—Linsed oil at Bynum & Headen's. —Carload of long-leaf heart pine shingles for sale by B. Nooe, Jr. —Our thanks to Mr. H. C. Clegg for a basket of nice apples. —Our congratulations to Rev. W. W. Rose. It is a boy. — Fresh grass seeds, clover and rye at O. S. Poe & Son's. —Dr. J. Haughton Thrie, dentist, can be found in his office over Messrs. Womack & Hayes' law office daily. Terms moderate; always cash. —Chattanooga Chilled Plows, Cane Mills and Evaporators at O. S. Poe & Son's. —Call on Mrs. Emily Debern for willow baskets. All sizes and styles of make. Prices from 5c to $1. Pittsboro, N. C. —The County Alliance meets here the 2nd Thursday in October. By that time the shoe factory will start. Have a delegate there to learn how you can get these shoes. —Madam rumor has it that three or four Pittsboro people are tired of "single blessedness." Subscribe for the CITIZEN three months and watch for more definite announcements. —A very nice monument has been erected in the cemetery at the Methodist church here, in honor of the late Joseph Thompson long known in Pittsboro and throughout Chatham.

—Call on Fowler & Terry for heavy and fancy groceries, at the old Burke stand. If you need any canned goods for your table, they keep a full line. They will keep oysters when in season and will serve the same. —The best line of gentlemen's underwear at O. S. Poe & Son's. —Concord Times: The semi-annual meeting of the J. M. Odell Manufacturing Company, of Bynum, Chatham county, was held here last Monday. For the first time since the mill was started it "passed" a dividend to stockholders. —Mr. J. A. Johnson has called a meeting of Oakland township school committee for next Saturday 25th, at Asbury. Let all members of the old committee and as many patrons as can conveniently do so, meet with them at one o'clock. —We are glad to know that our clever druggist, George R. Pilkington is now a full fledged pharmacist or druggist, having obtained his license from the state board last week. So to his qualities as a clever, polite salesman he has added knowledge and skill as a druggist. Call on him. —The "possum" law is not out yet but the boys are getting real anxious for the time to come when they can hunt and the dogs do not know the difference. One young man went a mink hunting but said he could not make his dog run a mink—just would run a "possum."

—Among the horse-swappers on the streets here this week was a woman. This is something new, so far as we know, for this place. Women do almost every kind of work that men do, they act as barbers, ride bicycles, and play baseball, and now here comes a woman to court to swap horses. —For fine millinery go to W. L. London & Son's popular store. They are leaders in styles and prices. —The crowd at court has not been unusually large. The horse-swappers have failed not to put in their appearance, Mr. H. Henderson occupies his regular stand with leather, the soap pedlar was here. The swindling tricksters who occasionally get the people's money have gratified us with their absence. —Mr. Dock Ellington tells us that a gold mine has been found on the lands of P. A. Knight, of this county. Some of the ore has been sent to Washington, D. C., and they are informed there that this ore has gold in a top of it worth over $5. This is on an adjoining plantation to Mr. Ellington on whose lands a copper mine has been found.

—There will be an entertainment given at Hanks' Chapel (colored) on Friday evening Oct. 1st, commencing at 2 o'clock. The exercises will consist of speeches and music. Refreshments of various kinds will be served, and the proceeds of which will go for repairing the church. Come one, come all and lend us a helping hand. Mrs. A. C. Taylor. —Mr. Yates chairman of the New Hope township school committee has called a meeting at Johnson's September the 30th to arrange the school boundaries and get up the census. He earnestly requests the old committees, now school trustees, and all interested patrons to meet with the committee. Let each one who can attend this meeting go prepared to give the census of his school district accurately. It is expected that the county supervisor will be present. —Mr. J. W. McAdams, chairman of Matthews township school committee has called a meeting at Siler City, October the 16 to arrange school boundaries and take the census. The old committees, now designated trustees and patrons of school are earnestly requested to be present as they can add much to the efficiency of this work. A full meeting of the new and old committees could arrange the boundaries and get the census accurately in one day. The county supervisor hopes to be present.

—O. S. Poe & Son's is the place to buy gentlemen's furnishing goods, they have a splendid line of latest style hats, best-dress shirts, scarfs, shoes, &c.

—Last Wednesday night Mr. Turner Morgan, of Orange county, left his house to look after some fodder. As he did not return, search was made and about one o'clock that night he was found dead in his field. About 80 yards from where he was found, his gun and some roasting ears were found in a ditch. It is supposed that he had accidentally shot himself and then went some 80 yards before he died. He was buried at Cedar Grove, M. E. church last Friday.

