Linney or Cowles.
Winston Sentinel, 22nd.
There is always political talk in the Eighth congressional district and Representative Julian, writing to his paper, the Salisbury Post, gives the latest, as follows:
"Former Representative J. A. Ashburn, of Surry county, one of the original anti-Blackburn men of the eighth district, is in Raleigh today. He tells me that Frank Linney, a son of Hon.
R. Z. Linney, and a young lawyer of ability, will be the Republican nominee for Congress in the eighth district in 1908. Here, as elsewhere, Blackburn's friends admit that politically, he has gone down to rise no more in North Carolina. Mr. Ashburn does not believe there will be any opposition to Linney's nomination and in this view a Salisbury Republican with whom I talked today con-curs."

It comes pretty straight to The Sentinel that Mr. Charles H. Cowles, one of the representatives from Wilkes in the present Legislature and who managed Spencer Blackburn's two last campaigns, will likely be an aspirant for the Republican nomination for Congress in "de'ate" next year. He is chairman of the Congressional executive committee.

Republicans Meeting in Washington.
Washington dispatch, 29th.
The interstate league of Republican clubs held a notable banquet here tonight at the Masonic temple. Twenty states were represented in the gathering about the banquet board, and a number of rousing old time Republican speeches were made.

Former United States Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, was to have been one of the principal speakers but he was unable to be present on account of an unexpected business engagement. R. H. McNeil, secretary of the North Carolina league, headed the state's representation at the banquet.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's cough cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's cough cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it is not safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's cough cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with any other. Sold Brame Drug Co.

LINCOLN THE SOUTH'S FRIEND.

Speeches by Statesmen Declare This to be a Fact.

Pittsburg Dispatch.
Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri and Governor Warfield of Maryland, with Governor Stewart, of this State, were the principal speakers at the annual Lincoln day banquet of the Merchants and Manufacture's association of Pittsburg.

Governor Warfield spoke on the topic, "The South as Lincoln Left It, and the South of Today," and in part said that "the South as Lincoln left it," was a country bereft of all save honor. "I firmly believe that had Lincoln lived, he would have given General Lee his systematic co-operation in the task he undertook of healing and binding up the wounds of his countrymen and directing them in the paths of peace and patriotism.

"Lincoln would never have sanctioned the indiscriminate enfranchise-ment of the negro, nor approved of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, nor have tolerated the plundering and outrage of the reconstruction period.

"It was not the elevation of the negro to a social or political equality with the white man that Lincoln advocated. It was the institution of slavery that he disapproved. There is a physical difference between the white and black races, which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality."

Governor Warfield said that the scheme of the politicians who forced the negro enfranchisement to punish the white people of the South and keep them in subjection is returning to plague those who fathered the outrage, as race issue is today more acute in the State of Ohio than it is in any other State in the union.

The speaker then presented statistics of the growth and progress of the South, adding: "You of Pittsburg know better than I do how the South is rising in coal and iron output, and what a magnificent future it faces in these staples of a nation's advancement."

The speaker said the Southern States believed in equal justice to all and are satisfied with the constitution adopted by the founders of the republic, adding: "They are opposing to over-government from Washington and to any and all encroachments upon the rights of States."

Does Coffee disagree with you?
Probably it does! Then try Dr.
Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches old Java and Mocha Coffee.
If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. Its nice even for the youngest child. Sold by J. C. Henry.

Rockefeller and His $32,000,000.

Commoner.
The sum of $32,000,000 must be enormous; indeed, it is great that the minds of men cannot comprehend it. But with all of its immensity, it ought not be large enough to cover the multitude of sins for which the man who gives it to the "cause of education" is responsible, and with all its power it ought not to be strong enough to destroy the living fact that civilization will have failed whenever vice can be transformed into virtue by the contribution of money, and the habitual law-breaker is lost sight of in the lionized hero because he has poured into the laps of educators part of the enormous sums of gold he has taken from a people whose laws he has brazenly defied and whose substance he has systematically plundered.

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine.
Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in midwinter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take.
Children like it. For sale by Brame Drug Co.

GRAHAM ON WAR PATH.

Resents Action of Lieut. Gov. Winston in Appointing Committee.

Raleigh Message Greensboro Record, 30th.
There were lively times in the Senate this morning and the atmosphere was lurid with expectation if nothing else. Senator John W. Graham, author of the Graham passenger rate bill, arose to a question of high personal privilege and proceeded to make some remarks and lots of them. He declared in the most scathing terms that the action of Lieut.-Governor Winston in appointing on the conference committee to adjust the differences between the House and the Senate passenger rate bill the men who were opposed to the Graham bill was treason or words to that effect. He said the will of the Senate had been ignored and that the action of the Lieutenant Governor was an insult to him and every member of the majority by which his bill passed the Senate.
The three members of the conference committee are said to be in favor of a two and a half cent flat rate. He said he had heard the action of the president of the Senate characterized as sharp politics, but he considered it peanut politics. He said he had served in the legislature years ago and had introduced a resolution that resulted in the impeachment of a governor; that the lieutenant governor in this matter had tried and executed himself.

The people of the State, he said, had been remarkably kind to President Winston, who had been guilty of many indiscretions. He wound up by offering a resolution that the conferees on the part of the Senate named Saturday be discharged, but the Senate proceeded with its business and nothing done. It is understood, however, that a caucus will be held tonight to talk over the matter.

Among the bills passed by the Senate today was one to increase the number of challenges on the part of the State in cases less than capital offenses.

The House spent a great part of the day in committee of the whole on the revenue bill and later passed it on its second reading with the understanding, however, that additions or changes would be made when called up on its second reading.

