The State University.

We observe a disposition among the papers of the State to take up the affairs of this institution and urge its friends to be recognized, re-endowed, and once more set going.

Every intelligent man in the State must wish to see the University re-established. For though many minds are undoubtedly in favor of it, and there is no great diversity of opinion upon the best modes of education...

The University is a failure in its present hands. There must be a change. But how? The State Constitution makes no provision for a forcible change of its officers.

It is always taken for granted that the University is a failure in its present hands. There must be a change. But how? The State Constitution makes no provision for a forcible change of its officers.

On the 15th of June last, the Sentinel asserted that the whipping of J. M. Justice and the sacking of the Star office, in Rutherford, was not because of politics.

The editor of the Sentinel puffs himself highly as a lawyer. Does he remember the mistake he made in issuing the 8 per cent. North Carolina bonds?

The Chicago Disaster. The awful fire is at length quenched. It is something of a relief to know that the destruction is frightful. Five thousand families are homeless and penniless.

It is sickening to dwell upon this terrible calamity which has overwhelmed the splendid metropolis of the West. The scenes from which the curtain is already lifted are appalling—those which remain yet veiled and obscure may possibly be still more fearful.

But, like the fabled phoenix, it will speedily rise from the ashes. Chicago would not be Chicago if it sank and stood again in ruins. It will not be dismayed. The same magnificence of last week will recreate the great metropolis more splendid than that which has disappeared as if by a horrid vision.

Foster Blodgett, says the Washington Republican, has got into trouble again. He has been arrested on a series of charges, and is now in the penitentiary, a place for which he seems to be entirely qualified.

For the Carolina Era. Why is It?

Why is it that Republicans, elected by the people of the State, fill many of their subordinate positions by Democrats? If we are to judge by this conduct, that the people prefer Democrats to fill places of honor and profit, then the people must elect men of a party to carry out their wishes.

W. WHITAKER, Editor. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19th, 1871.

Local, State and General Items.

Mr. A. Lamont, former citizen and merchant of Wilmington, died in Clinton a few days since.

Brigham Young is having trouble. He has been told that a plurality of wives will not be tolerated. The U. S. have taken the old sinner in hand.

Two of the men arrested for Ku Kluxism in Spartanburg, South Carolina, are said to be respectively eighty-one and seventy years of age. So old in trespasses and sins and don't know better?

The Sentinel says he went to the Henderson Fair, and after learning the "pedigree of the horses," proceeded to "inspect the ladies." How the ladies of Henderson will like the classification, we can easily imagine.

Slavery in Islam is to be abolished in January, 1872, and the masters are to be paid for their bondsmen. So irresistibly the great idea of Human Freedom is advancing to its ultimate victory over all the oppression on the earth.

The Wilmington Journal brags over some pea nuts raised in the garden of Mr. L. M. Williams. We'll put Tim Lee's seven-seven ears on a stalk—against any thing in the crop line, from the Cape Fear region.

A Ku Klux Democrat was walking the streets of Charlotte a few nights since—murmuring to himself; and was heard to say—'bad! bad! bad! That Tammany business; then the Convention failure; and now these d—n ku klux convictions look squally enough!'

A newly invented fly paper in Titusville is covered with nitro-glycerine, glue and molasses. The flies, attracted by the molasses, alight and are stuck fast by the glue. Should they get away, they proceed to rub their legs together in ecstasy, when it is said, the friction causes the nitro-glycerine to explode, blowing them to atoms.

These infamous Leagues, hold secret meetings, plan and execute robberies, burglaries, and other crimes, and yet because they vote the Radical ticket, an infamous administration of the National Government permits them to go on!

That's a heavy job; of course the American is perpetrating one of its 'funny-antics, and wouldn't, for the world, be understood as being in earnest.

The papers throughout the entire country continue to discuss the Chicago fire, and other fires of recent occurrence, in the North and Northwest. The Chicago fire had its origin in a stable, where a woman was engaged milking a cow by the light of a kerosene lamp. Kerosene is dangerous, use it as you may.

With the determination of Judge Watts to relieve the two Dockets of the immense number of cases now left over on them, we think we may promise for the Spring Term, a short session and light work.

The Salem Press furnishes the following items of news: A shooting affair occurred in Liberty, just above Weston, on Saturday last, which might have resulted seriously. A negro armed with a shot gun, loaded with ball, deliberatedly shot a white man who was passing, and fired, the ball grazing the leg of one of the parties.

A friend informs us that a difficulty occurred at Mocksville during Davie Court, between Mr. W. B. March, and a man named Call, in whose case the latter was the plaintiff and the former the defendant.

A KILLING FROST.—We learn that the frost of Sunday week was very severe in portions of Forsyth, Stokes and Yadkin. One of our river planters informs us that it ruined the tobacco in his vicinity, and, in fact, almost everything else that was susceptible to its action.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.—'Old Mrs. Smith' died recently in Surry county, at the advanced age of 112 years. She leaves a son, 87 years old, hale and hearty, to mourn her loss.

