THE GREAT FIRE.—By an extra issued from this office, on Sunday morning, 16th, our readers have already been apprised of the destructive fire which broke out at or about one o'clock that morning, and raged with such fury as to lay in ashes as much as one entire block of our city before the flames could be checked. The fire, which was clearly the work of an incendiary, originated at the furniture store of Messrs. C. A. NELSON & Co., on Middle street, and communicated so rapidly to the furniture and other light combustible matter, with which the store was filled, that the whole building was in a blaze of fire in an incredibly short period of time. So rapid was the ignition that the Messrs. NELSON and family had to jump out from the window of the second story, where they were sleeping, in which three members of the family were more or less injured. From this house the flames spread right and left with great rapidity, and very soon the whole row of buildings on the west side of Middle, from Broad to Pollock streets, was a sheet of flame. In the meantime the fire had communicated across Middle and all that portion of the east block, from the northwest corner of the church yard to Broad street, and back to the fence bounding the DAVIES' property, was also a sheet of fire, and everything was burned to the ground.

Arriving at STEVENSON'S corner, on Broad, the fire started west, burning the store of SARAH OXLEY and a few small houses, and would have communicated across the vacant lot to the store of ROBERTS & Co., had not they taken time by the forelock, by collecting a few hands and tearing away some small wooden buildings in the rear of their store, which is brick. By this timely precaution they staid the fire in that direction; but it raged with unparalleled fury in a Southern direction, the wind being favorable, and in a very short time had wrapped the old DISOWAY corner, at the junction of Middle and Pollok, in a shroud of living flame, and was making way up Pollok in the direction of Hancock street. At this turning point was the great tug of war, and the skill and energy of the firemen, assisted by the citizens, were never taxed to a fuller extent than they were here. The struggle now was to prevent the devouring element from crossing Pollok street. There stood the CUTNER building, now occupied by McLEAN & Co., apparently inviting it across, and the roofs of the houses immediately west were apparently as susceptible of ignition as the driest tinder. The flames from the crumbling buildings on the opposite side were shooting up like meteors and lashing the very tops of the tall chimneys, the wind inducing the floating sparks to seek a lodgement on the crazy roofs of these old wooden structures. The firemen and citizens worked like heroes, as they were, amid heat sufficiently intense to have roasted a ham. For a time all seemed lost. Should the fire once cross no human power could stop it short of the Trent river, in which case all of the business portion of the city would be laid in ashes. This thought seemed to nerve the combatants with superhuman energy and endurance. Long bolts of carpeting were unrolled and thrown from the third story windows of McLEAN'S establishment, which, being saturated with water, and hanging over and protecting the exposed wooden parts of the structure gained the point, and hope revived.

Attention, now, turned in the direction of buildings further west. The flames were about entering the dwelling of W. G. HALL, Esq., and being a tall house, would endanger the crossing from that point. This difficulty was soon obviated by the use of a few kegs of powder, and thus the fire was staid at Pollok st., and it finally ceased its ravages on burning up Pollok to Hancock, having destroyed every vestige of a building on two sides and part of the third of one square and one side of another square.

PUBLIC MEETING.—In accordance with previous notice, the citizens met at the Theatre, on Monday, 17th, at 11 a. m., for the purpose of taking steps for the relief of the needy sufferers by the late fire.
 The meeting was organized by calling Mayor Washington to the Chair, and appointing Col. D. Heaton and John D. Bangert, Secretaries.

 It was moved that a Committee of six be appointed to solicit subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers and report to the Mayor.

"ATLANTIC No. 1."—The above is the name of an old time honored machine, which has, "in the good old days of yore," done valuable service in the way of extinguishing fire and saving property, but has been laid aside for some length of time. We are informed that MAGLEEN & MANWELL has a claim upon this engine, for repairs, of $220; and that as soon as it can be paid, the Southern boys of the city intend forming a company to run with said machine, for the purpose of the more successfully contending with the devouring flames, in conjunction with the Northern boys who compose the Newbern Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1.

On Wednesday afternoon the "Atlantic" was taken down to Trent river and underwent a thorough trial, by the Newbern Steam Fire Engine Company, and is pronounced in good working order with the exception of needing a little tightening of her joints. We predict for the new company a career of usefulness, and we trust that they may win many laurels by their energy and perseverance.

THE CONCERT.—We had the pleasure of listening to the amateur concert at the Theatre on Wednesday night last, and while we are free to confess to an incapacity of appreciating all that was sung, we were so convinced that it was good music, that we were as well pleased as if we could sing it ourself.
 Prof. WELZ is a performer of the highest order of merit, and extracts melody from the piano with an ease and skill that is rarely seen.
 It will be seen that another concert is to be given to-night, in aid of the sufferers by the recent fire. This is a worthy object, and as several of our Newbern ladies, together with the best singers of our sister towns will perform, we think all our friends will find entertainment in attending.

