

The North Wilkesboro Hustler.

VOL. XVI.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C., DECEMBER 18, 1914.

ISSUED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

NO. 44.

BRIEF ITEMS LOCAL NEWS.

The telephone service on the line up the Yadkin river has been out of use this week.

Dr. H. W. Sears, who lectured at the Amos last night, left this morning.

Rev. J. R. Still will hold services at the Amos next Sunday.

Mercury registered six degrees above zero Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

The telephone service on the line up the Yadkin river has been out of use this week.

The committee here handling Red Cross Seals had to order by telegraph two thousand more seals Wednesday.

Moravian Falls folks are planning a union Christmas tree at the academy there which includes all of the churches.

A. R. Bell was in the mayor's court Wednesday charged with drawing a bed slat on N. B. Dancy and was fined $5.00 and cost.

Platform to the length of four cars has been completed at the east end of the new depot along the tracks for landing freight onto freight cars.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCarter, of Winchester, Kansas, are visiting Mr. J. P. McCarter and other relatives on Hunting Creek, his first visit in 26 years.

Deputy Collector P. E. Dancy and Deputy Marshal J. P. Rousseau made a raid Wednesday night and captured two blockades in the Hunting Creek section.

The Oak factory is now running on full time that is ten hours per day. It shut down about the time of the election and started again about two weeks ago.

Presiding Elder Bennett will hold a quarterly meeting at the Methodist church next Sunday and Monday. Preaching Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at night.

Regarding a true story from the War Between the States printed in last issue of the Hustler the name should have been Veteran Lankford instead of "Swanson."

Roadbed Inspector Martin says the recent delays and freight wrecks on the Southern has been caused each time by the stiffness of new trucks on the cars wrecked.

Mr. J. Hampton Forester came in Tuesday from Pennsylvania. Mrs. Forester and children will probably join him here from Asheville for a few days' visit among relatives and friends.

One of the small girls selling Red Cross seals on the street beats the Rev. Sam. P. on sarcasm. Some one told her that he'd only take 15 cents of a quarter's worth (perhaps stinginess), and in order to ease out remarked that anyhow if more was wanted he guessed she'd come round tomorrow—"Y-a-s, I'll come round again t-o-m-o-r-r-o-w" mimicing him.

Mr. R. E. Simpson, general superintendent of the Northern division of the Southern railway, with headquarters at Richmond, and Mr. J. W. Connolly, of Washington, D. C., chief special agent Southern, spent a few hours in the city yesterday en route to North Wilkesboro on a general tour of inspection. Their special car was attached to the train leaving here at 4:25 p. m.—Winston Sentinel, 23d.

Joe Holloway was sent to the federal penitentiary last week for a term of 15 months from federal court in Greensboro. He is from the Traphill section of this county and has been suspected of having something to do with the death of an old citizen in that township which occurred last winter and over whose body an inquest was held at the time. He has recently been in the Wilkes jail, with his son also, and was tried and convicted of blockading.

TO THE GEMETERY.

Dr. Calvin J. Parlier, Dr. Calvin J. Parlier died at the sanatorium in Charlotte Wednesday evening.

Doctor Parlier was a kind physician and often went to his patients when his own health was involved; his patients, or the home folks of his patients, would go for him and take him seemingly against his protest and when at the hotel in Blowing Rock last summer not able physically to conduct a practice he was picked up in buggy or automobile and hauled away miles.

His mother, Mrs. T. P. Parlier of Moravian Falls his old home village, survives him, with two brothers, Messrs. J. R. Parlier of Moravian, and Mr. C. E. Parlier of this place.

Dr. Parlier's remains arrived here yesterday at noon and were taken to Moravian Falls. The Charlotte Observer says of him:

"Dr. C. J. Parlier, one of the best-known and most beloved physicians of Caldwell county, who for the past many years had lived at Blowing Rock and practiced in the several adjoining counties, passed away at the Charlotte Sanatorium last night at 11 o'clock, where he had been under treatment for some time. Doctor Parlier had been suffering with hardening of the arteries and was brought to Charlotte for treatment November 6th. Everything that could be suggested was resorted to but the highest of medical skill was unavailing. For the past day or two he had been in extremis and his death was but a question of hours. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Scroggs, the latter a sister, were with him when the end came. From time to time various friends in Blowing Rock had journeyed down to see him.

"Doctor Parlier was well past middle age and had never married. He was president of the local bank at Blowing Rock and was a man of means. His greatest possession, however, was the abiding love and affection of all the mountain people with whom he resided and among whom he practiced for so many years.

"The remains will be carried to Moravian Falls, Wilkes county, this morning, where the interment will take place."

Rev. Edward Long, N. Wilkesboro, will preach the funeral today at 1 o'clock.

Spencer Crane, whose home was near Congo, died Saturday night from the results of a stroke of paralysis some weeks ago.

Mr. Felts of Florida Remembers the Hustler by Fruit of the Land.

The Hustler is to have a Christmas this year to be sure. Mr. Augustus Felts has expressed a crate of the yellow fruit of the land of the "Spring of Youth" and of "no-mud" roads, for this is what he says: "I send you today one box oranges by express marked Hustler."

Personals.

