The North Wilkesboro Hustler.

VOL. X — NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C. FEBRUARY 2, 1906. — NO. 30.

Deposit and Savings Bank,

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

The largest and oldest exclusive Bank in this section of the state.

Under the supervision of the state authorities. Depositary for U. S. and county funds.

Deposits $50,000

Assets $75,000

Our methods and facilities are unexcelled. We pay close attention to the small accounts, knowing that many small accounts grow into large ones. We solicit your business and will do all in our power to please you. We want your deposits and will pay you interest on them. Call and see us. We will treat you right. We pay 4 per cent interest on time deposits. Money to loan on approved security. Correspondence solicited. Any information cheerfully given. Call on us when in town. We are glad to see you whether you deposit with us or not. Respectfully,

Other Inducements

We are constantly adding to our facilities, carefully considering each transaction in detail, and a progressive policy; while we attribute much of our success to the fact that we are mindful of the importance of even the smallest details. Upon this basis we solicit your patronage, both in the savings and checking departments. Save your money, teach your children to do the same thing and deposit it in our bank where it will earn you more money.

With best wishes for a prosperous and happy New Year.

Deposit & Savings Bank.
