KU KLUX INSULTS—MORE ATTEMPTS AT INTIMIDATION.

United States Flag Rotten-Egged by Democrats at Yanceyville and Milton.

ATTEMPTS TO GET UP A RIOT TO MURDER JUDGE SETTLE AND COL. HENDERSON.

We learn from The Greensboro' New North State that on Friday night, June 21st, the Republicans of Milton held a mass meeting in the public streets, in front of the store of Samuel James.

A LARGE UNITED STATES FLAG, upon which was inscribed the names of President Grant and Hon. Thomas Settle, was hanging over the heads of the speakers.

ROTTEN EGGS WERE THROWN AT THE AMERICAN FLAG

by the infuriated Democrats. One of these stale eggs struck a leading Democrat, a delegate to the State Democratic Convention held at Greensboro'.

RING LEADER

in throwing out insulting and abusive threats to Judge Settle and Col. Henderson.

But the spirit of misrule in Caswell county is not confined to Milton. At YANCEYVILLE, THE NEXT DAY, Saturday, June 22, the same speakers addressed a Republican meeting. The meeting was held in a large tobacco warehouse, owned by Mr. Potat.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

George M. Arnold came forward and reported the ticket agreed upon; after which he introduced Judge Settle as the first speaker. The Judge had not proceeded far, when it was evident that there was a systematic plan arranged to prevent his speaking.

CLUBS, KNIVES AND PISTOLS

were freely drawn and brandished. These weapons, no doubt brought to use upon Republicans, were employed by the Democratic belligerents to intimidate each other.

NOTHING TO DO WITH THE RIOT.

It was none of their fight, as Judge Settle told them, and he advised them to keep their hands off, which advice they heeded.

STABBED OR SHOT

Several attempts were made to get them off the speaker's stand. It would have been an easy matter to have killed them in the crowd, and no one would have known by whom the assassination had been perpetrated.

STEPHENS WAS MURDERED;

and it is not unreasonable to suppose, that some of his murderers were engaged in the diabolical attempt upon Judge Settle.

North Carolina Democrats Endorse the Union League of America.

Horace Greeley is a prominent and leading member of the Union League of America. Democrats support Mr. Greeley for the Presidency.

Col. D. M. Carter is a member of the Union League of America. Democrats support Col. Carter for Congress.

A. S. Merrimon, the present Ku Klux candidate for Governor, was a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court in 1868, and every man on the Supreme Court ticket, save one, got more votes than he did.

Freighted with Corruption and Crime.

The Democrats of this State are on their way up Salt River, heavily laden with corruption and crime.

I. The head of the State ticket and leader of the party, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, drafted all the appropriation bills, the passage of which, enabled Swepson to rob the State of millions of dollars.

II. It is said that Swepson made Judge Merrimon a present of the house on Hillsboro' street, in which the Judge now resides. If this be so, and we do not believe it will be denied, Judge Merrimon stands before the people as a gift-taker from the Prince of Swindlers.

III. Hon. W. M. Shipp, Democratic candidate for Attorney General, recommended in his official capacity as chief prosecuting officer of the State, that indictments against Geo. W. Swepson be dismissed, provided, said Swepson would agree to pay back six cents in the dollar of the millions stolen from the State.

IV. Gen. Collett Leventhorpe, Democratic candidate for Auditor, was one of Vance's Home Guard Generals.—This General, when in command in Randolph county, had forty-two respectable women arrested and confined in a Bull Pen.

V. Mr. John W. Graham, Democratic candidate for Treasurer, was a Major in command of troops under Gen. Leventhorpe in Randolph county. Early one Sunday morning, Major Graham left his camp before sunrise; at sunrise a man by the name of Northcote was tied and shot like a sheep killing dog by Maj. Graham's men.

VI. Hon. T. L. Clingman, a leading Democrat and author of the Greensboro' platform, was Swepson's henchman in all the bond matters in which Swepson and Littlefield were engaged.

VII. Mr. W. M. Robbins, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventh District, accepted a bribe of $200 from Mr. J. W. Stephens, of Caswell, (since murdered by the Ku Klux), to vote to pay Mr. Stephens regular per diem for time spent in contesting Hon. Bedford Brown's seat.

