

THE HUSTLER.

VOL. VI.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1902.

NO. 49.

THE MOVING THROG.

A Few of the Faces The Hustler Caught in Passing.

Mr. R. A. Hamilton, of Beaver Creek, is here.

Mr. Ed. Reeves and wife, of Ashe, are in the city.

Mr. W. H. Woods, of Elkin, was in the city this week.

Mr. D. R. Horton, of Blackstone, was in the city this week.

Miss Irene Moss, of Lillington, is visiting at Mr. A. K. Pearson's.

Editor Johnson, of the Elkin Times, was in the city this week.

Mr. John Dobson, of Rockford, was in the city the first of the week.

Mrs. James Hickerson, of Ronda, is visiting her son, Mr. L. N. Hickerson.

Misses Maie Hamilton, Bert and Ola Neal, of Ashe, are visiting the family of Mr. J. P. Rousseau.

Mr. Edward G. Finley, of Horner Military Institute, Oxford, came home Saturday to spend vacation.

Mr. Darius Absher and sister, Miss Mabie, of Obids, visited the family of Mr. E. E. Eller this week.

Mrs. N. A. Bingham and daughter, Miss Laura, of Statesville, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Sherman.

Mr. Orrin Wilcox and wife, of Ashe, visited his sister, Mrs. W. W. Barber, in Wilkesboro the first of the week.

Mrs. B. E. Reeves returned to her home at Lamar Monday after spending several days with her parents in Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Albert Gaither, of Newton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. B. Finley. She is accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Gaither.

Miss Rowena Cooper, of Statesville, is spending several days with Misses Florence and Tois Jarvis, to the delight of many friends.

Mr. J. G. Hackett returned yesterday from Raleigh, where he attended a meeting of the board of directors of the penitentiary.

Mrs. Leonard Vyne left for Rockfish, Cumberland county, Wednesday to join her husband. The best wishes of a host of friends go with her.

Mr. J. C. Henry and family, of Hallsville, W. Va., came in Friday to visit Mrs. Henry's parents at Millers Creek. Mr. Henry returned Monday.

Barn and Stock Burned.

Friday night the barn of Mr. S. J. Greenwood at Roaring River was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock, but too late to be extinguished and too late to rescue the five mules and two horses, as well as vehicles, harness, feed-stuff, etc., and all went up in flames. The loss is quite heavy, and a host of friends sympathize with Mr. Greenwood.

It will be remembered that only a few weeks ago his store was blown down and the goods ruined.

Visiting Ministers.

Among the visiting ministers we note—Dawson, Stokes; Burrus, East Bend; Shelton, Statesville; Stevenson, Stony Fork; Havener, Troutman; Houek, Sparta; Hughes, Laurel Springs; Murry, Sparta; Fletcher, Jefferson; Beach, East Bend; Terrell, Olin; Bogle, Jefferson; Smith Statesville.

A GREAT MEETING.

Large Crowds Attending--Great Sermons--Much Interest Being Manifested.

Probably never in the history of Wilkes county has there been such a religious demonstration as is now in progress in North Wilkesboro. People are coming in from miles and from one to two thousand attend each service--11, 3 and 8.30 o'clock.

The tent is located in a most excellent position and the speaker can be easily seen and heard at all times. It is lighted by two arc lights and several incandescents.

Mr. Jones did not arrive until Tuesday. Mr. Holcomb delivered able sermons in a most forcible manner Sunday and Monday.

Monday afternoon Rev. Geo. Stewart arrived. He is one of the ablest ministers we have ever heard and captured the large crowd that greeted him from the large crowd that greeted him from the first and held them spellbound with the wonderful power of his eloquence.

Tuesday night "Your Uncle Samuel" held sway and to say that he shelled the woods is putting it mildly. He hit in every direction and hit everybody. Of course some got mad, but they went back to hear him. Wednesday night he delivered a most able and eloquent sermon, free from abuse, and at its close the front of the stand was crowded with penitent souls seeking forgiveness.

It is impossible to describe either Mr. Jones or Mr. Stewart--both are able men, magnetic men, and must be heard to be appreciated.

The time of the meeting is limited--it will close Monday morning. This is a golden opportunity, and we trust that those who have not been attending these services will do so. In the mean time let all christians pray for such a revival of lasting good as has never been witnessed in this section before--it is sadly needed.

Mr. Jones' choirster failed to come, but his daughter, Mrs. Mayes, is presiding at the piano in a most able manner--she is a most excellent performer. The choir is composed of about one hundred voices and is getting in good trim, considering that no practicing had been done.

This is a golden opportunity--come out and hear the Word of God.

That Court House Question.

Our neighbor, the Chronicle, is so very anxious for the agitation of the court house question to cease that it devotes this week a half column reply to what we said last week, and this is what it says:

Now, we are willing to meet our neighbor half way, so we reply as follows:

Wilkes Bond Case.

The following special from Washington Monday explains itself:

The United States Supreme Court ordered the the papers in the case of commissioners of Wilkes county, N. C., vs. W. N. Coler, sticked from the files of the court.

The case itself is not of especial importance, but the court's reason is of general scope. It was given by the Chief Justice in the following language:

"The papers on which this application is made contain matter intended to reflect on the impartiality of one of the judges who participated the decision below which should not have been submitted to this court. Our records must be kept free from scandal and not be made the vehicle of irrelevant and unwarranted attacks. The papers are stricken from the files. The application will, however, retain its original number and will be renewed in proper form on the coming of the court."

The Judge, upon whom reflection is said to have been made in the papers, is Hon. James E. Boyd, judge of the western district of North Carolina.

Harper's Convincing Test.

During one year two new books, one by a popular author, the other by an unknown, had virtually equalled sales. Then the former was sold for another year "with the usual methods of publicity," while the latter was made the subject of a special display advertisement in all the leading newspapers (one insertion). The results amazed the publishers (Harpers) and the advertising agents. The sales of the book by the unknown author exceeded those of the other by 200,000 copies--clearly the result of one big advertisement in the newspapers.--Philadelphia Record.

And you will find successful business men these days in some localities who say that advertising does not pay.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempseytown, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Doughton's drug store.

HERE AND THERE.

A Batch of Short Notes that May or May Not Interest You.

Hot, dry and dusty. Rain is badly needed.

Miss Nella Staley, of Moravian Falls, is quite ill and not expected to live.

Mrs. R. A. Deal, of Wilkesboro, has been quite ill several days. She has an attack of acute indigestion.

Unknown parties broke into Mrs. Lura Cowles' crib the other night and stole about twenty bushels of corn.

At a meeting of the county Democratic county executive committee in Wilkesboro Monday it was decided to hold the county convention Monday, July 7th. Let all the Democrats in the county interest themselves in the matter.

Perry Coffey, who was convicted a few years ago and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of 10 years for killing his brother, but escaped after serving a term of 13 months, died in Mulberry township last week from an attack of consumption. It is said that he always denied being guilty.

Luck in Thirteen.

By sending 13 miles Wm. Spirey, of Walton Furnace, Va., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible Fever Sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures Bruises, Felons, Ulcers, Eruptions, Boils, Burns, Corns and Piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Doughton, druggist.
