

THE HUSTLER.

T. J. ROBERTSON, Editor and Publisher.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR—In Advance

VOL. VIII.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N C, APRIL 29, 1904

NO 55.

"D. & S." BANK.

Deposit and Savings Bank

Next Door to Postoffice

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Assets, $40,000.
Deposits, $16,000.

Receives money on deposit subject to check and pays four per cent. compound interest on savings deposits.

Interest-Bearing Time Certificates Issued.

We are fully alive to the fact that the secret of our conspicuous success is due to the polite and liberal treatment to our depositors.

H. O. ABSHER, Cashier

Call for one of our little home savings banks for the children.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A Batch of Breezy Briefs Briefly Boiled Down for Hustler Readers.

The tennis players are speaking of arranging for a tournament in the near future. Particulars later.

It is now said that there is some probability of Postmaster Henderson's official head coming under the axe.

The wife of Jim Staley, colored, died in Winston Saturday and the remains were brought up Monday for interment.

If that poll tax is not paid by tomorrow your name is "Mud" and your vote will not be worth much next November.

Have you registered for the bond election? If not, do so at once. Remember the registration will close tomorrow week.

It now looks as though Spring had decided to leave the lap of Winter. It is getting high time, for she has been there quite a while.

Copious showers fell in this section Monday night and as a consequence vegetation was greatly revived—rain was badly needed.

A contract has been given the Carolina Marble & Granite Co., of this place, for the erection of a monument to the late B. F. Foster.

Maj. J. H. Foote's friends will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his recent attack of pneumonia. He has been quite ill.

Three convicts, who were at work on the turnpike between here and Jefferson, were returned to Raleigh Tuesday on account of being unable to work.

It is now said that the extra train between this point and Winston will be put on in about one week. It will leave early in the morning and return late in the evening.

The executive committee for the Eighth Congressional District is called to meet in Wilkesboro next Wednesday to name a date and place for holding the Democratic convention.

Mrs. Caroline Sales died at her home at Clingman Sunday at the age of 78 years. She was laid to rest in the Sales family burying-ground Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Five children survive her.

The prospects for many new buildings this season is very bright. Already contracts for several have been let and more are to follow. Houses are in demand and going at a premium—let's have plenty of them.

There is more trouble ahead for Mr. Blackburn. The antis will hold a convention in Taylorsville June the first and name a Republican to oppose him. Getting the nomination was comparatively easy to getting elected, as Mr. Blackburn will find out.

There is a mighty scramble going on these days among those of the "faithful" who have a fondness for pie to secure the clerkship of the Federal court at Wilkesboro, which will be organized next month, and petitions all the go. Judge Boyd will appoint the clerk.

Pat Anderson, who lives about two miles below town, was given a hearing before Esq. J. S. Forester on Thursday afternoon of last week on the charge of retailing. He was bound over to court in a bond of $200.00. It is said that there are several cases against him.

Convocation in Wilkesboro closed last night. Some able divines were present and of course some able sermons were delivered. It is to be hoped that the visitors enjoyed their stay and had a both pleasant and profitable time.

Mrs. Sallie Greenwood died at her home near Lucile, this county, Tuesday morning at the age of 68 years. The remains were laid to rest at Goshen Wednesday. She leaves four children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her demise.

Don't forget to tell your neighbor about the excursion from this place to Greensboro Saturday, May 7th, to the Jones Stewart meeting. Fare for round-trip only $1.50, giving you plenty of time to take in the city. This is a rare opportunity—the best of the season.

Beginning with next Sunday Rev. C. W. Robinson will make a change in his appointments. He will preach here in the morning and at Wilkesboro in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will also preach in that place in the afternoon at the same hour on the third Sunday.

Mr. J. N. Davis, one of the firemen between this place and Winston, came very near losing his life at Elkin Saturday night. He slipped and fell between the tender and car, but fortunately caught with his left hand, and is now suffering from a badly wrenched arm. It was a narrow escape.

Lexington was visited by a $90,000 fire Sunday night. It is said that the "bucket brigade" could not cope with the flames. This is the same old story, and yet there be those among us who are opposed to the bond issue to secure water works. It is strange, to say the least.

George, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews, died suddenly at their home at Gray Monday from an attack of Bright's disease. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at this place Wednesday. The Hustler sympathizes with the bereaved parents.

