DAILY NEWBERNIAN.

Volume 1.

NEW BERNE, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1874.

Number 46.

LOCAL.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

We desire to state for the information of all concerned, that we hold ourselves responsible for any and all articles that have appeared or may appear in this paper. SETH M. CARPENTER.

Democratic Executive Committee for Township No. 8.

S. M. Carpenter, T. A. Green, G. W. Claypoole, E. H. Meadows, B. B. Lane, Chas. Lovinier, H. C. Russell, J. R. Bailey, Wm. S. Phillips, Rufus Smith, John Lane, James H. Pool, Jacob B. Taylor, A. L. Bynum.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—A meeting of the New Berne Chamber of Commerce, was held last night, for the purpose of taking action concerning the cotton factory project. A full report of the meeting will appear in to-morrow's issue.

ARRIVED.—The steamer L. G. Cannon, Capt. A. C. Minter, arrived at this port on yesterday from Norfolk, with a full cargo to S. H. Gray, Agent for the Pioneer Transportation Company.

Schooner Jenny Lind, Calhoon master, with potatoes, from Bay River.

NEW STORE.—Our worthy friend and fellow townsman Mr. James Redmond has opened a grocery and provision store opposite the Peoples Market, on Middle Street, where we notice a fine and general assortment of family supplies which are not only warranted a No. 1 in quality, but are offered at the very lowest market rates.

CYPRESS SHINGLES.—We noticed on yesterday the arrival of a large flat laden with cypress shingles, from Swift Creek, for Mr. Wm. Cleave. These shingles, as we learn, were gotten out expressly for the Northern market and are the finest lot received at this port for many a day.

MOCKING BIRDS.—We noticed several very fine young Mocking birds for sale at the carpenter and joiner shop of Benjamin McFrater, on South Front Street, near Cheap John's auction store. McFrater is doing a good business in the bird line, and seems to know just how to raise them successfully.

IRISH POTATOES.—We noticed on yesterday our enterprising townsman, Mr. C. T. Watson and his assistants, were busily engaged in barrelling a splendid lot of new potatoes, the "early rose," for shipment to the Baltimore and New York markets. Mr. Watson is daily shipping large quantities of this, and other vegetables.

LIBERALITY.—We are informed that Dick King says he will leave the sum of $25,000 in his will to any one who will whip Carpenter. A friend at our elbow suggests that perhaps it might be better for the person making the attempt, to get the cash in hand, or else he would in all probability lose it, as King Dick sometimes forgets to fulfil his promises; as, for instance, he stated before he got possession of the A. & N. C. Railroad that he would turn out every man in the employ of that corporation who was born on Northern soil; but it seems he has forgotten to do it, or thought better of it.

EIGHTH TOWNSHIP MEETING.—The Conservatives of the Eighth Township are hereby notified to meet at the Court House on Thursday evening, 11th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Convention, and transacting such other business as may properly come before them. Every Conservative in the Township is expected to be present.

By order of the Committee.
SETH M. CARPENTER, Chairman.
T. A. GREEN, Secretary.

ENJOYABLE.—The ladies of the Methodist Sewing Society of this city, gave a most pleasant and enjoyable entertainment last evening at the American House. Quite a number of the young ladies and gentlemen attended and participated in the festivities of the evening. Refreshments in the way of ice-cream, cake, etc., were provided, and the cooling effects after the heated temperature of yesterday, was very refreshing indeed. The entire party seemed to enjoy themselves very much, and we doubt not, but that the ladies realized quite a handsome sum for their noble object.

DRIED FRUIT, Fine Teas, all grades of Sugar, Sugar Cured Hams and Shoulders, and New Butter at C. E. SLOVER'S.

NOXIOUS WEEDS.—For the information of our citizens we publish the city "Ordinance in relation to the removal of weeds":

It is ordained, That the owners or occupants of all lots within the city limits be required to remove all the Jamestown and other noxious weeds from said lots before the 20th day of July of each year, and if they fail so to do, the City Marshal is hereby authorized to have all such weeds removed at the expense of the owners or occupants of the lots aforesaid.

PURNELL AND THE KU-KLUX.—The Winston Sentinel has the following to say in regard to Mr. Purnell's denying that he was a Ku-Klux: "When Mr. Pool charged T. R. Purnell, the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, with being a Ku-Klux when they met at this place, Mr. Purnell did not deny it, but we see now from the New Berne Times that down in the Eastern part of the State he does deny it. We think proofs can be laid before the editor of the Times, and the public in a short time that will show conclusively that Mr. Purnell was a member of the "White Brotherhood."

