BY WHAT VOTE.-Will the Sentinel give

Stephens' Georgia Sun. It is tinctured with the metal of the four years that brought the whole South upon the stool of repentance. Its spirit may suit Georgia. Early Wednesday morning, Wm. Ander-

Again, it is our duty, painful though it be, to inform the Sentinel that the Conservative Sheriff of Jackson county lingers in Wake jail for failure to pay over money collected from honest farmers, and due the State of North Carolina!

Miss Amanda Harris, a young lady of Columbus, Ohio, fell dead of heart disease on Friday night, while conversing at the gate of her father's residence with a young man to whom she was about to be married.

The Mayor of Goldsboro' has offered $500 for evidence sufficient to convict the incendiary who applied the torch to the Hotel. We sincerely hope he may be found, and the rope, after due course of law, applied to

YELLOW FEVER IN CHARLESTON.-There can be no doubt of the existence of this dreadful scourge in Charleston. We are truly sorry it is so; and hope that such steps will be taken in our sister cities, Wilmington

JUDGE CLOUD,-The Asheville Citizen speaking of Cherokee Court, says: "Judge Cloud, who was presiding at Cherokee Court, so far as we were able to learn, was giving satisfaction to all. His honesty and decissiveness in dispatching business could but meet with approbation of the people."

There are ten white and thirty colored prisoners now confined in the jail of this ounty.-Sentinel. Ah! How did you ascertain numbers and not names! Come neighbor, give their names, and see if you won't discover that of B. S. Buchanan, sheriff of Jackson.

THE QUEEN BEE ON THE COW .- "The Cow is a useful animal. She gives us milk to drink and for to make butter. This ha been a bad season for cow ranges. We can make beef of her flesh when she is gone dry. The streams is very low, and our cow fords Eno. When she dies, we will skin her and make leather out'n her skin.'

The Wilmington Journal of the 26th inst. says: With the sad experience of the ravages of yellow fever in our city in 1862, a friend very properly suggests that the clergy, of the city, or the city authorities appoint a day as one of fasting and prayer, upon which our people may humble themselves before Almighty God and pray his protecting care from a return of the detructive ravager.

ROOST HIGH.-Some few years since, couple of candidates for office met, and became quite abusive of one another. No. 1 to No. 2, said something about chickens. No. 2, in a rage, asked if he was accused of stealing chickens. No. 1 replied, "Oh, I said no such thing. I did say, if I was a chicken, and lived near your house, I would roost on the topmost limb of the tallest tree in the grove." A set-to ensued-and the feathers of the two roosters were scattered around considerably.

The Sentinel charges, now, that the Workingmen's Organ was a project of W. A. Smith and certain radicals. Error, as usual. Such men as Needham Broughton. Esq., of this city, will not hesitate to tell the writer in the Sentinel, that his assertion is false. Four printers in this city, all voting with the Democratic or Conservative party, are the parties who proposed, (and who have not abandoned the idea,) to publish the Workingmen's Organ. It will live to grind the funeral dirge of the Sentinel. "Be aisy; your turn will come."

RE-UNION OF THE PEOPLE.—On Saturday last there were two barbeoues in this county one at Pleasant Grove, the other at Mc-Cullers'. We learn that the best of fare and best of feeling prevailed at the latter place, had the good fortune to be present at Pleasgood style. We left at a reasonable hour, and received the congratulations of our entire community upon the great improvements in our personel, the effects of our three hours' sojourn in the country. Some pledges herself to increase this sum to $25,said we looked like an older man; others | 000. The committee appointed to canvass said, like a jolly butcher. We learn from the Wilmington Star that a colored man named Charles Wassent attempted to shoke and rob Daniel H. Russell, on Saturday night, while Russell was on his way home, but was foiled by the application of several pistol shots at the hands

A friend writes us, that the Hero of Eno, in attempting to place an Italian Queen Bee in a hive of common bees, was stung on the lip, and in his attempt to slap the intruder from his face, let go the Queen! As her majesty flew away, "Eno" "cussed," and said he'd hold Phillips responsible.

Don't use IT!-The new brand of Tobac co, known as the Ku Klux, is said to be a very dangerous compound of yerbs. A friend who has been smoking it for only two weeks, swears that he is about to "cut" two horns, one over each of his eyes. We hope the next legislature will pass an act "agin" all such stuff.

The hero of "Eno" is said to be of a somnambulistic turn, and occasionally talks in his sleep. His last talk in the wee hours, and while yet his head upon its downy pillow slept, was something on the order of the Bard of Ramkatt, thusly:

> "The Bee, the Bee! Proud Queen of Italy, Back to the banks of "Eno" fly!