Washington and Lee.
Charlotte Observer.
We have no sympathy whatever with Tom Watson's attempt to place Lee above Washington. Gen. Lee is nearer to us, he suffered more with us and for us, we love him above any other; but the majestic figure of Washington towers out of American history above all other men, and even "the greatest captain the English-speaking people have ever produced" should not be forced into rivalry with him. Such a comparison is peculiarly odious. Gen. Lee revered Washington above all other men in history, and the soul of Washington surely loves the soul of Lee. The homes where in different generations they lived were side by side and they were growths of the same civilization—that civilization which lead had no power to destroy but which is now threatened by gold. Feud between the memories of these great Americans is impossible. Even the professional iconoclasts among us should put off their shoes from their feet when they stand upon the tombs of our mighty dead.

$200,000 STOLEN FROM U. S.

Taken Mysteriously From Sub-Treasury in Chicago—All in Large Bills—Employees Accused.

Chicago dispatch, Feb. 26th.
Somewhere between $175,000 and $200,000 was stolen from the United States sub-treasury last week. The authorities here in Chicago and in Washington have been working night and day on the robbery since it was discovered.

Secretary Shaw was told of the gi-gantic theft when in Chicago last week and was in conference with Sub-Treasurer William Boldenweck and secre service officials.

The money was stolen either a week ago Saturday, the next day, or last Monday. The chances are it was abstracted on Monday. The loss was discovered on Tuesday.

All the money take was in large bills, bills of the denomination of $1-000, $5,000 and $10,000. It was thought to be impossible that such a large sum of money could have been abstracted in face of all the safeguard thrown around Uncle Sam's strong box. The ledger men involved strenuously denied any error and an investigation showed there was no possible clerical mistake to account for the disappearance of the cash.

This brought the inevitable conclusion that the robbery was the only explanation. Just as certain was the deduc-tion that the thieves were employes of the sub-treasury and were at that moment pursuing their daily tasks.

Every man who could have had anything to do with this case was called into Treasurer Boldenweck's office and put through an exhaustive examination and a still more rigid cross-examination. Captain Potter, of the secret service, assisted in the inquisition. All denied any knowledge of the theft and protested their innocence.

Every employe of the office is under surveillance day and night and should one or more of them prove to be the thief or thieves, escape will be impossible. All have reported for work daily since the discovery was made.
Every man, too, is under bond but not to any amount near the lot secured.

That the robbery was committed during working hours is almost a certainty. The plunder could have been concealed in two vest pockets.
Sub-treasurer Boldenweck declared today that it had been definitely determined just where the shortage occured, but he declined to say where it had been traced. He declared himself positive, however, that the money had never reached the vaults.

Shooting in Iredell.

Statesville dispatch Charlotte Observer, 26th.
What may prove a fatal accidental shooting occurred in north Iredell late yesterday evening, when a .38-calibre pistol in the hands of Marcus Williams was discharged, sending a ball into the body of his comrade, Mack Woodward. The shooting occurred in the barn of Mr. Jno. I. Douglas, near Eupeptic Springs, and the young man who did the shooting claims it was purely accidental. Dr. J. E. King was called and dressed the young man's wounds temporarily and Dr. H. F.
Long, of Statesville, was notified. The young man was brought to Long's Sanatorium in Statesville this morning and the physicians tried to locate the ball, which had entered just below the ribs on the right side, taking a downward course.

Young Woodward is about 18 years of age and is a son of Mr. John Woodward. Williams is possibly as young as 16 years.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workman needed to construct the Panama Canal.
Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarial influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles.

Tillman and Hamlet.

Charlotte Observer.

According to The Washington Herald, Senator Tillman has now booked engagements to speak every week-day night and several Sunday nights from the day when this session adjourns until Congress meets again on December 2, except three nights still left open. "For these speeches," says The Herald's story, "he has a contract at $200 a night with a lyceum company that assumes all risks as to connections by rail, rent of hall, and similar details. His first date is Baltimore, on the night of March 4.
March and April will be spent in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina. His tour will extend into the far West in the fall, and during the summer he will be heard in New England and the middle West.
July 4 he speaks at Ashland, Ky. He is free to speak of any subject he may choose so long as his effort is the characteristic Tillman speech. The Senator's honorarium in the grand total is $43,000 for the summer's work—more by some than he could make tending his cotton crop in the Palmetto State." Senator Tillman does well to gather in all the wealth he can this summer, for the already notorious Jeffries Davis' mouth must be watering and he will doubtless come along next summer to contest the belief that the South Carolina Senator is the only negro-hating wild man in captivity. We trust that he will reserve his very best stunts for the North Carolina audience or audiences which will let go their cash to gaze wonderingly upon him. At the close of the season he can earn further large sums by performing for the phonograph record people, who are always on the lookout for first-class specialties, and for the moving-picture films such a furnish the entertainment on Charlotte's War Path. In fact, he may find it to his interest to go regularly into vaudeville, appearing in the Senate at intervals to freshen up his fame by a brain storm. He would not have come around to this form of activity in a single day. All his anti-negro fits, including even the latest, may have been genuine seizures, but they must by this time be closely associated in his mind with their money-making possibilities.
Col. Hamlet, of Denmark, was not the only man in whose madness indications of methods might be detected.

Lost and Found.
Lost, between 9:30 p. m., yesterday and noon to-day, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by flunking at the Brame Drug Store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice.

A Confederate Editor Dead.

Atlanta dispatch, 26th.
J. Henly Smith, who was editor of The Southern Confederacy, a daily paper published here during the civil war died at his home in this city late to-day, aged 78. Shortly after the war he served at different times as editor of the Macon Telegraph and the Savannah News. In 1869 he and Alexander H. Stephens jointly established The Atlanta Sun, which was afterwards merged with The Constitution.
He subsequently engaged in real estate business, from which he retired several years ago.
