Just at the point of return there was a momentary lull, as if expectant of the climax, . Suddenly, could be desired was nature's tribute from the sides and turrets of the battleships there was a vivd flash; foljowing this a tremendous roar announcing the first gun of the national salute. The heavy smoke curled and tumbled down towards the water and up into the air until the ships had been hidden, but the roar coming again and again seemed to rock the waters themselves. It was an imposing spectacle as the big battleships boomed a salute to the nation - as the warships saluted the final resting place of General Grant and the ans that sounded the knell of Admiral Cervera's ships at Santiago boomed a reverential obeisance to the dead hero. The salute ended, the return of the squadron along the line of review was begun. It was a repetiton of the enthusiastic scenes on the way up the river. The parade of the ships from the time it passed the battery on its way up the river to the time it re-passed on its way to anchorage off Tompkinsville, S. ., occupied just two hours and thirtyfive minutes.

Spaniards Terror-Stricken.

A war of retaliation against the Span ish residents of the Island of Porto Rico within the American lines is threatened. The natives burned the town of Cota, seven miles from Ponce recently. The Spanish residents fled. Throughout the surrounding country the Spaniards are terror-stricken and are appealing to the Americans for protection. The shops kept by Spaniards at Pence which were opened after the signing of the peace protocol, have been closed again through fear of the rioters. Editions of two papers which hysterically demanded vengeance and the expulsion of all Spanish-born resideats were suppressed by the military authorities, who are doing all in their power to allay the fears of the Spanish inhabitants. The natives who are fomenting the trouble are of the lowest class and many of them are criminals. Over 25 of the ringleaders in the disturbances have been arrested.

TERMS OF SURRENDER.

Spaniards Secured Terms of Humane and Most Honorable Character,

The War Department has received a The Stars and Stripes Raised in cable message from Gen. Merritt giving details of the surrender of Manila, as

1. The Spanish troops, European and native, capitulate with the city and defences, with all honors of war, depositing their arms in the places designated by the author-ities of the United States and remaining in the quarters designated and under the United States authorities until the conclusion of a treaty of peace between the two belligerent nations. All persons included in the capitulation remain at liberty; the officers remaining in their respective homes, which shall be respected as long as they observe the regula-tions prescribed for their government and the

2. Officers shall retain their side arms, horses and private property. All public horses and public property of all kinds shall be turned over to staff officers designated by the United States.

3. Complete returns in duplicate of men by organizations and full lists of public property and stores shall be rendered to the United States within ten days from this date. 4. All questions relating to the repatriation of officers and men of the Spanish forces and of their families and of the expenses which said repatriation may occasion, shall be re-ferred to the government of the United States at Washington. Spanish families may leave Manila at any time convenient to them. The return of the arms surrendered by tue Spanish forces shall take place when they evacuate the city, or when the American army evacuates.

5. Officers and men included in the capitu lation shall be supplied by the United States according to their rank, with rations and necessary aid, as though they were prisoners of war, until the conclusion of a treaty of peace between the United States and Spain. All the funds in the Spanish Treasury and all other public funds shall be turned over to the authorities of the United States.

6, The city, its inhabitants, its churches and religious worships, its educational establishments and its private property of all descriptions, are placed under special sateguard of the faith and honor of the army.

An Extraordinary Document.

A document entirely unique in the annals of warfare was cabled to the War Department by General Shafter. It is in the form of a congratulatory farewell address to the soldiers of the American army by Pedro Lopez de Castillo, a private Spanish soldier, on behalf of 11,000 Spanish soldiers. The following is the text of the address, as cabled by General Shafter:

"To Major General Shafter, commanding the American Army in Cuba:-Sir: The Spanish soldiers who capitulated in this place on the 16th of July last, recognizing your high and just position, pray that through you all the courtesies and noble soldiers under your command may receive our good wishes and farewell, which we send on embarking for our beloved Spain. For this favor, which we have no doubt you will grant, you will gain the everlasting gratitude and consideration of 11,000 Spanish soldiers, who are your most humble servants. [Signed] Pedro Lopez de Castillo, Private of Infantry."