No Leaguer fear! hither hie!"-The poetry was cut short by the ghost of Phillips, who, in thunder tones, seemed to "Hold me responsible !- 'sponsible-

Now and Then .- On a former occasion ertain official acts of Judge Brooks were applauded because they seemed to take part with the Sentinel. Now, Judge Brooks, for exercising his authority in binding over certain belligerents for making an attack on the U. S. District Attorney, in his, the Judge's presence, is "berated" by the Sentinel, as having no authority. But what matters if this disturber of the peace of the State approves or disapproves! It is the "worm wood" in the Hunchback family, and its happiness depends upon the amount of trouble it can stir up. Alas, for such d.-

The Goldsboro' Messenger says, "the state of society in Goldsboro-in Wayne countyall around us has become sadly depraved;' and worse, than this, as from the Messenger, we quote: "The very heart of society, the festering with putrid sores, the morbid effect of hatred, malice and ill-will,"

Speaking of the "working men's" artieles in the papers of this city, the Hillsboro' Recorder says

"If either of those city Editors has even ulled off a token of his paper in forty-six minutes, or if they have ever sweated at the lead of night over 'pulling off' on an old Washington Press their 'outside and inside issue,' then they may know something of what they are talking about. YADKIN RAILBOAD.-From the following which we take from the Salisbury Examinr, it would seem that the friends of this enterprise are hopeful of its final construction: "In pursuance of previous notice a meeting of the citizens of Rowan interested in the Yadkin R. R., was held at the Court House in Salisbury on Saturday last. Mr. J. W. Hall, presided. Maj. Townsend, President of the Cheraw and Salisbury R. R., being present by appointment addressed the meeting, at length, upon the great importance of the proposed Railroad connection between Salisbury and Cheraw, and urged the necessity of prompt action to secure the charter and organize the company. It will be remembered that, by the terms of the charter of the Yadkin R. R., $50,000 of stock must be subscribed and 5 per cent of this sum paid in, before the Company can organize. Major Townsend pledged Stanly and Anson, for one half of this amount, provided Rowan would raise the balance. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions at once and to report to the meeting at where the crowd was large. Nothing of a 8 o'clock p. m., to which hour a recess was political character was introduced. We taken. FIRE ON SOUTH RIVER.-The Newbern Times learns that the house of Mr. John Rich on South River with a large amount of turpentine was destroyed, by an incendiary fire a few days since. The fire was set in the absence of the owner, and spread from the house and out buildings to the adjacent woods where turpentine in barrels ready for market was scattered about. Amount of loss unknown, but estimated at low figures must be large, as Mr. Rich makes a large crop of turpentine yearly.

Grant has recently sent additional troops to North Carolina. Carrow, the United States Marshal, with a cowhide—the new emblem of his authority—can arrest any man in any portion of the State without troops or posse to aid him.

This display of troops is intended to justify it next year when Grant's election comes off, at which time, we venture to predict, there will be a greater display of troops than ever known before at the polls.

The "emblem of authority" alluded to by the Sentinel, was once one of the instruments of torture in the hands of the Ku Klux, and by a member of that murderous gang, delivered over to a United States officer. We doubt not, however, in the hands of such a man as Col. Carrow, he could make a dozen of the craven hearted wretches surrender at will. If the Ku Klux continue, as heretofore, to take courage from the apologies which the Sentinel persistently offers for their acts of violence, the people of North Carolina may expect the President to send us all the troops necessary to restore law and order in North Carolina. Forbearance is at an end. Recent developments having satisfied the public mind that sworn members of the Ku Klux Klan occupy seats in the Legislature, what security have the authorities and the law-loving people, that the Constitution will receive the support of such doublesworn legislators. May we not conclude that such characters are traitors exposed, and that their whole aim will be treason! Is it not a fact, that after they solemnly swear to support the Federal and State Constitutions, they do so with a mental reservation, and hate in their hearts the government of their country? It looks so; hence we are not surpised that they are Ku Klux, and we are not surprised that the General Government has determined to put them down at any and all hazzards. The Sentinel should well weigh its words, in a crisis like the present. What constitutes treason?

From the Winston Sentinel we cull the following items of news:

"Mr. J. D. Davis, who has not been heard from since he left home some two months ago, to visit Germany, has written to his family that he expects to be at home about the 25th inst. His many friends will be glad to hear that he is all right,"

"Wesley Carlisle was lodged in Stokes jail on last Tuesday for an attempt to commit a rape upon the person of a Miss Barr, a daughter of George Barr, Esq."

We learn that one day last week, an old gentleman, Eli Hartman, living in Davie county, in attempting to move a pile of caught his foot in the pile in some way and fell, breaking the leg near the ankle joint, the end of the broken bone protruding though the skin. A physician was called in who amputated the limb, but was unable to save the old man, who died in a short time after the operation was per-

Dr. Jones was called in and amputated the leg above the knee, but the shock was so severe the young man died next day.