Tobacco Barn Burned.—On Saturday evening last, the tobacco barn of Mr. Calvin Crews, some five miles north-east of Salem, was destroyed by fire, together with about one thousand pounds of tobacco.

From the Asheville Pioneer, we clip the following State news: SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Wednesday last, Mr. Thos. Young, who was on Cane Creek in this county, met with a serious, if not fatal, accident. While engaged in gathering apples, the limb of a tree which he ascended, twenty-six feet from the base thereof, broke, and he was precipitated to the hard ground beneath, striking upon his back, and bruising him so seriously that his recovery is rendered extremely doubtful.

ACQUITTED.—On Friday last, in the Superior Court of McDowell county, held at Marion, W. H. Deaver of this place, was arrested for killing J. A. Thompson on the 15th of last July. After hearing the testimony, the solicitor decided to prosecute the defendant for manslaughter. Messrs. Merimon, Bowman and Fleming appearing for the defendant, and Messrs. Candler and Erwin for the prosecution. After a careful hearing the Judge charged the jury, who retired, and after some time returned a verdict of not guilty.

NEW POST OFFICE.—By the influence of the Hon. John Pool, a new post office has been established in Chatham county, N. C., to be known as "Ore Hill." Dr. A. B. Chapin has been appointed post master.

GOOD ENOUGH.—The Elizabeth City Courier gets off the following: Somebody has started a story, which is going the rounds of the press, of a man who alive after having had his neck broken. We trust none will be so foolish as to suppose that it is literally true. It is nothing but an allegorical description of the Democratic party.

MAJ. HENRY M. MILLER.—We are glad that Col. Carrow has been so fortunate as to secure the services of Maj. Henry M. Miller as one of his Deputies. Mr. Miller is intelligent, brave and trustworthy, and we are sure he discharges his duties satisfactorily to the Marshal, and the laws of his country.

THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN.—This paper has been revived, the first number of which is now before us. Its typographical execution is faultless, and its editorials and selections, excellent—under the editorial care of the Rev. N. Aldrich, Rev. Dr. Fox and Rev. W. Hubbard, Charlotte, N. C.

THE STATE OF AFFAIRS IN CHICAGO.—From telegraphic despatches from the ill-fated city, we learn that forty-one persons were shot in making arrests on the night of the 10th, and it is reported that 90 bodies have been recovered from the ruins, and a large number have died from exposure. Cooked provisions in large quantities are daily reaching the city from different parts of the Union, all of which is received by the Relief Committee and properly distributed among the destitute.

LOWREY AT HIS TRICKS AGAIN.—We notice, says the Wilmington Star, that the notorious Henry Berry Lowrey has been tricking Uncle Sam's boys again. A few days since he passed down Lumber river in a bateau with full view of a squad of twenty-three "boys in blue," who fired upon him. He simply "squat" in the bottom of his boat, careening it over so as to constitute an amateur breastwork to protect him from their bullets, and "padded" about his business.

Noah Willis, charged with the killing of Thomas Nelson, in Newbern, a few days since, had a hearing before Justice Palmer, of that city, on the 11th inst. The Times says: "The Justice examined the most important witnesses, and reduced their testimony to writing. After fully hearing the case the Justice decided that as the accused had already been committed by a proper officer, and then held by the Sheriff on a mittimus, issued by the Coroner, that he could take no action in the premises, and the accused was therefore remanded to jail, to await his trial at the next term of the Superior Court."

FIRE.—Thursday morning, about 8 o'clock, Tucker Hall was discovered to be on fire, in front room, next to the clothing establishment of Robt. Andrews. Our Fire Companies were promptly on the ground, and the continuous streams of water sent up, together with the aid of that most efficient arm of the fire brigade, the Hook and Ladder Company, the fire was soon extinguished. The fire originated, we learn, from a defective flue. Loss considerable—a few hundred dollars will make all repairs.

Again, and for the hundredth time, are our people appealed to, to give those noble fellows, our firemen, all the water they ask. Shall we wait until our city is laid waste, and then provide for future contingencies? Let the election, so long delayed, be forthwith held—Raleigh will authorize the borrowing of sufficient money, to secure her against destruction by fire.

MARTYRDOM.—Some men, falling by the usual way, to attain to eminence, seek to become martyrs, and set up the yell of persecution in order to enlist sympathy. No disrepute is attached to this in any way. It is a subject which has been treated in our columns, and we need not repeat it here.

The papers throughout the entire country continue to discuss the Chicago fire, and other fires of recent occurrence, in the North and Northwest. The Chicago fire had its origin in a stable, where a woman was engaged milking a cow by the light of a kerosene lamp.

A GREAT NATIONAL EVIL.—It is confessed that there exists in various portions of this Union, organizations known as Ku Klux, whose chief aim is to obtain political power by means of intimidation, and a resort to cruel measures.

THE ELECTIONS ON THURSDAY LAST. The bottom has fallen out of the Democratic party! We felt sure of it all the time, and we announce the result, that the Republican party—the party of the Union and of law and order—has carried Pennsylvania by five fifths, and Ohio by two thirds, and Michigan by a large majority.

