

LOCAL EVENTS

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN. PERSONALS
PICKED UP BY OUR LOCAL EDITOR

Mr. D. J. Brookshire made a business trip to Elkin Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Cranor Tuesday, a fine boy.

Mr. R. S. Griswold, of Gilreath post-office, was here Tuesday on business.

Attorney F. B. Hendren made a business trip to Roaring River yesterday.

Miss Lois Parlier, of Asheville, attended the Winkler-Parlier nuptials Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry M. Ware, of Greensboro, is spending several days with Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Ware.

Mr. T. E. Hart, a traveling salesman, spent the week-end in Wilkesboro with relatives.

Mr. Franc L. Ives returned the latter part of last week from a business trip to Ashe County.

Mr. C. A. Lowe, of Moravian Falls, left Tuesday on a business trip to the eastern part of the state.

Mr. C. H. Greenwood, of Roaring River, was here a short while Monday looking after business matters.

Miss Ella Jones arrived Monday from Winston-Salem and is spending sometime with relatives at Oakwoods.

"Uncle" Frank Brown, colored, returned Monday to his home near Guilford College, after a visit to relatives in Wilkesboro.

Miss Frances Hendren, of Charlotte, visited her parents, Attorney and Mrs. F. B. Hendren, in Wilkesboro this week.

1920 has two freaks. The month of February contains five Sundays, and the Fourth of July this year comes on Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Spainhour returned the first of the week from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Mast, in Watauga County.

Mr. A. J. Bobbitt, of Gilreath post-office, left Wednesday for Aberdeen, N. C., where he will engage in farming with his brother.

Mr. Ed. Turner left yesterday for Newbern, N. C., to accept a position as operator for The Western Union Telegraph company.

Mrs. Sargeant Duffield left Tuesday for Mt. Airy in response to a message stating that immediate relatives were suffering with influenza.

Messrs. G. W. Spicer, Sherman Spicer, and Cicero Anderson, left Monday for Elkin, where they secured employment in factories there.

Mr. Charles Leckie, who holds a position in Winston-Salem, spent the week-end in Wilkesboro with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leckie.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson, a member of the Mt. View school faculty, is spending several days this week in Mars Hill, N. C., with relatives.

Mr. J. C. Wallace left Sunday for New York and other northern cities to purchase goods for the mercantile establishment of J. C. Wallace & Co.

Mr. V. S. Shaffer returned yesterday to his home in Berryville, Va., after spending several days in the city with his sister, Mrs. Roscoe Prevetie.

Mr. Charlie Pearson left Tuesday for Ennis, W. Va., in response to a message stating that his sister, Mrs. J. L. Dewese, was critically ill with pneumonia which was preceded by an attack of influenza.

Miss Hannah Taylor returned yesterday from a several weeks' trip to New York and Baltimore in the interest of her millinery establishment.

Miss Edna Shaffer, of Washington, D. C., is expected to arrive tomorrow to spend a week or ten days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Prevetie.

Mr. Eugene B. Sydnor, of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city yesterday to spend several days on business and to visit relatives in the Wilkesboros.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Milam, who have been living in Union township, left yesterday afternoon for Kannapolis, N. C., where they will make their home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Holloway, who have been on a visit to Mrs. Holloway's sister, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, in Wilkesboro, returned Tuesday to their home in Winston-Salem.

Miss Tensie Rhodes, who has been spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rhodes, at Millers Creek, returned Tuesday to her home in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Samuel Dodson, who holds a position in Winston-Salem, returned Monday after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dodson, on Hunting Creek.

Mr. Sargeant Duffield, who has recently accepted a position with Mr. P. E. Brown as sales manager of his lumber business, left Saturday on a business trip to northern cities.

Mr. Robert Laws arrived yesterday from Winston-Salem and went to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Laws, at Oakwoods, to recuperate from a recent attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Foote spent several days in Winston-Salem this week with their daughter, Miss Bernice Foote, a student of Salem Academy and who is ill with influenza.

Miss Edith Cranor, who spent a short time here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McElwee, en route from New York, went to her home in Shelby this morning.—Statesville Sentinel, Feb. 16th.

Mrs. R. C. Jennings and children arrived Wednesday from Winston-Salem and went out to Pores Knob to spend a week with Mrs. Jennings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Meadows.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols spent a short while in Jonesville this week in the home of her brother, Mr. A. D. Stout, who, along with the members of his family, is suffering with an attack of influenza.

Mr. Sam Johnson, who has been spending the past three weeks with relatives in Edwards, Walnut Grove and North Wilkesboro townships, left yesterday for his home in White County, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Johnson and child returned Tuesday to their home in Greensboro after a several days' visit to Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Woodie, who resides near Crickett postoffice.

Mrs. W. J. Palmer and little son, Martin, left Saturday for Hopewell, Va., to spend two months with Mrs. Palmer's daughter, Mrs. D. H. Hudson. Mr. Palmer accompanied them on the trip as far as Greensboro.

Mr. John Holman, who has been holding a responsible position with a construction company in Wilmington, N. C., for sometime, arrived Tuesday and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Holman, in Wilkesboro.

Sheriff W. D. Woodruff returned yesterday from Morganton, N. C., to which place he accompanied Mrs. S. J. Gambill, of Walnut Grove township, who will undergo treatment for mental derangement in the state hospital.

Mr. H. O. Absher, of Nashville, N. C., who is here on a visit to relatives, accompanied his daughter, Miss Inez, to Elkin, yesterday where she will undergo a minor operation for the purpose of correcting her respiratory organs.

Misses Grace Hendrix and Pearl Caudill, of Ronda, and Grace Hayes, of Jonesville, respectively, students of Mt. View Institute, passed through this place Tuesday en route to their homes to convalesce from attacks of influenza.