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for July.—The July number of this popular illustrated magazine is really superb. It contains some thirty nice stories, and poetry which the higher price magazines would be glad to print. The illustrations are timely, and those of the Fourth of July are amusing, and will be particularly relished by the younger portion of the community, while the sedate will be reminded of their youth, and love of fun and gunpowder. Ballou's Magazine is the best cheap serial in the country, and this the people have discovered a long time ago. It is only $1.50 per year, and to each subscriber is given a nice chromo.

Price fifty cents single number. For sale at every philosophical depot in the country. Thomas & Talbot, Publishers, 36 Bromfield Street, Boston.

"WHAT THE CANDIDATE POOL SAID.—Colonel Pool said at Morehead City the other day in reply to a question as to whether he would or did ever allow his children to associate with low white children? "Oh, I recognize no low white children except the children of the carpet-baggers and Yankees." How do you like the Northern men who affiliate with Pool's party?

We copy the above from the Times of yesterday, in order to brand it, upon the authority of two gentlemen who were present and heard what Col. Pool did say, as a base and malicious fabrication, manufactured in New Berne. The Radicals put a fellow named Smith, that most detestable of all beings, a buffalo during the war, to question Col. P., who did ask him the question as reported, to which Col. P. replied that he knew no low whites in North Carolina, except those, who favored the infamous Civil Rights Bill, and members of the Radical party, and not all of the latter. Will the editor of the Times have the manliness to require the person who knowingly told the falsehood in his paper to make the proper correction; or does he prefer to permit others place him before the community in the light of a libeler? We suggest this to him because we know he was not present when the speech alluded to was made.

Hotel Arrivals.

BATEMAN HOUSE, Jerome Bateman, proprietor. —June 10.—E. R. Page, A. & N. C. R. R.; William Cleave, Swift Creek, N. C.; J. McCollum, Raleigh, N. C.; C. E. Fulcher, Portsmouth, Va.; Edgar S. Dudley, U. S. A.; B. Kahn, New York; John Biddle, Craven county; Samuel Radcliff, A. G. Hubbard, city.

How Strange.

If a tallow candle be placed in a gun, and shot at a door, it will go through without sustaining any injury, and if a musket ball be fired into water, it will not only rebound, but be flattened as if fired against a substance. A musket ball may be fired through a pane of glass making a hole the size of the ball, without cracking the glass; if the glass be suspended by a thread, it will make no difference and the thread will not even vibrate. In the Arctic regions, when the thermometer is below zero, people can converse more than a mile distant. Dr. Jamieson asserts that he heard every word of a sermon at the distance of two miles. A mother has been distinctly heard talking to her child, on a still day, across a water a mile wide.

A School-boy's Aspiration.—"I wish I were a fountain, that I might always be playing."

The Priest of Radicalism.

NO II.

"Among the accused, who seek a hiding place In vain, from fierceness of Jehovah's rage, And from the hot displeasure of the Lamb, Most wretched, most contemptible, most vile,— Stands the priest of Radicalism, and in his conscience feels

The fellest grave of the undying worm. And so he may for he has on his hands The blood of souls, that will not wipe away. Hear what he is. He swears in sight of God And man, to preach his master, yet preaches himself:

He swears that love of souls, Alone, has drawn him to the church; But envy has enough, as heretofore, To fill his heart with gall and bitterness. What makes the man of envy what he is, Is worth in others, vileness in himself. A lust of praise, with undeserving deeds, And conscious poverty of soul: and still It is his earnest work and daily toil, With lying tongue, to make the noble seem Mean as himself. On fame's high hill he sees The laurel spread its everlasting green, And wishes, to climb; but feels his knees too weak,

And stands, below unhappy, laying hands Upon the strong, ascending gloriously The steps of honor, bent to draw them back, Involving oft the brightness of their path, In mists his breath hath raised, when'er he hears,

As oft he does, of joy and happiness, And great prosperity, and rising worth, 'Tis like a wave of wormwood o'er his soul Rolling in bitterness. His joy is wo, The wo of others, when from wealth to want, From praise to reproach, from peace to strife, From mirth to tears, he sees a brother fall, Or virtue make a slip,—his dreams are sweet.

But chief with slander, daughter of his own, He takes unhallowed pleasure. When she talks, And with her filthy lips defile the best,

His car draws near, with wide attention gapes His mouth; his eye, well pleased, as eager gazes As glutton, when the dish he most desires Is placed before him; and a horrid mirth, At intervals, with laughter shakes his sides. The critic, too, who, for a bit of bread, In book that feel aside before the ink Was dry, sows forth excessive nonsense, gives Him much delight. The critics,—some, but few,—

Are worthy men, and learn renown which has Immortal roots; but most are weak and vile. And as a cloudy swarm of summer flies, With angry hum and slender lance, beset The sides of some huge animal; so do They buzz about the illustrious priest, and faint,

With his immortal honor, down the stream Of fame would descend."