If the reported gains in Pennsylvania should be confirmed, the Republican majority in the House will be eight tenths, and in the Senate three tenths, thus insuring the election of a Republican Senator for six years.

A dispatch from the chairman of the Republican State Committee of Ohio says that the returns received insure a Republican majority of twenty-one in the Legislature on joint ballot, and that the majority will reach about thirty thousand.

These are great results. They overshadow any overwhelming Republican victory in 1872. The meaning of these victories is—First, Confidence in the Administration of President Grant. Second, Want of confidence in the Democratic party.

The Democratic presses are in doubt over these results. They have "nothing definite" from several places. This is natural. They do not like to "give it up," but their readers will learn after a while that the Democrats have been badly beaten in the States referred to.

The Republicans have only to hold the reins steadily, to be on the alert and cultivate union and harmony in their ranks, to carry the country by a large majority as crowned their efforts in 1868.—Washington Chronicle.

DEATHS. DIED, near New Hill P. O., on Wednesday evening, about 4 o'clock, widow ABIGAIL, or ABBY WIMBERLY, aged 106 years. Friends and relatives must have nature's privilege of weeping for their mother dead.

DIED, in Halifax county, N. C., on the 5th instant, OSCAR SMITH, colored, brother of Henry Smith, and former slave of Sylvester Smith, Esq., of that place.

DIED, at his residence in Alamance Co., N. C., on the 3rd inst., GABRIEL B. LEE, in the 88th year of his age. He died as he lived, respected and beloved by all who knew him.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. PERSON COUNTY. In the Superior Court. John W. Hunt and wife, Petition for partition of real property against John Bailey and others, party.

It appearing to the Court that James Bailey, John Bailey, William Satterfield, James Nelson, heirs at law of Mary Nelson, dec., and G. B. Southernland and wife—the defendants in public sale of the lands and tenements of the County of Person, within the limits of this State: It is therefore ordered that publication be made for six successive weeks in The Carolina Era, notifying the defendants to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of said County, at his office in Roxboro', in six weeks from the date of the publication, and plead, answer or demur to the said petition, the same will be heard ex parte as to them, and judgment granted according to the prayer of the petitioner.

Given under my hand, and the seal of said Court, at office in Roxboro', this 14th day of October, 1871. Clerk Superior Court.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. PERSON COUNTY. In the Superior Court. Enoch Moore, Samuel Moore, Henry Moore, W. R. Moore, J. R. Moore, T. A. Moore, James Moore, and others, Petition for Order to Sell Land.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court in the above entitled cause, is a non-resident of the State of North Carolina, it is ordered by the Court that publication be made for six successive weeks, notifying the said Henry Moore to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of said County, at his office in Roxboro', within the time prescribed by law, and in order that these Ku Klux may reap the benefits of their labors.

Members of the South Carolina Legislature are known to belong to the Klan, and already several arrests have been made, and others will be made, with the proof, undeniable.

We say, then, the Nation, as well as localities, is suffering violence at the hands of the Ku Klux—the laws, State and National, are being violated—women, like cattle, are being driven and shot down, on account of their political opinions, and few feel safe in their own homes.

We look forward with anxiety to a successful result to this great rebellion. We are anxious to see order restored, and the industrial pursuits of the land re-established. We are, therefore, prepared to bless the labor of the hard-working people of the South.

A PLUCKY FAMILY WHO WALK TWENTY-FIVE MILES.—The Kansas City Times has the following: Last night about seven o'clock, we were shown a man and his family, consisting of his wife and six children, who had walked the distance from Lone Jack to Kansas City, something over twenty-five miles. They all appeared greatly fatigued, in fact, nearly worn out from the long and wearying journey. The children, particularly, were very much exhausted. Quite a number of curiously inclined people were busily engaged watching the primary manner in which they were prepared to make their journey comfortable for the night, and some more liberal hearted than the rest, proposed that if they had not sufficient means to go to the hotel for the night they should take up a collection for them. When the man suddenly interrupted them by asking what day of the month it was. "Well, you see, I did go, and I look kindly, too, and afore we got back home we got married, and that showman's name was old John Robinson, and Mandy and me took a pledge if ever old John came within forty miles of us, we was goin' sure. No, gentlemen, keep your money and buy tickets for John Robinson's show, as I intend doing with me."

Watch out for the Grand Street Parade of old John Robinson in Raleigh on Saturday, Oct. 21st, 1871.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA. WHEREAS, a most destructive and calamitous fire has recently occurred in the City of Chicago, by which it has been laid in ashes and over one hundred thousand inhabitants have been deprived of homes and reduced to poverty and want; and whereas, it is the Christian duty of the benevolent and charitable, as I know it will be the pleasure of all such in North Carolina, to sympathize with and extend aid and succor to the unfortunate victims of this terrible calamity.

Now therefore, with full confidence in the earnest co-operation of the good people of North Carolina, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of the State, do appeal to all who can be moved by generous impulses and sympathies for suffering humanity, to adopt such measures without delay, as will afford material relief in this their time of need, to our fellow countrymen, who have been so sorely afflicted. Done at the City of Raleigh this 13th October, 1871.