In our last issue we inadvertently omitted to mention the fact that Mr. Charlie Hartly had purchased Mr. J. R. Finley's property in the rear of Hotel and will move his family to this place. The Hustler extends to them a hearty welcome. We learn that Mr. Finley will erect a handsome residence in the near future.

Potter Kills Another Man.

Boone Potter, the young Watauga desperado, shot and killed a young man by the name of Hamby in Johnson county, Tenn, near the Virginia and North Carolina lines Friday night and made his escape.

It will be remembered that Potter shot and killed his father about two years ago. In attempting to arrest him a deputy sheriff was killed. Later he was arrested in Montana, brought back to this country and placed in jail at Lenoir, from which place he succeeded in making his escape not long since.

He is a desperate character and there is trouble ahead for the officers.

Since the above was put in type we learn that Potter was killed Saturday morning by a posse in Watauga county. He was truly a desperate character and if he is dead that section, no doubt, feels that the country is to be congratulated.

A fresh lot of cabbage, beans, tomatoes, etc., tomorrow.—E. R. Elmore & Co.

TWO BEAUTIFUL WEDDINGS.

Jones-Clingman.

Wednesday at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Clingman, at Huntsville, Mr. J. Walter Jones, of this place, and their daughter, Miss Marie, were united in marriage, Rev. Mr. Baldwin, officiating. The bride wore a tailor-made traveling tan suit.

Her sister, Miss Jennie Clingman, was maid of honor and Mr. J. H. Foote, Jr., of Winston, was best man. Immediately after the ceremony a most elegant dinner was served in courses, after which the bridal party left for Winston.

They arrived here yesterday afternoon and were given an elegant reception last night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. W. R. Absher assisting in receiving.

Both are quite popular in their respective sections, the bride being one of Yarkin's fairest daughters, while the groom is a young man of sterling worth, and North Wilkesboro's efficient postmaster.

Many handsome and valuable presents were received by them, thus attesting the esteem in which their numerous friends hold them.

The Hustler extends its heartiest congratulations and bids Mrs. Jones a most hearty welcome to our little city.

Partridge-Prevette.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Iredell Prevette, two miles below town, her daughter, Miss Florence Alma, and Mr. Bradshaw Partridge were united in marriage, Rev. W. R. Bradshaw performing the ceremony.

Just before the contracting parties entered the parlor Miss Mattie McNeill sang "O, Promise me" and to the thrilling strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March they marched in. Mrs. A. L. Combs presided at the piano and slyly played during the ceremony.

The bride's sister, Miss Viola Prevette was maid of honor, while the brother of the groom, Mr. Elbert Partridge, was best man.

The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chien. She is one of Wilkes' fairest daughters while the groom holds a responsible position with the Southern Railway. Both have a host of friends and were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents.

They left on yesterday's afternoon train to visit the groom's mother in Jonesboro, after which they will return to their home in Greensboro.

An elegant supper was served to the large number of relatives and friends present.

W. F. Ward Dead.

Mr. W. F. Ward, of Ashe, was in the city the latter part of last week, hale and hearty. Just before leaving for his home Friday he remarked to a friend that he never felt better. Just before he reached Lundy Absher's, on Mulberry, he was stricken with paralysis and died the next afternoon, never having regained consciousness. He was about 66 years old and leaves a wife and three sons, besides a host of relatives and friends, to mourn his demise.

Mr. Ward was a most excellent citizen and will be sadly missed in his section.

He was a brother of Mrs. E. Wallace, of Wilkesboro, and L. A. and A. H. Ward, of Roaring River. Verily, "in the midst of life we are in death."

BANK OF

North Wilkesboro,

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

J. E. FINLEY, Pres.

A. A. FINLEY, Vice-Pres.

R. W. GWYN, Cashier

Conducts a general Banking business; offers its customers every facility consistent with sound banking.

DIRECTORS:

J. E. FINLEY, A. A. FINLEY

T. B. FINLEY, J. T. PEDEN,

R. W. GWYN, R. F. WYATT,

R. L. DOUGHTON.

I am too busy to write an advertisement. Look for me later.—J. C. Henry.

Carolina Marble

....AND....

Granite Company

C. Y. MILLER, Mgr.

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Marble and Granite Monuments, Tombstones, Etc.

Cash Paid For Hides

We will pay the highest market price for Hides,

Green and Salted

C. C. SMOOT & SONS CO.