Register! Register!

Let the people turn out and register. In consequence of the Democratic gerrymander of Raleigh and other cities and towns of the State, by which the boundaries of wards have been changed, it is nec-essary that all persons living in such cities or towns who desire to vote shall register for the coming is being mown down again. This election.

In the country, all persons who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years or removed into the township in which they reside since the last election, and have remained residents of the same within the time prescribed by law, must register before the day of election.

REGISTER .- The Wards in the city having been changed by the act of the Legislature, it will be necessary for a new registration in order to vote in the next August election. The books are now open, and we call upon our friends to register right away. The following are the Registrars and the places of registration :

We are pleased to learn that our townsman, Mr. A. D. Royster, who is spending the season at the Hot Springs in Arkansas for the benefit of his health, is rapidly improving.

Bosher is now located at 31 Fayetteville street, and when you want something that's good, call on him. His stock of wines and liquors is of the best quality, and the most complete to be found in the city.

Col. D. A. Jenkins, State Treasurer, has gone to Charlotte for a few days. Before his return he will visit his home in Gaston and put the Republicans to work. Victory always perches upon his banner, and we may look for good news from Gaston.

LEFT.-Geo. T. Jones, the gentlemanly agent of the North Carolina Railroad Company at Raleigh, has gone to Beaufort on a recreating tour. He leaves Richardson and Allen, two genuine business young men, to take charge of things. We guarantee that everything will be pushed through in proper style. There are no more competent and reliable young gentlemen to be found anywhere than these, as their popularity in the community and among the railroad officials fully proves.

The New York Graphic in noticing our remarks on Gov. Brogden has an article which brings his Excellency prominently before the people of the United States. The Graphic is independent in politics, and undoubtedly would be glad, says the New North State, to get our republican governor to go on an independent ticket with Gov. Tilden. Says the Graphic :

"Governor Brogden, of North Carolina, was present at Trinity College commencement, and being a popular and, so far as we know, an honest Governor, we may be disposed to give him the second place on the Democratic Presidential ticket with Governor Tilden. But like our Democratic candidate for the Presidency, Gevernor Brog-den is unmarried. In fact, not to put too fine a point upon it, he is an old bachelor. Now, this really will not do; we have had one bachelor in the White House-Mr. Buchanan-and the result was not satisfactory. We are inclined to think that we shall require Governor Tilden to pledge himself to marry before the 4th of March, 1877. At any composed of two old bachelors would never do. If Governor Brog-den wants to be Vice-President, he must marry a wife without any fur-

But who represented? certainly the people—those who paid the taxes— not the taxes themselves. Our ancestors never claimed that their property should be represented. They claimed, and justly too, that they should be represented. In the Senate, property is represented and not the people; and the same princi-ple which prompted our ancestors to that glorious contest, and sus-tained them in it, which terminated in the achievement of our Liberties, should prompt us to war against this most odious anti-Republican remnant of feudal aristocracy by which the people are taxed. by a body in which they are not represented.

Apply the principle and see its injustice. Ten men in any one county, own as much property and pay as much public tax as five hundred men in another county. They all own the same species of property. Each of the five hundred is equally interested in the preservation of his little mite as either of the ten. Each one has perhaps made it by the labor of his hands, by the sweat of his brow. It is all he has, by means of which to maintain and provide for his family. It is the dependence of his children for education-for sustenance. And yet, by the present system, the ten are equal to the five hunnred. Is this justice? Is this Liberty? Let war break out-let civil commotion arise,-whose lives are exposed for the protection of this property? Who are sent forth to fight the battles of your country? The five hundred go forth to fight the battles of your country; to vindicate its honor; to maintain its glory; leaving their wives and little ones to struggle on in poverty and indi-gence :--while the ten stay at home, enjoy their wealth, and boast of the honor and glory of their country, the bravery, the freedom, and equality of its citizens. Save us from such freedom—save us from such equality? It is no freedom—it is no equality. It is downright tyranny -tyranny in its most odious form. The few grinding into the dust the many, under the iron heel of power -power under the pretence of being derived from 'the peopleonly.'"