SUPERIOR COURT.—September term of Chatham superior court convened last Monday—Judge Spencer B. Adams presiding. The following were drawn as grand jurors:

R. C. Connel, foreman; F. M. Hattcock, T. P. Goldston, A. D. Coggins, W. F. Pike, J. A. Mitchei, J. R. Pattishall, M. G. Sparrow, B. W. Fesmire, A. R. Thomas, James Clark, J. H. Fuquay, Robert A. Shields, Wesley Thomas, W. B. Cooper, S. D. Gilmore, J. H. Johnson, Daniel C. Hilliard.

Judge Adams delivered a very able, comprehensive and impressive charge to the grand jury. He dwelt upon their responsibility, assuring them that legislatures and courts cannot suppress crime unless grand jurors do their duty.

He called attention to several crimes, laying special stress upon such as are of most frequent occurrence and as to such as frequently go unpunished.

He warned them that drunkenness is no excuse for crime—it is rather, said he, an aggravation of the crime.

He said that in his brief experience on the bench he had found perjury a crime committed, perhaps, oftener than any other. He emphasized strongly the need of enforcing the law against perjuries. Property, life or liberty has no safeguard when men go into a court of justice and swear to lies.

He emphasized the law against embezzlement and the fact that the last legislature added guardians, administrators and executors to the list of such persons as can be indicted for embezzlement. This law, he said, would have well paid the people for calling together the last legislature if they had done nothing but this.

He alluded to the trusts. Men have the right to combine for legitimate purposes but capital has no right to combine in order to oppress people.

He charged them as to the law to punish a man for cursing on the streets, for selling whiskey to minors, for selling cigarettes to boys under 17 years of age. The law against gambling was urged as very needful.

He charged them that should see to it that road supervisors and overseers do their duty. It is still the duty of overseers to work the roads notwithstanding the convict system.

The following cases have been tried: State vs. A. Smith, defendant plead guilty to retailing without license.

State vs. Ben Hatch, charged with affray. Not guilty.

State vs. J. C. Brady and Irene Branson for F. & A. The jury render a verdict of guilty. J. C. Brady is sentenced to the roads for two years.

State vs. W. D. Welch, for an assault with deadly weapon; not guilty.

State vs. Dock Powell and Eaton Powell; defendants plead guilty.

State vs. J. L. Brooks, carrying concealed weapons. Defendant was fined $5 and costs.

State vs. Andrew Rives for stealing a watch and some money from W. G. Adeock; verdict guilty.

Ambrose Smith for retailing liquor without license was sentenced to 9 months on public roads.

John Crutchfield for stealing an overcoat was sentenced to the roads for 12 months.

T. W. Hinson convicted of an assault was fined a penny and cost.

Andrew Rives was sentenced to roads 12 months for larceny.

Will wyche was acquitted of an assault.

Judge Adams and Solicitor Bynum are proving a terror indeed to evil-doers. Bynum already has a reputation for any man to be proud of and Judge Adams, courteous, fair and unyieldingly firm is praised on every hand by the friends of law and good order, as an excellent judge.

LAMBSVILLE ITEMS. Mr. F. E. Strowd has accepted a position in Graham and left us Monday for that place.

Mr. C. E. Wilson has returned from a visit to his sisters, Mrs. A. A. Lamb and Mrs. C. K. Wrenn, Siler City.

Misses Ella Moore and Carrie Stanford have returned from a visit to their aunt, Mrs. Laura Snipes. Miss Moore accompanied by Misses Mary Snipes and Annie Strowd left Wednesday for Caldwell Institute.

Last Wednesday Mr. Turner Morgan went out hunting, promising to return before night, but, failing to do so, his wife became alarmed and sent out party in search of him. About midnight they found him dead.

It is supposed that he accidentally shot himself, as there was a wound in his arm. BURIED.

LICENSED PHARMACISTS. Sixteen Men and One Lady Successfully Passed.

The following are the names of seventeen persons out the twenty-one candidates before the Board who passed the examination of the North Carolina Board of Pharmacy at its session on the 14th and 15th inst:

Miss Sarah F. Johnson, Southern Pines; Robt. E. Carpenter, Stanley Creek; Chas. M. Kirkman, Smithfield; Alex. W. Fetter, Reidsville; Oren E. Franklin, Wilmington; Bernice C. Moore, Wilmington; Thos. M. Green, Wilmington; Geo. R. Pilkington, Pittsboro; Russell H. Tucker, Reidsville; Oscar B. Whitsett, Reidsville; Albert J. Klutz, Salisbury; Thomas H. Stroud, Burlington; Thomas B. Hunter, Enfield; Edward M. Gayle, Warrenton; Leonard E. Reeves, Benson; Edward T. Hasty, colored, Marshville; Walter L. McEclair, colored, Laurinburg.

