Washington, Dec. 5.—John C. Dan- cy, one of the wealthiest negroes in the middle Atlantic states and former collector of customs at Wilmington, N. C., died here today. During President Roosevelt's administration he served as register of deed of the Dis- trict of Columbia. He was born in Tarboro, N. C.

ADJOINING COUNTY NEWS

Yadkin

Ripple, Dec. 2.
Mr. John H. Davis, a prominent farmer of Route 2, died at the city hospital in Winston last Monday morning following an operation. He was about 62 years old. Mr. Davis had been a member of Forbush Baptist church for 40 years and an active worker in the church. He was well-known all over the county and held in the highest esteem. Interment was in the Forbush church cemetery and the funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. F. Morton.

Surry

Elkin Tribune, Dec. 2.
Mrs. T. A. Church was called to Mebane last week on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. L. L. Rice. Mrs. Church arrived home Saturday night, her father having died Wednesday night and was buried Thursday. He was 76 years old and a veteran of the Civil War.

Iredell

Statesville Sentinel, Dec. 1.
Mr. Wynnoble, of Holland, a noted professional musician is a Statesville visitor, spending the winter here as the guest of Prof. Bondham, director of music at Mitchell College.

Prof. D. Matt Thompson, who for twenty-nine years has been the ever watchful and faithful head of our city schools, was seriously, if not fatally injured last night when a Ford automobile driven by David D. Harris ran into him and knocked him down at the postoffice crossing. The sad accident occurred about six o'clock at the corner of West Front street and South Center street, in the middle of the road between the post office and the Gray Cafe.

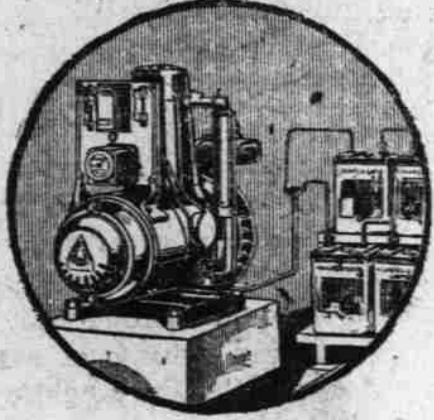

Caldwell

Lenoir News-Topic, Dec. 2.
Mr. H. L. Houck and his family moved to North Wilkesboro last week where they will live with their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Moore. Mr. Houck sold out his household and kitchen furniture last Saturday a week ago at auction. Mrs. Houck has been in bad health for a number of years, and is unable to look after the duties of her household. It is hoped that Mrs. Houck will improve in her new home. It is with deep regret that we lose this esteemed family from our town, and we wish them success in their new home.