We learn that the barn of Geo. Eller, o. Davidson county was consumed by fire on last Thursday night, together with five horses, two wagons and two buggies, and a lot of grain and provender. Loss about $3,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. From the Hillsboro' Recorder the follow-

DEATH OF A PRINTER .-- The Wilson Plaindealer makes this announcement, "It becomes our painful duty, to announce the death of Mr. Joseph D. Barbee. THAT COWHIDE!-The cowhide held in the hand of Capt. That's the history of the cowhide : more of which will be heard next month before his Honor Judge Brooks, of the U.

GREAT FALLS MANUFACTURING COMPA-NY .- The Observer, published at Rockingham, N. C., says one of the best appointed nanufacturing establishments to be found n the entire South, is situated on Falling Creek, within the corporate limits of our own, and known by the name and style of The Great Falls Manufacturing Company." The style of the goods made is not surpassed by the products of any mill in the country.

The Battleboro' Advance contains the following announcement of the death of Mr. E. G. Harris, brother of the Editor of the Advance: "Mr. E. G. Harris, a young Druggist of this place, breathed his last in Jones county, N. C., on Tuesday morning, the 22nd inst. He left here on Monday the 14th, on a short tour of recreation, intending to pass a few days with his brother who resides in Jones county, about twelve miles from Newberne, and after that to visit Morehead city and Beaufort. On Thursday, after reaching his brother's residence, he was attacked with Bilious Fever which seemed to be yielding, to medical treatment until Monday afternoon about 6 o'clock, when he was taken with a Congestive Chill, which terminated fatally the next morning."

TOBACCO STAMP CANCELLATION .- In reply to inquiries made by Supervisor Corwin, at Cincinnati, Ohio, Commissioner Douglass states that it is the duty of the local revenue officers, and primarily of assistant assessors and detectives who may be designated and specially charged with the oversight of the business of manufacturing and selling of tobacco and cigars, with the packages before them, and with every opportunity of making a thorough and careful examination and inspection, to determine in such cases whether the cancellation is or is not proper, whether it conforms to the requirements of the law and regulations, or fall short of such

No stamp upon a wooden package of tobacco is properly cancelled unless a portion thereof is sunk into the wood of the box by steel die, so as to leave an indentation into the wood. The mere cutting of a stamp with a sharp instrument, or a slight indentation of the stamp without the breaking of the paper or penetrating the wood of the box do not answer the requirements of the law The date of cancellation, or, as the case may be, that of the manufacturer or proprietor must not be omitted on the stamp. "Cu packages" of tobacco, where all the marks and brands are gone which are required for identification, may properly be seized, and the owner or possessor required to furnish evidence that the tax has been paid, or failng, submit to a forfeiture of such tobacco.

MAD DOGS-CURE FOR THIER BITE. There is not a town or city in the Union, of the same size, can produce as great a number of dogs, as our own dear city of ate day, in the whole seven, for the celebra-Oaks. It is our opinion, that take them altogether, bull, newfoundland, setter, pointer, poodle, rat-tarrier, common cur, fice, of every species, and crosses without a name, that we have at least seven hundred. Out of this number, it is reasonable to suppose that a few may "run mad," and it is be feared, somebody will be bitten. In the latter event, we propose the following remedy-because we have confidence in it-and because we find it in the Hillsboro' Recorder-and it is possible, that it would not have appeared in that paper, without a reason. If Evans is acquainted with Franklin Dyre, why didn't he say so? But we won't argue that point just now, as somebody may be waiting for this very remedy:

Franklin Dyre, a highly respectable and intelligent farmer of Galena, Kenf county, Maryland, gives the following as a sure cure for the bite of a mad dog. As will be seen, he has tested it with the most gratifying results:

Elecampane is a plant well known to most persons and is to be found in many of our gardens. Immediately after being bitten, take one ounce of the root of the plant-the drug stores, and was used by me-slice or bruise, put it in a pint of fresh milk, boil down to a half a pint, strain, and when cold drink it, fasting at least six hours afterwards. The next morning, repeat the dose prepared as the last, and this will be suffi-cient. It is recommended that after each dose nothing be eaten for at least six hours. I have a son that was bitten by a mad dog eighteen years ago, and four other children in the neighborhood were also bitten, they took the above dose, and are alive and well to this day. And I have known a number of others who were bitten and applied the same remedy. It is supposed the root con-tains a principle which, being taken up by the blood in its circulation, counteracts or neutralizes the deadly effect of the virus of hydrophobia.