Mr. Klutz scored the highest average.

The young lady who obtained a pharmaceutical license was Miss Sarah Johnson, of Southern Pines. She passed her examination very creditably indeed. Her sister, Miss Alice E. Johnson, is already a licensed pharmacist, as is also Mrs. P. K. Kyser, of Rocky Mount. These are the only three ladies in North Carolina who hold certificates from the board.—News and Observer.

DID NOT RECOGNIZE SILVER. New York, Sept. 15.—The democratic state committee refused today to accede to the demands of the free silverites that the principles of the Chicago platform be readmitted. The committee met by authorization of the democratic state convention of last year to nominate a candidate for chief justice of the court of appeals.—Greensboro Telegram $1,000,000 IN GOLD FROM KLONDYKE.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—The long overdue steamer Excelsior, which left St. Michael, Alaska, for this port six weeks ago, but was compelled to put back to Unalaska for repairs, after having broken two blades of her propeller, arrived here this morning with 63 passengers and about $1,000,000 in gold.—Greensboro Telegram.

PAID FOR LAND SIX TIMES. Many instances of wheat farmers in Kansas raising enough wheat this year to pay for their land have been reported, but Claude Matthews, a relative of ex-gov. Matthews of Indiana, has broken the record. He reports today that he purchased forty acres in Cheyenne county last year, paying therefor $80. He had just marketed from this tract 950 bushels of wheat at seventy-five cents per bushel raising an average of twenty-four bushels per acre. Matthews says that after allowing $200 for seeding, harvesting, threshing and marketing, counting also for his own time and labor employed, he is $520 ahead and has raised wheat enough to pay for his land over six times.—Charlotte News.

A Bug in the Man's Ear for Twenty Years. Salisbury World: After carrying a bug in his ear for twenty years Mr. C. L. Shoaf, a baggage master on the Western, had the pleasure of viewing his bugshap last Saturday.

Twenty years ago Mr. Shoaf got a bug in his ear and despite the most persistent efforts of various physicians the bug still remained in his ear, having worked his way so far back that he could not be reached. During the interval that has elapsed since then Shoaf has suffered more or less pain with his ear.

Finally he applied to Dr. Young, of Knoxville, for treatment, and Saturday the bug was removed. Although he had not seen the light of day for 20 years the bug was in a perfect state of preservation and Mr. Shoaf still retains it (though not in his ear) as a souvenir.

INVASION OF BOSTON.

Arrival of 100 Excursionists from the Carolinas and Georgia.

There entered the gates of Boston yesterday morning a delegation of Southern brethren, largely made up of residents of the commercial centres of the Carolinas and Georgia, who came North to have a look at the eastern market, and to incidentally familiarize themselves with the beauties of New England scenery and her numerous historical localities. It is the intention of a few of the visitors to make an extended tour of this section, and to place heavy orders for fall trade, which gives promise throughout the South of being unusually brisk.

The presence of these strangers is due entirely to the enterprise of the Seaboard Air Line, and the excursion to Boston is only one of seven other similar parties to other sections. This movement grew out of the big hurrah on the part of New York merchants to bring buyers from all parts of the country to that city. While the influence was on, the managers of the seaboard thought it an opportune time to do something entirely on its own account, as the application by the Joint Traffic Association to the Southern Passenger Association to co-operate with it making a fare and a third in behalf of country buyers was rejected. The Seaboard excited wide interest throughout its territory and by putting in a moderate excursion rate induced hundreds of southern people to make the northern trip.

Mr. T. J. Anderson, general passenger agent, and Mr. J. H. Brown, Jr., passenger agent at Norfolk of the Seaboard Air Line system, came with the Boston party. In referring to the condition of business in the South they said that the outlook was never better. Everybody felt that the entire country was entering upon a season of great commercial activity; that collections were good, agricultural and mechanical interests were thriving, and that the last had been seen of the depression of the past four years.—Boston Sunday Herald.

Much credit is due to Mr. Anderson, of the Seaboard, for his kindness in arranging "one fare" rates to Norfolk and Portsmouth, at which points excursion tickets can be secured, thus allowing our merchants an opportunity of visiting the very best markets at a nominal cost. A series of "one fare" excursions has just been arranged for September 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14. Tickets good for 30 days.