COTTON STATISTICS.—We desire to get up all the cotton statistics we can, in this section of the State, during the week, and will be obliged to all merchants and farmers for any information they can furnish us as to the probable amount which will likely be produced this season.

STERLING'S SOUTHERN SERIES OF SCHOOL BOOKS.—RICHARD STERLING, A. M. of Greensboro', has a large list of school books, now in press, and will soon have them ready for delivery. Among this list we notice the following:
 Sterling's Southern Primer,
 Sterling's Southern Pictorial Primer,
 Sterling's Southern Elementary Speller,
 Sterling's Southern High School Speller,
 Sterling's Southern First Reader,
 Sterling's Southern Second Reader,
 Sterling's Southern Third Reader,
 Sterling's Southern Fourth Reader,
 Sterling's Southern Fifth Reader,
 Sterling's Southern Orator.

OUR THEATRE TO BE OPENED AGAIN.—We are pleased to learn that H. M. JENKINS & Co., late of the Richmond, Va., theatre, have leased the Newbern Theatre, and will open on the 1st of October. We understand that the company embodies talent of a high order, which, for several months past, has commanded the best attention in the city of Richmond. We wish them the best of success.

UNION MEETING IN RALEIGH.—At a meeting held in Raleigh on Thursday, September 20th, 1866, on motion of C. R. Thomas, Esq., of Craven County, Hon. W. W. Holden was called to the Chair, and on motion of R. F. Lehman, Esq., of Craven, R. W. Logan, of Rutherford, and W. J. Doughty, of Garteret, were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in an appropriate manner.
 On motion, the Chairman appointed the following gentlemen a committee to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting:
 C. R. Thomas and R. F. Lehman, of Craven.
 D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston.
 E. T. Blair, of Randolph.
 John Robinson, of Wayne.
 Henderson A. Hodge, of Wake.
 J. B. McMurry, of Alamance.
 N. Chandler, of Davidson.
 J. C. L. Harris, of Rutherford.
 Jesse Green, of Davie.
 W. C. Gunter, of Chatham.
 The committee retired and after due deliberation, reported through their Chairman, Mr. Thomas, the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:
 The Union State Mass Meeting assembled in the city of Raleigh, the 20th day of September, 1866, for the purpose of maintaining and preserving the organization of the Union party, to the end that the State government of North Carolina may be so administered as to secure the restoration and perpetuation of the rights, privileges and immunities of the people thereof, and their form of government in harmony with the National Government—grateful for the preservation of that sentiment of nationality which is the shield of the Constitution and the sure guarantee of Republican form of government, do, with a sincere desire for reconciliation, forgiveness and charity among all classes of American people, who were either engaged, or involved in the late civil war, resolve—

1. That only those men, without regard to their antecedents, who are "unmistakably loyal" to the government of the United States, should be appointed or elected by the people of North Carolina to any office, or place of trust or profit.
2. That, in order to secure the re-establishment of the State in the Federal Union; the speedy restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities of her loyal citizens, and the final adjustment of the governmental relations of her whole people in harmony with the National Government, the amendment proposed by the present Congress, as article 14, to the Constitution of the United States, as a condition precedent to these ends, should be accepted and ratified by the General Assembly of North Carolina.
3. That, having full confidence in the justice and magnanimity of Congress that upon the ratification of said proposed amendment the disability to hold, or to be eligible to office imposed therein, will be, in every proper case, removed without discrimination as to any class or party of our fellow-citizens on account of their antecedents, and that the State of North Carolina will be forthwith re-admitted to the Union, we would respectfully urge upon our whole people to consider, and demand that the same be ratified by their representatives in the next General Assembly.
4. That in the present anomalous state of the country, without any provisions contained in our written Constitutions, either State or National, or precedents in American history to guide us safely in the great work of restoring the relations of a State government, ruptured by civil war, in harmony with the National Government, we desire and now stand ready to co-operate without ostentatious adherence to any special plan or policy of restoration, in any further action that in the wisdom of Congress and the Executive may be deemed necessary to guarantee to the State of North Carolina a Republican form of government, and restore the Union.
5. That we profoundly regret the defection of Gov. Worth from the Union cause, his proscription for opinion's sake of Union men from office, and the injurious influence which the prominent instigators and actors in the rebellion are exerting over him in his official conduct. We cannot hope that the State will be restored to the Union under his auspices; and, as we prefer principles to men, and believe the restoration of the Union to be more important and more vital to the best interests of the State than everything else, we feel it to be our duty firmly to oppose his re-election.

