White men of North Carolina, the Radical Party of Craven County have appointed Negro Trustees over the Academy of New Berne, a school of White Children. STATE PAPERS NOTICE.—We call the attention of the Conservative editors in this State to the fact that the white men of this county desire that they should publish in their respective journals the proceedings of our County Convention. Most of the papers were called, but the list being so large it was determined to incorporate them under one general head. The eleven hundred and forty-six white men of this county, who cast their votes in every election against such fearful odds, expect this favor at the hands of their brethren in more favored localities, so that the people throughout the State may know the spirit which animates them.

THE CONVENTION YESTERDAY.—Although the Conservative Convention yesterday was not as largely attended as we had hoped, yet those who were present evinced an enthusiasm which we have rarely seen equalled and never surpassed, and a determination to use every effort to succeed in August next. The gentlemen who addressed the Convention did so in a manner calculated to arouse the people to the true issue in this contest, viz: the formation of a white man's party in this State in opposition to the negro party. "Questions of finance and taxes, momentous as they are," said they, "are of but little importance compared with this great one of social equality sought to be forced upon us by the negro party." It is impossible for us to do justice to their remarks, and we shall not attempt it. The speeches of the two young gentlemen nominated for the House of Representatives, in accepting the honor, showed that the committee had acted wisely in their selection, and convinced all who heard them that the honor of the Conservative cause in Craven County is placed in no unworthy hands. That they will work for its success, there is no doubt. Altogether, we are well satisfied with yesterday's work, and predict that good results will follow.

VOLUMINOUS.—Dick King, the accidental President of the Atlantic & N. C. R. R., was heard on Thursday last, to remark in substance as follows: That he did not know how it was that he should have been fool enough to offer $25,000 to have Carpenter whipped, when in Lenoir County he had often had better men whipped for 30 cents apiece and the county stood half the expense.

While we have no doubt that Dick King has caused many a better man than himself to be whipped, we certainly have a doubt as to his honesty and courage. We think Dick King not only a very large sized man, but a very large sized coward, and from certain reports (which we intend to investigate,) that have recently come to our ears, we believe him to be not only large in volume, large in cowardliness, but large in dishonesty. If Dick King has the confidence of any mortal acquaintance who will undertake to whip us upon the strength of his $25,000 offer, we hope that confiding mortal will make his appearance at an early hour; and while we do not now possess the wherewith to leave so large a sum in our will, we would be willing in case we should have it at our demise, to bequeath unto him also an equal sum with the bold (?) Dick, provided the confiding mortal aforementioned should accomplish the thing to the satisfaction of his voluminous employer, Richard W. King.

CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Democratic-Conservatives of Craven met at the Court House yesterday morning and were called to order by James E. Morris, Esq., Chairman of the County Executive Committee, who called Col. H. T. Guion to the Chair, and, on motion, S. M. Carpenter and Henry C. Pool, Esqrs., were appointed Secretaries.

Col. Guion on taking the Chair explained the object of the meeting, and addressed the Convention in a short, earnest speech of about ten minutes.

On motion of Maj. John Hughes a committee of twelve to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, and to name candidates for the various county offices, was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen:

John Hughes, Chairman; Sam'l Radcliff, J. E. Morris, W. G. Brinson, J. A. Bryan, J. F. Heath, S. W. Latham, J. F. Rich, T. H. Mallison, Geo. W. Hardison, D. E. Christie, Turner May.

During the absence of the committee, Hon. C. C. Clark and John S. Long, Esq., being called upon, made short speeches, expressing their intention to work for the cause during the campaign.

Major Hughes, on the part of the committee, submitted the following report:

We, the Conservative-Democrats of Craven County, in Convention assembled, hereby renew our vow of opposition to the centralizing tendencies and aggressive legislation of the Radical party, pledging ourselves in the future, as in the past, to an earnest, united and determined resistance, at the ballot-box, to its continuance in power.

Resolved, That the recent election in the city of New Berne of colored men as Trustees of the New Berne Academy, (a school exclusively devoted to the education of white children,) is an impudent outrage, perpetrated by an overwhelming majority upon the rights and feelings of a minority, against which we protest.

Resolved, That we are earnestly opposed to the monstrosity, misnamed "Civil Rights Bill," recently passed by the Radical majority in the Senate of the United States, and, we believe, should it become a law, that it will be attended with the most serious consequences to both races, engendering strife and discord, and arousing the most bitter feelings of race and color.