Miss Emma Kelly left Wednesday for Baltimore, Md., where she will be engaged in millinery business during the spring season. She was accompanied to Greensboro by her brother, Mr. Walter Kelly, who returned yesterday.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples during the past week: A. G. Church to Treva West, both of Champion; Bura L. Jennings, of Hays, to Ethel Walker, of Myers; I. J. Bell, of Ronda, to Dora Woods, of Reddies River.

Mr. Ed. Long, who has been holding a position in Winston-Salem with Grimes & Company, wholesale grocers, arrived here the latter part of the week and has accepted a position as manager of the Miller Grocery company, this store having been purchased last week by Blair & Company.

Friends will be gratified to learn that the condition of Dr. J. P. Rousseau, who is ill with pneumonia in Winston-Salem, is now much improved. His brothers, Messrs. J. R. and J. A. Rousseau returned from his bedside Sunday and they state that much hope is entertained for his early recovery.

Parties arriving here this morning from Elkin report the death of Mr. Jesse Franklin, a popular young man of that town, after a brief illness with influenza. He was 21 years of age. The funeral was conducted today from the home at Elkin by Rev. C. W. Robinson, of North Wilkesboro.—Winston Sentinel, Feb. 17th.

Mr. E. E. Eller is now occupying his new two-story brick building on 10th street, which has been erected on the site of his former building that was destroyed by fire toward the close of the year 1918. The building has been built out of the best of material and has been so constructed as to be highly adaptable to his produce business.

Private M. M. Absher arrived Monday from Asheville, N. C., where he has been a patient in Oteen, general hospital No. 19, for sometime. Private Absher is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Absher, of Newlife postoffice, and was formerly a member of the 1st Division, serving in France about 11 months. He entered Oteen June 12th, 1919.

Mrs. J. H. Hall, who lives near Boomer, suffered a severe attack of paralysis late Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hall was engaged in kitchen work when the stroke occurred and before aid came she had fallen to the floor where she lay for several minutes. The attack affected her right side, and at this writing her condition is very serious.

Miss Rosa Hemphill, of Hendersonville, N. C., Red Cross nurse, arrived in the city last Friday and up until yesterday had been engaged in nursing influenza sufferers in the vicinity of Haymeadow postoffice. Miss Hemphill left yesterday afternoon for her home in response to a message that she was badly needed there to help combat influenza.

The Republican voters of Wilkes County are requested to meet at the voting precincts in each township tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention which will be held in Wilkesboro at the courthouse Monday afternoon, Feb. 23rd, at 1 o'clock. The purpose of the county convention is to elect delegates to both the state and senatorial conventions.

Glenn, the nine months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Yates, who reside near Congo postoffice, was burned to death last Wednesday morning. The mother left the child in a box near the fire when she went to milk. On returning she found the child's clothes on fire and its body severely burned. Mrs. Yates suffered severe burns on the hands in attempting to rescue her baby. Interment was made Thursday afternoon at New Hope church.

At a meeting of the town commissioners of Wilkesboro held last Friday an order was passed that a survey be made of the road leading from Cub creek to Bridge street by the residences of J. M. Hollars and others. It was first proposed to construct the road from the creek by way of the government building, but owing to some difficulty in securing a right-of-way the commissioners decided to follow the route of the present road. Work will probably begin on this road soon after the survey is completed.

Mr. W. H. Church, of Ronda, who is agent for the Delco Lighting plant for this county, finished the installation of a plant in the home of Mr. H. M. Anderson, of Wilkesboro township, this week. He was assisted in the work by Mr. L. G. Myers, of Ronda.

Mr. Anderson will use the plant for lighting purposes in his home and barn and will put in a power stand that will operate any machinery that has heretofore been operated by hand. Mr. W. J. Templeton, of Somers township, has recently purchased a Delco lighting system, the plant to be installed about the first of March.

High Point, Feb. 12.—R. L. Hutchings, white man, will pay the local Red Cross $250 on a court order issued today by Municipal Judge J. Allen, Austin.

Hutchings was tried several days ago on a charge of defacing the number

DEFACES CAR NUMBER, MUST REMIT TO THE RED CROSS

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffing, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable. Relief is sure.

on an automobile engine in an alleged attempt to conceal the identity of the car, and was sentenced to three months on the road. His counsel today asked the judge to allow the man to pay the Red Cross $250, pointing out the need by that organization, and the judge granted the request.

Hutchings is also wanted in Reidsville for the theft of the automobile. He will be taken there late today to be tried on that count.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Jenkins Hardware Company

Are now in position to supply your wants in Nails, Barb Wire, Woven Wire Fence, Poultry Netting, Oliver Chill Plows and Repairs, Cook Stoves and Ranges from $15.00 to $100.00. Most anything you want in the Furniture Line that was bought before the last advance. Bicycles and Automobile Accessories, Tin Ware, Galvanized Ware, Glass Ware, Dishes, Single and Double Plow Stocks, Riding and Walking Cultivators, One and Two Row Corn Planters, Threshing Machines, Fairbanks-Morse Kerosene Engines. We are well stocked on roofing—our retail price is less today than the manufacturers prices on all grades from Mill Ends to Multi Shingles. When you need anything in Hardware or Furniture it will pay you to see us before you buy.

Jenkins Hardware Company

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

If Death Overtakes You Will You Leave an Estate?

While disease is prevalent and before YOU become a VICTIM think over the protection a Life Contract will give YOUR FAMILY and YOU.

Ask to see one of the "Pilot Policies."

E. P. ROBINSON

District Agent Southern Life and Trust Company

North Wilkesboro, - - - - - North Carolina