutes of it to elevating our race, we have never found it out. I have watched you for a long time, and you have the greatest way of slipping out of one office into another, and helping the colored man all the time—to stay in the wet—of any fellow that I ever saw. Some of your stripe think they have done a great thing by putting a colored man in the post-office, but they haven't fooled anybody, we made them do it, they know it. Don't you fret about my "stultifying" myself, or about my going to the Democrats. You made a tool of me through my ignorance, when I thought you my friend, but I know you too well to be caught again. And when you abuse my race and publish in the papers that our women are all the commonest wretches on earth, I shall stultify myself again. But for the present I am done with you. I want to say just one or two words to the Ku Klux organ. It says, "Any one who charges the Times with being a Ku Klux organ, is a liar. We mean just what we say, and any one who cares to take it up, knows where to find us." If you do mean what you say, it is the first time since I have been reading your columns, and I have been doing that for several years. You advocate Mr. Purnell as our candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and tell the colored people they ought to vote for him. Now I tell them that they ought not. Mr. Pool says he is a Ku Klux, and that he is going to prove it on him when he speaks here, and prove, also, that if Mr. Purnell told you, as you said he did, that he never was a Ku Klux, that he told a wilful untruth. Now, if Mr. Pool proves this, I tell you so far as the colored people are concerned, Mr. Purnell is gone up; and if you advocate Mr. Purnell, you are advocating for a Ku Klux, and therefore you are a Ku Klux organ. Do you understand that? If you don't, we do, and will show you when August comes. So dry up about being a Ku Klux organ, and calling people "liars." You know I am not going to trouble you, and you are mighty big; when I trouble you it will be in a way to hurt. Look out that you ain't "out in the wet" before you know it. You may call me a "liar" now, but just wait until the August election comes off and I will show you who is the liar, you or me, and who is the Ku Klux, too. A COLORED VOTER.

Story of Tom Marshall.

Tom Marshall at one time indulged in such excesses that his friends became alarmed, and determined to make an effort to reclaim him. Mr. Mangum was designated to remonstrate with the wild Kentuckian and endeavor to impress him with a proper sense of the peril of his position.

"I'll hear anything you have to say, Mangum," said Marshall, as the Senator opened the conversation.

"Your friends are greatly concerned at the manner in which you have been conducting yourself."

"Don't wonder at it. Been badly bothered myself. Sent you here to talk with me, didn't they?"

"Yes; they thought as I sometimes take a glass myself, my advice would have the more effect."

"You drink too much, Mangum. I've been thinking of speaking to you on the subject. But what do you want me to do?"

"Your friends have great admiration for your genius and talents. They are confident that with sobriety and application you might reasonably aspire to the highest place under the Government."

"What do you think I could get?"

"I have no doubt you might be made Chief Justice of the United States."

"There's been one Chief Justice in my family; I don't care to follow him."

"You might even hope to become President."

"No great credit to follow Captain Tyler. But I tell you what I'll do, Mangum; you make me President of the United States, and if I don't make you Secretary of State I'll agree to be blanked! Let's take a drink."

A telegram from the northwest to the authorities at Ottawa conveys the startling intelligence with regard to the threatened uprising of the Creek and other Indian tribes, their grievances being that no commission has been sent to settle the question of Indian reserves and to make other arrangements in order to add to the comfort of the Indians. They also fear that the mounted police about to be sent to the northwest have been organized for the purpose of forcing them into submission to the will of the white population.

Arizona Territory, which is popularly believed to be wealthier in minerals than California or Nevada, is fast recovering from the prostration caused by Indian raids. Many of the mines which have lain untouched for years on account of the Apaches are again being worked, and the results are said to be wonderful.

Dubuque, Iowa, has a miracle. A girl named Mary Waldron, formerly a domestic in the service of Bishop Hennessey, but now an inmate of the county asylum, had long been afflicted with a cancer in the mouth. She drank water from the spring of Lourdes in France, and it is said that she has since been recovering rapidly.

The House Committee on Appropriations have agreed to appropriate $31,000 to Major Powell's party and $100,000 to Prof. Haylen's to continue the explorations in the Western countries.

DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION.—There will be a Convention of the Democratic-Conservative party of Craven county held at the Court House in New Berne on Saturday, June 13th, at 10 o'clock A. M. The respective townships are requested to appoint delegates to attend the same, as a full representation is desired.

By order of the Executive Committee.

JAMES E. MORRIS, Chairman.

NEW BERNE, May 16, 1874.

ICE CREAM.—Sarah Oxley desires to inform the readers of the NEWBERNIAN that she is now prepared to furnish, in quantities to suit her customers, the best Ice Cream manufactured in this, the old North State, and that all orders will be promptly and satisfactorily filled. Residence, next door to Mr. F. Boesser's Furniture establishment, cor. Broad and Middle Sts.