Resolved, That the negro element of the Radical party, by its resolutions, speeches and nominations for office, has shown a determination not to be misunderstood, that during the present campaign, and hereafter, color is to be the line and standard of qualification for office, and we hereby accept the issue.

Resolved, That the recent election of colored Trustees of the New Berne Academy; the nomination of John A. Hyman, colored, for Congress in this District; of Richard Tucker, colored, for State Senate from this county; and of John Good, colored, and Edward Hill, colored, as Representatives in the Legislature, are striking evidences of this determination and of their intention to carry it out.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the nomination of our fellow-citizen, Col. S. D. Pool, as the Conservative candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, and promise him the enthusiastic support of the "old guard" of Craven.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the County be, and are hereby authorized, to appoint delegates to any District Conventions that may be called by the District Executive Committees at any time between this and the election in August next.

The reading of the resolutions was received with applause, and after their unanimous adoption, the committee reported the following names for the various offices, and this report was also adopted with enthusiasm:

For the Senate:
CICERO GREEN.

For House of Representatives:
S. D. POOL, JR., WM. WHITFORD.

James E. Morris, Esq., moved that a County Executive Committee of twenty-five persons be appointed by the Chair at its leisure. Adopted.

On motion of Hon. C. C. Clark, the Chairman of the Convention was added to this committee.

Messrs. S. D. Pool, Jr., and Wm. Whitford, candidates for the House of Representatives, Wm. G. Brinson, candidate for Clerk, W. H. Marshall, candidate for Surveyor, and W. C. Brewer, candidate for Sheriff, being present, came forward upon call, and accepted the nominations tendered them, pledging themselves to carry forward, without faltering, the banner of the white man's party through the county during the campaign.

Hon. C. C. Clark, Jas. A. Bryan, Esq., Maj. John Hughes, Sam'l Radcliff, Esq., H. C. Whitehurst, Esq., and D. E. Christie, Esq., being called for, made short, but eloquent addresses, advising the people to pay no attention to side issues, but to stick steadfastly to the main one, viz: color and race.

On motion, the thanks of the Convention were tendered the Chairman and Secretaries.

On motion, the NEWBERNIAN and Journal of Commerce were requested to publish these proceedings, and every Conservative paper in the State to copy them.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

The Priest of Radicalism.

NO. V.

"Great day of revelation! in the grave
The hypocrite has left his mask. He is a man
Who steals the livery of the Court of heaven,
To serve the devil in; in virtue's guise,
Devours the widow's house and orphan's bread;
In holy phrase transacts villainies
That common sinners durst not meddle with.
At sacred feasts he sits among the saints,
And with his guilty hands touches holiest things,
And none of sin more laments, or sighs
More deeply, or with graver countenance,
Or longer prayer, weeps o'er the dying man,
Whose infant children, at the moment, he
Plans how to rob. In sermon style he buys,
And sells, and lies; and salutation makes
In scripture terms. He prays by quantity,
And with his repetitions long and loud,
All knees are weary. With one hand he puts
A penny in the urn of poverty,
And with the other takes a shilling out.
On charitable lists,—those trumps which tell
The public ear, who have in secret done
The poor a benefit, and half the alms
They tell of, take themselves to keep them
sounding,—
He blazes his name, more pleased to have it there
Than in the book of life."

St. NICHOLAS for July will contain a new story by Bret Harte, called "Baby Sylvester." In this story, the author shows all the grace, humor, and quaint description that have made him our great American story-teller. Both old and young will be delighted with the curious and laughable fortunes of the hero, who is one of the most absurdly charming characters Bret Harte ever drew. "Baby Sylvester" has been admirably illustrated by W. L. Sheppard and Jas. C. Beard, and is certain to produce a literary sensation.

Mr. Edward King, in his forthcoming article on Missouri, in the "Great South" series of Scribner's Monthly, calls Missouri the "Heart of the Republic." The article will appear in the July number.

Fanny Hodgson Burnett, the talented young writer, recently married, whose home is in Tennessee, will have a story, "The Fire at Grantley Mills," in Scribner for July. Mrs. Burnett will be remembered as the author of "Surly Tim's Trouble's," a story written in the Lancashire Dialect, which appeared in Scribner's Monthly and which has become famous among readers on the Platform. The editors say that this later story shows the same wonderful genius and power.
