Major Wm. A. Smith is in the city to-day. He is looking well as usual. He has entered the campaign with that determined spirit characteristic of the man.

A hand of the missing child who was murdered by its father, Scott Partin, was found in the guano bag with its mother. It is thought that the child was put in the bag after being murdered, as was its mother, but the remains were so horribly mangled that only its hand was distinguishable.

Mr. J. H. Mills, Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, will give two entertainments, by pupils from the Asylum, in our city on Thursday. At the Swain Street Baptist Church at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, and at Metropolitan Hall at 8 o'clock in the evening. Admission free, and the public are invited.

While our Baptist friends are trying to push forward their noble work in the Eastern portion of our city, the sidewalks leading to the Second Baptist church, especially Davie, between East and Swain, should be cleared of a few of those roots which protrude several inches above ground. Will not Commissioner Andrews remedy the evil?

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—The officers elect for Manteo Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be installed into office this evening at 8 o'clock. P. G. Pescud is the installing officer, and an interesting occasion is anticipated. Visiting and resident brethren are invited to be present.

PERSONAL.—The following gentlemen are stopping at the National Hotel: Chief Justice Pearson, Judge Will B. Rodman, State Treasurer Jenkins, Attorney General Hargrove, Gov. C. H. Brogden, Auditor John Reilly, Gen. R. F. Hoke, Col. Thos. B. Keogh.

REWARD PAID.—Gov. Brogden, on Tuesday, paid the reward of $5,000 to Wm. Freeman and J. B. Capps, of Goldsboro, for the arrest and delivery of George Applewhite, one of the Robeson county outlaws. Messrs. Freeman and Capps are both colored men, and have shown themselves true men by the manner in which they have acted in making the arrest of this noted desperado. Applewhite was under sentence of death at the time of his escape some four years ago, and has been taken to Columbus county to be re-sentenced.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—On yesterday a goodly number of the colored people of Raleigh and vicinity assembled at Metropolitan Hall for the purpose of listening to addresses on the question of the coming election for Convention.

The meeting was called to order by John R. Caswell, who nominated H. H. Lane for Chairman, which motion was unanimously carried.

Mr. Lane, on taking the Chair, made a neat and well timed speech, thanking the audience for the honor conferred, and asking the further pleasure of the meeting.

On motion, J. J. Sawyer and Will R. Harrison, Jr. were elected Secretaries. Mr. Caswell then took the floor and delivered a powerful and logical speech against the calling of a Convention by the last Legislature, and urging the people to vote for candidates opposed to the same.

He alluded in a clear and forcible manner to the noble features of the present Constitution, and called forth from the audience repeated applause and undivided attention.

Mr. D. E. Perry was next called, and made one of his best efforts in opposition to the contemplated Convention. Mr. Perry is a good and fluent speaker, and showed the people that he fully understood his subject, and exhorted his hearers to live, walk and act by faith in the coming contest, as they were wont to do in the days gone by, when the prayers of four millions of people went up as the voice of one man, savored with faith, asking God to remove the fetters of American slavery.

Mr. Perry's speech was well received, and had its effect upon the audience. Hon. James H. Harris was afterwards called for, and in his opening, fully explained to the audience the importance and necessity of registering. Mr. Harris, as usual, made one of his eloquent speeches, which was repeatedly applauded, and no doubt he left an indelible impression on all who were present.

By earnest and repeated appeals, Mr. Stewart Ellison next interested the audience, and did great credit to himself and race. He spoke in touching terms of the great responsibilities that now rest on all who favor freedom and justice.

J. J. SAWYER, WILL R. HARRISON, JR., Secretaries.

We had a news-boy out on the street yesterday selling our paper, when a man, who had been eyeing him as he rushed through the crowds of people, disposing of the paper, hailed him as he hurriedly started across the street, and wanted to know what paper he had for sale. The boy promptly replied, the "DAILY CONSTITUTION, only five cents," and asked him very hastily, "will you have one, sir?" The old gentleman asked the privilege of examining the paper, and remarked "if it suits me I will make a purchase, perhaps." The boy handed him a copy with which to satisfy his wondering curiosity, as well as to induce him to buy. Notwithstanding the boy was busily engaged, the old gentleman took the paper and deliberately sat down on the market pump, opened the paper upside down and gazed upon it for five minutes, when he turned to the boy, and said: "Looker here, son, dis here paper ain't big 'nuff for five cents." He handed the paper back to the boy and walked off. We have been considering the propriety of impeaching the boy for high crime and misdemeanor in office, but have concluded not to do so, as he is a "green horn" at the business, and on promise not to be guilty of such behavior in the future. This forcibly reminds us of one of Shakespeare's truthful sayings, and has forced us to believe, that he was a prophet as well as a tragedian, especially when he uttered these words: "Where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise."

PARADE OF THE MULLIGAN GUARD.—This well organized and equipped company made their appearance on the streets last night in full blast. After a display of a few bonfires, they were called together by the tap of the drum, and irregularly fell in ranks at the head of Fayetteville street, from whence they marched downward until they reached Williams and Haywood's drug store, where they got so confused that one portion started in one direction and the other in another. Here they halted for a moment, when those who had strayed off returned, and agreed to go to the Baptist Grove and get in procession, so as not to be so easily dispersed. They went and formed a line and marched down Mount street, where we left them. They marched over a considerable portion of territory and kept the city in a perfect pandemonium until 12 or 1 o'clock. Thus ended the 5th in Raleigh.

We visited the Deaf and Dumb Asylum (white) this morning, and were shown around by its worthy Principal, John Nichols, Esq. Great improvements have been made in and about the premises since he assumed control, which add much to the appearance, not only to the building, but to that portion of the city. The thick hedge which formerly prevented a full view of the buildings and grounds has been removed and evergreens substituted in lieu thereof. A new fence, of Canadian design, is being erected around the entire premises, and when completed it will make that one of the most beautifully located schools in the city. Mr. Nichols informed us that he proposed having the building heated by steam next winter and thus avert, for the future, the danger arising from the use of stoves and fire-places. The pupils are now spending a vacation with their parents.

All quiet in police circles to-day. His Honor, Mayor Separk, has simply been awaiting the pleasure of those who will break the peace. From all indications it appears that they have no further pleasure. We visited the lodging rooms at police headquarters, last night, about 10 o'clock, with the expectation of finding a large number of occupants, but were pleasantly surprised to find only four, and they had nearly recovered from the effects of the fifth.

WILMINGTON ELECTION.—The case of Van Bokelyn against Canada and others, involving the constitutionality of the act of the Legislature mandating Wilmington, was decided this evening by the Supreme Court to be unconstitutional. Van Bokelyn and others are not entitled to the offices of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Wilmington. The decision will probably oust Mayor Separk and his Board.