Rev. Mr. Cardell, former Presiding Elder of this district, came in Wednesday to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Henderson, in Wilkesboro.

Mr. R. A. Deal will arrive tomorrow to spend Christmas with his family.

A. A. Finley is Mayor Pro Tem. During Holidays.

Mr. A. A. Finley is acting as mayor pro tem during the absence of Mayor E. B. Barkley who has gone to visit home folks in Mecklenburg for about 30 days.

Cox-Frazier.

At Maple Springs Sunday Miss Mary Frazier became the bride of Mr. P. F. Cox. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Willis Byer.

People in this section who have read the Tillet arguments printed in the Charlotte Observer think he has laid out completely his opponents.

LET THE LADIES KNOW AT ONCE

The ladies of the Associated Charities want to again remind you that they need help to carry out their plans for the help of the poor for Christmas.

They have decided not to ask the children of the graded school for help as they are afraid of causing embarrassment to some children that are not able to contribute. They want to avoid this. They want a free will offering from those who are able to give. They want every little boy and girl in North Wilkesboro to have a pair of shoes and some kind of a wrap so they can enter school when it opens on the 4th of January. They are not trying to help a crowd of the unworthy. Every case where they give help is investigated. Everybody who will help in a small way will please phone Mrs. Rogers at the Blue Mont hotel at once. If more convenient you can leave your donation with Mrs. W. R. Wilkins, Mrs. W. R. Absher or Mrs. R. M. Brame, members of the advisory committee.

The marchants who will give a pair of shoes, a hat, a coat, a dress pattern, fruit, candy, toys, or anything will please let the ladies know at once.

Recital at Graded School by Mrs. Absher's.

There will be the usual Christmas event for all children of New Castle township at the Capehart Bungalows at 2 p. m. that day. In the event of inclement weather on that day the distributions will take place the following Sunday at 2 p. m.

Social.

Mrs. J. Clinton Smoot entertained the Friday Afternoon Book Club at her home "Tanners Rest," and notwithstanding the dreary weather, a good number of the members were present.

On arrival the guests were received in the sun parlor where Miss Agnes Walter served hot chocolate. A good part of the time assigned for "Current Events" was profitably spent in giving and receiving information regarding the starving Belgians, the hostesses taking the lead in the planning ways and means for rendering them the best aid.

Miss Julia Finley, two and a half years old, assisted in serving a delicious course of refreshments consisting of ambrosia, nuts, candies, etc. New music on the victrola was greatly enjoyed. The home was decorated with various flowers from their private greenhouses.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blackburn gave a delightful informal party in honor of their guest and relative, Mr. John Edwards, of Elwood, Ind. The house was tastfully decorated in holly and evergreens suggestive of the Christmas season.

A number of young people were present and entered with zest into the amusements of the evening.

Broken hearts, cheerfully made whole, fatefully chose partners for Progressive Rook and the game afforded much merriment. A pleasing feature of the evening was the splendid music rendered by Miss Susie Elms, piano; Mr. W. D. Orders, violin; Mr. John Edwards, cornet.

Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess.

The members of the A. G. T. Club and many invited guests were charmingly entertained Friday evening by Miss Lucy Finley. The house was attractively decorated with evergreens and potted plants. For amusement each guest was asked to unite the past, present and future history of some person in the crowd. As the cards had been fixed so that no one knew about whom he was uniting many ridiculous statements, as well as remarkably true to life, were made both of which caused a great deal of laughter when they were read. Later in the evening delicious fruit salad and cake were served.

A new club called the "Chafing Dish Club" has been organized which promises to be a source of great enjoyment to those who are members. The personnel of the club at present is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Smoot 3rd; Mr. and Mrs. F. Gwyn Harper, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Blair. Their last meeting was held with Mrs. Blair Saturday evening and some interesting games were enjoyed followed by two courses of refreshments.

Mrs. Will F. Blair entertained the Every-Other-Wednesday Club this week and charmingly served a delicious salad course.

Mrs. Reaves at Fairplains in Mud.

Correspondence of the Hustler.

Mrs. Ellen Reaves and family are guests of Mr. Will Baugus having arrived from Schoolfield, Va., Wednesday.

The roads are impassable up this way. Muck! muck! all the way—have not seen an auto today.

COLD GOES AFTER THE APPLE CROP

During the cold weather first of the week it is thought that hundreds and perhaps thousands of bushels of apples have gone to the bad on the Brushy mountain and in this part of the State. Among the losers are Mr. Mr. Joe Gentle and H. H. Moorehouse near the Brushy Mountain Iron & Lithia Springs; Mr. T. J. Tedder 200 bushels. Those of Mr. Moorehouse were packed in barrels.

Mr. Gentle had fortunately sold some of his apples, but had a number of bushels on a loft of his house stored in bushel boxes, which, though just above where a fire-place afforded a big heat until usual bed-time, the apples were frozen hard as walnuts Wednesday morning.

While it is thought that apples in the best apple houses are safe yet hundreds of bushels at least, if not thousands, have gone the way of entire loss to the folks of Brushy Mountain and throughout this section of North Carolina. Along the Yadkin the mercury registered 6 degrees above with hard snow since Sunday.

Personals from Bethel.
