NIBLO'S HOTEL

112 BROADWAY BETWEEN PINE & CEDAR STREETS. THE Subscriber returns grateful acknowledgments to his friends and the public for the liberal support afforded him since his establishment in this city. Having found, however, that the name of his Hotel, which he originally adopted, "Congress Hall," subjects him to many inconveniences in consequence of the proprietor of a public establishment in his immediate neighborhood, having assumed the same title; and being unwilling by a continuance of the present name of his house to embarrass his neighbor as well as himself, he has resolved on changing the same to that of Niblo's Hotel. Its central location being near the principal places of amusement, and its vicinity to the public offices and business part of the Town, renders it a most desirable resort for any gentleman engaged in commercial and other pursuits. The experience, which the subscriber has acquired as proprietor for many years of that extensive establishment the "Exchange Hotel," Petersburg, Virginia, and subsequent as an associate with Mr. Heiskill of the "City Hotel," Philadelphia, will be a sufficient guarantee to all who may honor him with their patronage, that nothing shall be wanting on his part, or by those in his employ, to contribute in every respect to their accommodation and comfort.

JOHN NIBLO.

PROSPECTUS

Complete Periodical Library

Forty eight Pages weekly—nearly 2500 large octavo pages a year, for $5 furnishing annually select reading equal to 50 Volumes of common size.

The Library will contain nearly all the new works of merit as they appear. Voyages and Travels; History; Biography; select Memorials; the most approved European Annuals; Adventures; Tales of unexceptionable character, &c. &c.

"THE Complete Periodical Library" will be found indispensable to all lovers of good reading, in town or country. Every number will contain 48 pages, in a size expressly adapted for binding, when the book is completed; printed with type so large as not to fatigue the weak eye. Its immense size will enable the editor to crowd any common sized book into two numbers, frequently into one. New works will thus be despatched as they arrive from Europe, and sent off fresh to its patrons. The subscriber in Missouri will be brought as it were to the very fountain of literature. Works printed in this Library will be furnished to him, without it, he would be wholly unable to procure them.

A book that will cost six dollars to import, can be re-printed and distributed to subscribers, owing to our peculiar facilities, for about twenty or thirty cents, with the important addition of its being fresh and new.

We shall give near 2500 pages annually equal to fifty common sized books. Every work published in the Library will be complete in itself. A title page will be given each volume, so that the subscriber, if he please, may sell, or give it away, without injury to any of the others; or it may be bound up at the pleasure of the subscriber.

This work presents an extraordinary feature, unknown to any other periodical in the country. The subscription price may be considered a mere loan for a year, as the work, at the year's end, will sell for cost, and in many parts of the United States it will bring double its original cost to the subscriber.

The works published in "The Complete Periodical Library" will be of the highest character, both as regards the author and his subject. New works, of approved merit, will be sent out to the Editor by every arrival from Europe, giving him an unlimited field to select from, while care will be taken to make his publications equal to any thing of the kind in America.

The first number will be issued on the 8th of May next and regularly every Wednesday thereafter, secured in handsomely printed covers, and on fine white paper; at $5 per annum, payable in advance. Clubs remitting $20 will be supplied with five copies for that sum; agents at the same rate.

WALDIE'S,

Circulating Library.

NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHER.

THE first volume of the "Library" being closed, the work may now be considered as fairly before the public, and permanently established. How far the proprietor has redeemed his original pledge, public opinion must of course decide. Where he has fallen short of expectation, he trusts he may claim some indulgence, from the consideration that the path on which he ventured had been previously untrod—that, as a pioneer, he had to clear his way of many unforeseen obstacles which necessarily beset an undertaking of such novelty and extent—and to discover, as he went along, the true nature of the ground over which he was traveling. In his progress, he has certainly been encouraged and supported by a large share of public liberality and confidence, his grateful sense of which would be very inadequately expressed by a common place "return of thanks." Unknown as he was beyond a very limited circle—possessed of no name whose talismanic influence might elicit confidence—giving no guarantee, indeed, but his own promise—when he considers the extent of the confidence shown by the public in these promises, he sincerely and truly feels the inadequacy of offers fully to express his gratitude. He brought to the undertaking an unbending honesty of intention, to substantiate, as far as was in his power, the professions he made—and his motives now are doubly powerful to continue the most strenuous exertions fully to accomplish them. In what has been done, and what he expects to do, he readily acknowledges that no such result would have been produced, nor durst he promise so boldly for his future exertions without the efficient aid of the editor, whose general acquaintance with books, and pecuniary advantageous situation, eminently qualify him to fulfill his arduous duties.

The publisher hesitates to occupy much of the reader's time with his own affairs, yet he ventures to draw attention to the fact, which he believes the Nos. of the "Library" already furnished fully establish, that the publishers of books in the usual form do not always choose the best. Books are minutely examined, previous to their insertion in our columns—they are not selected merely from an attractive title—therefore, should we err, it is not from inattention. Not one of the works which we have published had previous been printed in this country—and we rather invite than shun a comparison of the books which we have given, with those of the same class that have issued through other channels during the same period.

Some objections have been made to the size and shape of the page; but in no other form could so much matter be put on a sheet, and yet retain a book form; and in a bound volume, it will have a more satisfactory appearance than in single Nos.

Again expressing his acknowledgments for public favor, and renewing his assurances of vigilant attention hereafter, he respectfully solicits a continued and extended patronage.