ICE CREAM.—Sarah Oxley desires to inform the readers of the NEWBERNIAN that she is now prepared to furnish, in quantities to suit her customers, the best Ice Cream manufactured in this, the old North State, and that all orders will be promptly and satisfactorily filled. Residence, next door to Mr. F. Boesser's Furniture establishment, cor. Broad and Middle Sts.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SUPERIOR COURT, Carteret County. } June Term A. D. 1874.
SUSAN A. PEARCE, }
vs. } Petition for Divorce.
JOSEPH PEARCE. }

In this action, it appearing to the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff, that a cause of action exists against the defendant, and that the said defendant is not a resident of this State, it is ordered that publication be made once a week, for six weeks successively, in the NEWBERNIAN, a newspaper published in the city of New Berne, notifying the said defendant that he is summoned to appear before the Judge of the Superior Court of Carteret County, at the Court to be held for said county, at the Court House in Beaufort, on the second Monday of August next, and answer the complaint in this action; and that if he fail to answer said complaint within the time prescribed by law, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Witness, James Rumley, Clerk of said Court, at Beaufort, the sixth day of June, 1874.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

WASHINGTON, June, 9.—
CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.—The votes on the Louisiana election case were as follows: First. That Pinchback is entitled to the seat prima facie. Lost without division. Second. That Sheridan was elected. Lost by 71 to 175. Third. That Pichback was not elected. Lost by 94 to 121. Fourth that the testimony does not show that either was elected and that they may take further testimony. Carried without division.

WILKESBARRE, June, 9.—Last night an explosion occurred in the shaft at Nanticoke, burning three miners and setting fire to the breaker, which was soon destroyed. While fighting the flames some burning timbers fell upon William Vivian, killing him instantly.—Alexander Ale, Charles Keller, Hawley, Walsh, Tom Lowell, Tom McMare, Henry Reimes, Snyder and Lorenzo Krebs, of the gang who were engaged in fighting the fire, were overcome by the gas and had to be carried from the mine. The first two were insensible when brought to fresh air and have since died, but the others are doing well.

PORTSMOUTH, June, 9.—The cable steamer Farraday is in port. She is 4,600 tons burden, the largest ever in these waters. Festivities rule the day aboard and ashore. The cable is buoyed within ten miles of the shore. The deep sea cable is very strong but light, three ons to the mile. The shore endings are two and a half inches in diameter, and weighing 18 tons to the mile.

Archbishop Handroit, of Rheims, France, is dead.

A dispatch from Havana says the small-pox is raging at Jamaica, and the vessels there are detained.

The spire of the Belfast (Mich.) Presbyterian church was demolished and the Congressional church badly shattered and other buildings damaged by the storm on Monday last.

CHARLESTON, June 9.—Judge Graham has filed his decision upon the question whether Governor Moses is subject to indictment and trial by ordinary criminal process. Previous to the impeachment by the Legislature, he holds that the action of Moses, as charged in the indictment, was in truth official action, if it was misconduct or a crime committed by him as Governor; it is therefore ordered that the indictment for larceny as to Franklin J. Moses, Jr., be quashed and the case as to him be stricken from the docket.

LONDON, June, 9.—A correspondent of the Times, in a letter to that journal from Vitoria, Spain, says Marshal Coucha is moving against the Carlists in Navarre, with every available means. Gen. Dorregay, commander of the Carlists, is already in a good position, and an important action is expected to take place soon.

The Times' correspondent at Paris telegraphs that it is expected that Dufaure, in a few days, will ask the Committee on Constitutional Laws to come to a vote on the first article of the bill introduced in May, 1873, providing that the Government shall consist of a Senate and Chamber of Representatives and a President of the Republic. If the committee rejects the article, the Left Centre will move in the Assembly to refer a similar proposition to the new commission. Should this fail, the Left Centre, as a last resort, will move a dissolution of the Assembly. In the event of any adverse votes, Deputies belonging to all sections of the Left Centre may possibly resign en masse.

DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION.—There will be a Convention of the Democratic-Conservative party of Craven county held at the Court House in New Berne on Saturday, June 13th, at 10 o'clock A. M. The respective townships are requested to appoint delegates to attend the same, as a full representation is desired.

By order of the Executive Committee.
JAMES E. MORRIS, Chairman.
NEW BERNE, May 16, 1874.

NOT DEAD.—Mr. John Prime, of this city, desires to inform "all the world and the rest of mankind" that he is not dead, but still in the land of the living, and is now able to repair and stock guns in the best manner possible, and that he is also prepared to attend with promptness to the auxiliary branches of the gun trade. Mr. Prime repairs, adjusts and warrants Fairbanks Scales. His shop is located on Craven Street, in the rear of Mrs. Prime's Millinery Establishment.

Handwritten numbers and scribbles at the bottom of the page, including "1962" and "1162".