VIII. Hon. J. M. Leach, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, practiced a bare-faced fraud upon Jeff. Miller, of Davidson county, by procuring Miller's signature to a note for $900.00 in gold, when Miller, as he has since sworn, thought he was signing a transfer to another hospital.

IX. Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Congressional District, was President of a thieving, corrupt lottery company, by which the people were actually robbed of their hard earnings.

Such are the trusted and honored leaders of the Ku Klux Greeley Democracy. Judge Merrimon and his friends, in 1868, stumped the State against our present Constitution. Gov. Caldwell stumped the State for the Constitution. If Judge Merrimon had succeeded in defeating the adoption of the Constitution, where would your homesteads be? Who proved himself your friend, poor men of North Carolina, Gov. Caldwell or Judge Merrimon?

Consistent Dave.

Colonel D. M. Carter—Colonel, by virtue of his open and sworn hostility to the government of the United States—is known to have professed penitence for his revolutionary acts during the late war, and to have joined the Union League and set in counsel with the League, as to the best means to be adopted to perpetuate and defend the best government in the world, and to keep the flag of our common country from trailing in the dust of a Southern despotism.

Suppose a common thief comes to you and desires to be taken into your confidence, and says that he is a changed man, that he will be honest henceforth and true to your interests; by his former life and his record as a common thief, and nothing else. Just so with Judge Merrimon and the Democratic party: both of whom made unrelenting war upon the Homestead in 1868.

Whatever Democrats may say, their own record, made in 1868, gives the lie flatfooted to their protestations of love for the Homestead.

The Legislature adjourned nearly five months ago, and yet the laws, documents and journals have not been distributed. AND YET THE STATE PRINTER HAS DRAWN HIS PAY IN FULL FOR PRINTING THESE DOCUMENTS.

A few months ago the Democrats were abusing every man who was a Republican. Many complained because the dictionary didn't contain words which were vile enough to express their contempt for Republicans and Republicanism.

Every member of the late Legislature charged with being a Ku Klux has been ruled out of the present campaign. Was it by an order from Ku Klux headquarters, or was it because the charges were true, and they feared to trust themselves again before the people?

Horace Greeley—Old John Brown. Horace Greeley is the author of "Old John Brown's Soul is Marching on."—Democrats support Greeley for President.

Horace Greeley also gave fifty dollars to employ counsel to defend John Brown.

The late Democratic Legislature refused to investigate charges of Ku Kluxism against its members. But their party has shown that it was afraid to trust any of those members before the people again.

For the Carolina Era. DISCUSSION AT DANBURY.

The Republicans along the Virginia Border up and at Work.

ENTHUSIASM for the REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Confidence in Republican Triumph.

NO GREELEY REPUBLICANS TO BE FOUND IN STOKES.

DANBURY, June 22, 1872. According to appointment, Governor Caldwell addressed a large audience of white and colored people at Danbury, Stokes county, to-day, the 22nd June, with the very happiest effect.

Democratic papers would have the people believe that Judge Merrimon and in fact the Democratic party are in favor of the Homestead provision of our present Constitution. A letter of Judge Merrimon's has been resurrected written a year ago to prove that the Democratic candidate for Governor is in favor of and would preserve unharmed the Homestead. Democrats have no settled principles. The party is held together by the cohesive prospect of public plunder.

den from the assaults of his enemies, as no body doubted that if they could have been maintained that the Attorney General would have made the investigation and report which he was required to do.

These and a number of other instances which might be added would satisfy the people that according to the opportunities they had the Democracy of North Carolina had been as corrupt and venal as their brethren in New York, the Tammany Democrats, and that if ever the people should be so unfortunate as to give them power they would find their leaders supporting and defending men like Swepson, as Merrimon had done, or compromising him out of his difficulties as Shipp had done, or "unthoughtfully" taking bribes as Robbins had done, or charging a confederate soldier $400 for services never rendered and fabricating an evidence of indebtedness and swindling a carpet bagger into buying the forged paper, as Leach had done.

Who told the people of Wake last summer that if the Convention was voted down, they would have to pay fifty dollars tax on every thousand dollars' worth of property? Answer—Judge Merrimon.

The Convention was voted down, who is paying the tax? Can you trust a man who tried to deceive you?

DISCUSSION AT CARTHAGE.