I feel so much confidence in this simple

A MARRIAGE ON SUNDAY .- By special invitation, we reported at the office of Squire Whitaker, on Sunday morning last, at 10 o'clock, to witness the marriage of Joseph Womack and Lizzy McClean, colored. These parties reside in the country-are quite young,-they are hardworking, industrious people, and were well pleased with the announcement, that they were "man and wife." The ceremony was performed with all due solemnity, and the 'salutation" of the bride by the groom, gave evidence that these "two willing souls" intended to live together "till death do them part."

INGENIOUS ROBBERY.-Missouri scoundrels are ingenius in their robberies. Two smooth-faced youths near Greenville, wishing to plunder an unfortunate Irishman who had just been paid about $100 wages for hard work, one of them attired himself as a woman, and the other put on a pair of whiskers, and claimed to be Justice of the Peace. The Hibernian was gotten drunk; MEAL—per bushel, the boy in the feminine attire made love to him: the Celt was smitten, and asked to be married. He gave all his money to his bride, and then went to sleep. His wife changed her costume, and so did the justice, and both helped the sober Irishman to look for his money, as may be supposed all in ROBESON COURT, THIS WEEK .- The Wilmington Star, of Friday last, says Sheriff McMillan, of Robeson county, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of taking charge of the prisoners, Pop endine and Wm. Goins, now confined in our county jail, and conveying them to Lumberton, where they are to stand their trial before the Superior Court which meets in that place next week. Pop Oxendine, it will be remembered, is implicated in some of the outrages committed in Robeson and is believed to have had some connection with the Lowrey gang. Wm. Goins is the mulatto who shot and killed one of his own color, with whom he got into a difficulty at Scuffletown some months since, and was brought here for safe keeping.

We are not surprised to hear our cotemporary of the Newbern Times asking that simple justice, according to the evidence, be meted out to the Ku Klux who are to be tried in this city next month. So, will every lover of law and order say. Only those who fear justice talk and write against the efforts being made to restore the good name, in a measure gone, to the State.

Who asks for the blood of the innocent Not the law-not the loyal people. No; we would rather let go a score of guilty ones, than knowingly punish an innocent man.

But the time is at hand. The race has peen a wild and a desperate one. Here, the chase after the poor black and the loyal white man must terminate, and the Constitution which was adopted as a part of the bargain to the restoration of our State to her place in the Union, must and shall be respected. The rights, religious and political, of all, "without regard to race or previous condition," shall be protected. If men, high in social position, have violated the fundamental law of the land, they must suffer, nevertheless. When it is made plain that neither money or high social position will screan a man from punishment, where it is deserved, then we may look for peace. That time, is fast approaching.

ARE SUNDAY MARRIAGES ILLEGAL?-This is a question which has been gravely considered and discussed, recently, in a Northern State, and we think, by men learned in the law, decided in the affirmative. Property, the possession of which was claimed by right of marriage, introduced this queston to the Courts, and as the marriage was performed on the Sabbath day, the contract was declared null and void, upon the ground, that contracts cannot be entered into on the day of rest. We look upon the decision as foolishly unjust, uncalled for, and unwarrented, and calculated to work an evil in society, among the discontented, resulting in the disolution of many a household, in the locality where the decision is held as law. To our mind, Sunday is the most approprition of the rites of matrimony. "Whom God hath joined together, let no man put assunder"-and "the Sabbath was made for man' -and, both men and women, when they enter the marriage state, believe they enter upon a state of bliss and happiness-and here could not be a better day chosen, for entering the realms of happiness, than the Lords' Day. We are an advocate for Sunday splicing.

KINCHIE ANN EDWARDS, INTERVIEW ED.-We learn from the Sentinel of the 26th inst., that its Editor voluntarily visited the State Pen one day last week, and while there interviewed that old thief, and harlot, Kinchie Ann Edwards, who is serving out a term of two years as a reward for a life of as low-down meanness, as ever falls to the lot of any human creature. The Sentinel says "she was very penitent, and declared that she would never curse a judge or any other person if she could get out of that place." Kinchie never cursed the Judge when he was about to pass sentence on her. She was, however, a little independent, and green root is perhaps preferable, but the She was, however, a little independent, and dried will answer, and may be found in our when told by His Honor, that he would have to give her a good long time to reform in, and would send her for two years to the State prison, her only reply, was, "I'd as leeve go thar as any where else."

But, if the forked tongue wretch thinks she is suffering for a contempt of Court, what a warning it should prove to those out of the Penitentiary who indulge in words, not more refined, against the entire Judiciary of the State, from the Superior Court to the Federal, the latter included. Kinchie Ann is in the right place; her name may be found on our criminal docket for a long term of years,-reaching back to the period when she first entered upon a disolute life. remedy that I am willing you should give my name in connection with this statement. STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, WAKE COUNTY. Superior Court. Joseph D. Cavarly,

A summons having been issued from the office of the Superior Court of Wake county. for the defendant Milton S.