 6. That having full confidence in the patriotism, ability, and sterling Unionism of General Alfred Dockery, of the county of Richmond, we hereby unanimously recommend him to the people of North Carolina as a suitable person to be chosen Governor at the election to be held on the 15th of October next. Gen. Dockery is well known as a firm and unflinching Union man. He has had no connection with the causes that led to our present unhappy condition, and he has been true to the Union cause. His interests as a farmer are identified with those of the great body of our people. His election in the present crisis would be a fortunate circumstance for the people of the State, and would do much with the loyal people of the North, to open the way for our return to the Union.

Letters were read from Lewis Thompson, Esq., Robert P. Dick, Esq., and other distinguished Unionists, approving the object of the meeting and expressing a warm preference for Alfred Dockery for Governor.
 On motion of Jas. F. Taylor, Esq., of Wake, a committee of three was appointed to act in conjunction with the officers of the meeting in informing Gen. Dockery of his nomination; whereupon the Chair appointed James F. Taylor, H. J. Menninger, and E. T. Blair.
 On motion, it was
 Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a State Committee of fifteen, to aid in promoting the Union cause in the State.
 Under this resolution the Chair appointed the following gentlemen:

- Lewis Thompson, of Bertie.
- David M. Carter, of Beaufort.
- Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Granville.
- C. R. Thomas, of Craven.
- O. H. Dockery, of Richmond.
- E. L. Pemberton, of Cumberland.
- Thomas Settle, of Rockingham.
- Robert P. Dick, of Guilford.
- Calvin J. Cowles, of Wilkes.
- Tod R. Caldwell, of Burke.
- R. M. Henry, of Macon.
- A. H. Jones, of Henderson.
- L. L. Stewart, of Buncombe.
- G. W. Logan, of Rutherford.
- Dr. W. Sloan, of Mecklenburg.

On motion, it was
 Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting be requested to furnish a copy of his address to be published with these proceedings; and that the Raleigh Standard, Newbern Times, Charlotte Democrat, Peoples' Press, Henderson Pioneer, and Rutherford Star be respectfully requested to publish the proceedings and address.
 On motion, it was requested that R. W. Logan, one of the Secretaries of this meeting, proceed to Richmond county to inform Gen. Dockery of his nomination.
 On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman and Secretaries, and then on motion the meeting adjourned.

Gen. Lee's Application for Pardon.
 HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES,
 WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20, 1866.
 Gen. R. E. Lee, Richmond, Va.

GENERAL:—Your communication of date the 13th inst., stating the steps you had taken after reading the President's proclamation of the 29th ult., with the view of complying with its provisions when you learned that, with others, you were to be indicted for treason by the Grand Jury at Norfolk; that you had supposed that the officers and men of the Army of Northern Virginia were, by the terms of their surrender, protected by the United States Government from molestation, so long as they conformed to its conditions; that you were ready to meet any charges that might be preferred against you, and did not wish to avoid trial, but that if you were correct as to the protection granted by your parole, and were not to be prosecuted, you desired to avail yourself of the President's amnesty and proclamation, and in closing an application therefor, with the request that, in the event it be acted on, has been received and forwarded to the Secretary of War, with the following opinion indorsed thereon:
 In my opinion the officers and men paroled at Appomattox Court house, and since upon the same terms given to LEE, cannot be tried for treason so long as they observe the terms of their parole. This is my understanding. Good faith, as well as true policy, dictates that we should observe the condition of that convention. Bad faith on the part of the Government, or a construction of that convention subjecting the officers to trial for treason, would produce a feeling of insecurity in the minds of all the officers and men. If so disposed, they might even regard such an infraction of terms by the Government as an entire release from all obligations on their part. I will state further that the terms granted by me met with the hearty approval of the President at the time, and of the country generally. The action of Judge Underwood, in Norfolk, has already had an injurious effect, and I would ask that he be ordered to quash all indictments found against paroled prisoners of war, and to desist from the further prosecution of them.

U. S. GRANT, Lieut. General.
 HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES,
 June 16, 1866.
 This opinion, I am informed, is substantially the same as that entertained by the Government, and I have forwarded your application for amnesty and pardon to the President, with the following indorsement thereon:
 Respectfully forwarded through the Secretary of War to the President, with the earnest recommendation that this application of Gen. R. E. Lee for amnesty and pardon may be granted him. The oath of allegiance required by recent order of the President does not accompany this, for the reason, I am informed by Gen. Ord., the order requiring it had not reached Richmond when this was forwarded.
 U. S. GRANT, Lieut. General.
 HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES, June 10, 1866.
 Very respectfully,
 U. S. GRANT, Lieut. General.