McKay and Waddell. Moore County all Right.

Mr. Editor: On Monday, the 20th of June, the candidates for Congress in this District, Messrs. Waddell and McKay addressed the people of Moore, at this place. The discussion was opened by Neill McKay in a speech of an hour and fifteen minutes, in which he reviewed the history of the so-called Conservative-Democratic party in this State since 1865.

Resolved, That the thanks of the stockholders are due and are hereby tendered to George W. Swepson, President, Maj. Jas. C. Turner, Chief Engineer, and G. M. Roberts, Secretary and Treasurer for the able, efficient, energetic and faithful manner in which they have discharged their respective duties during the past year.

Resolved, That the thanks of the stockholders are due and are hereby tendered to George W. Swepson, President, Maj. Jas. C. Turner, Chief Engineer, and G. M. vote for some and reject others, but their verdict was against these amendments last Summer, and that verdict they will not set aside. That for President of the United States he was for Gen. U. S. Grant whose administration had been as successful as it was wise and appreciated, that the national credit was never better, that the national securities of the United States were at a premium, being sought for as investments by capitalists even in Europe, that the high taxes imposed in consequence of the late war were gradually being lessened, that here in the South the laboring class were better off and higher wages would be paid, and the necessities of life were never before so cheap. That Gen. Grant's course entitled him to the support of the Southern people over Mr. Greeley who would be supported by the Democratic party.

In regard to the enforcement acts passed by Congress, he stated that if there had been no Ku Klux organizations or outrages, that there had been no enforcement acts or suspensions of the writ of habeas corpus; that the writ was not suspended in North Carolina—only in nine counties in South Carolina. I have not time to give in full the points made by Mr. McKay, in which he fully vindicated the principles of the Republican party.

Hon. A. M. Waddell replied for an hour and fifteen minutes; said he was much obliged to the people of Moore county for the vote they had given him over his opponent two years ago; that he was not a large man, and that he did not know much, but he would take him long to tell it; that he was against Grant; for Greeley, or anybody else to beat Grant; that Grant was not fit to be President; that before the war he was nothing but a little drunken democrat—a tanner; that he was informed by a gentleman in Washington City, that previous to the war Grant had been in the habit of going to the ditches, and just there the people began to think that the speaker was perhaps correct in his opening remarks; that certainly he did not know much about President Grant, to speak in such terms of the man who filled the highest position in the gift of the American people.

He denounced Holden, Kirk and Bergen, and talked about the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and the enforcement acts, the arresting of men without warrant, but no mention was made of the many outrages committed by the Ku Klux Klan. So after speaking his time out on Holden, Kirk and Bergen, he concluded with his opening remarks, that it did not take him long to tell what he knew.

Moore will give an increased Republican vote. REPUBLICAN. Carthage, June 20, 1872.

Bear in mind that the Democrats are still cursing Gov. Caldwell for standing by our Constitution, although the people at the polls have endorsed that act. These men are not willing for the sake to rule.

A Homestead Given! A Homestead Secured! The Republican party secured a homestead to every family in the State, by a wise provision in the present Constitution, of the value of $1,500, which cannot be taken to pay any debt, and it will remain, unless Democrats come into power and repeal it.

A Republican Congress has so amended the Bankrupt law as to give a debtor who shall be forced into bankruptcy the present homestead, allowed by the State Constitution, of fifteen hundred dollars.

Let poor men and their families ponder these things.—Statesville American.

Bear in mind that the very men who were so much opposed to the adoption of our Constitution in 1868 are the very men who tried to uproot it by unconstitutional means last summer, and they are the same men who are now clamoring for its amendment.

Republican Headquarters. The Republican State Executive Committee have established headquarters for the campaign at the Club House on Hillsboro' street, now occupied by Col. S. T. Carrow, U. S. Marshal. Republicans visiting the City are respectfully requested not to leave the City without calling at headquarters, where they will find some member of the Committee and the Secretaries, ready to attend to any business that our friends may desire to have despatched. Republican papers will please copy.

Senator Logan says that Grant will be elected by a larger majority than he received four years ago, and that two Democrats will vote for him in preference to Greeley, where one Republican will vote against him, so far as Southern Illinois is concerned. The same proportion will probably hold good throughout the whole country.
