NIBLO'S HOTEL

112 BROADWAY BETWEEN PINE & CEDAR STREETS.

THE subscriber returns grateful acknowledgments to his friends and the public for the liberal support afforded him since his establishment in this city. Having found, however, that the name of his Hotel, which he originally adopted, "Congress Hall," subjects him to many inconveniences in consequence of the proprietor of a public establishment in his immediate neighborhood, having assumed the same title; and being unwilling by a continuance of the present name of his house to embarrass his neighbor as well as himself, he has resolved on changing the same to that of Niblo's Hotel. Its central location being near the principal places of amusement, and its vicinity to the public offices and business part of the Town, renders it a most desirable resort for any gentlemen engaged in commercial and other pursuits. The experience, which the subscriber has acquired as proprietor for many years of that extensive establishment the "Exchange Hotel," Petersburg, Virginia, and subsequent as an associate with Mr. Heskell of the "City Hotel" Philadelphia, will he trusts prove a sufficient guarantee to all who may honor him with their patronage, that nothing shall be wanting on his part, or by those in his employ, to contribute in every respect to their accommodation and comfort.

PROSPECTUS

Of a Novel and Interesting Weekly Publication, to be commenced in the city of Philadelphia, on Saturday, the 6th of July, ensuing, to be entitled

THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA, AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

It is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest pride arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually serviceable to society. This can be best effected by a proper application of our intelligences, meeting them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the decline of public virtue than checking the progress of public vice; for vice retarded is virtue advanced. As the direction and discussion of measures of national and state policy are the business of the daily press, the full application of Addison's remark is necessarily neglected, and the consequence is, that vice, shielded by wealth and worldly influence, are abroad among the people, not only unsuspected, but courted and required; and that a publication is necessary which will not only detect, but exhibit these vices in sheep's clothing to public scorn—a mark by which others will be warned from their intent and a service be rendered to society. In effecting this object, we shall pursue a yet untrodden path; one where the necessary thorn shall be mingled (not concealed) with contrasting flowers. The manner of the "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be perfectly delicate, and unobscured by cant or vulgarity; its censures shall be judicious, its satire classic. Literature and the arts shall find in it an untired and zealous friend. Dramatic and Literary criticisms shall meet with most attentive and impartial study, and sketches of the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall occasionally appear from the pen of competent judges, unobscured by personal acquaintance or professional attachment. To these recommendations, our Poetical column will add another, which coming from an already popular source, will be equal to that of more pretending publications. It is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume that generally of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt. We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE, and relying upon their love of justice and of public virtue, await their decision respectfully but confidently.

CONDITIONS.

The first number of the "Spy in Philadelphia" will be issued on the first Saturday in July. It will be printed on fine white paper, in eight large quarto pages with good type. As it is intended to render the contents worthy of preservation, for amusing or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed, and more portable size will be evident. The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent. on all subscribers they shall obtain, on remitting one year's payment in advance, or becoming responsible for the same, and a gratuitous copy of the paper.

The "Spy in Philadelphia" will contain humorous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Critic's Sketch. They will be executed by skilful artists and be accompanied with comic illustrations in prose or verse, from the pens of original and competent writers.

All orders must be addressed, post paid, to

WILLIAM HILL & CO.

No. 1. ARTHURIAN BUILDINGS, PHILADELPHIA.

Care will be taken to have the work carefully packed when sent out of the city.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Complete Periodical Library

[Early eight Pages weekly—usually 2500 large octavo pages a year, for $5 perishing annually select reading equal to 50 Volumes of common size.]

The Library will contain nearly all the new works of merit as they appear. Voyages and Travels; History; Biography; select Memoirs; the most approved European Annals; Adventures; Tales of unexceptionable character, &c. &c.

THE "Complete Periodical Library" will be found indispensable to all lovers of good reading, in town or country. Every number will contain 48 pages, in a size expressly adapted for binding, when the book is illustrated printed with type so large as not to fatigue the weakest eye. Its immense size will enable the editor to crowd any common sized book into two numbers, frequently into one. New works will thus be despatched as they arrive from Europe, and sent off fresh to its patrons. The subscriber in Missouri will be brought as it were to the very fountain of literature. Works printed in this library will be furnished to him, when, without it, he would be wholly unable to procure them. A book that will cost us six dollars to import, can be re-printed and distributed to subscribers, owing to our peculiar facilities, for about twenty or thirty cents, with the important addition of its being fresh and new.

We shall give near 2500 pages annually equal to fifty common sized books. Every work published in the Library will be complete in itself. A title page will be given each volume, so that the subscriber, if he please, may sell, or give it away, without injury to any of the others; or it may be bound up at the pleasure of the subscriber.

This work presents an extraordinary feature, unknown to any other periodical in the country. The subscription price may be considered a mere loan for a year, as the work, at the year's end, will sell for cost, and in many parts of the United States it will bring double its original cost to the subscriber.

The works published in "The Complete Periodical Library" will be of the highest character, both as regards the author and his subject. New works, of approved merit, will be sent out to the Editor by every arrival from Europe, giving him an unlimited field to select from, while care will be taken to make his publications equal to any thing of the kind in America.

The first number will be issued on the 8th of May next and regularly every Wednesday thereafter, secured in handsomely printed covers, and on fine white paper, at $5 per annum, payable in advance. Clubs remitting $20 will be supplied with five copies for that sum; agents at the same rate.

Raleigh, June 29, 1833.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

April 12th, 1833.

In the late conflagration of the Treasury building, nearly all the correspondence of the Secretary of the Treasury, from the establishment of the Department to the 31st March 1833, was destroyed, including, as well as the original letters and communications addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, as the records of the letters and communications written by him. With all officers of the United States are requested to cause copies to be prepared and authenticated by them, of any letters (excepting those hereinafter alluded to) which they may at any time have written to, or received from the Secretary of the Treasury; and all those who have been in office, and other individuals throughout the United States, and elsewhere, are invited to do the same. That this correspondence may be arranged into appropriate books, it is requested that it be copied on folio landscape paper, with a sufficient margin on all sides to admit of binding, and that no more than one letter be contained on a leaf. It is also requested, that the copies be written in plain and distinct or engraving hand. Where the original can be spared, it would be preferred. The reasonable expense incurred in copying the papers now requested, not exceeding the rate of ten cents for every hundred words will be defrayed by the Department.

The correspondence which has been saved, and of which therefore, no copies are desired, are the records of the letters written by the Secretary of the Treasury to Presidents and Cashiers of Banks, from the 1st October, 1819, to the 20th February, 1833; all the correspondence relating to the revolutionary claims under the act of 15th May, 1828, and to claims of Virginia officers to half pay, under the act of 9th July, 1832, and to applications for the benefit of the acts of the 2d March 1831, and 14th July, 1832, for the relief of certain insolvent debtors of the United States. Copies of some circular letters and instructions, written by the Secretary, have also been preserved; and it is requested that, before a copy be made of any circular letter or instruction, written by the Secretary of the Treasury, the date and object of the circular be first stated to the Department, and its wishes on the subject ascertained.

NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHER.

THE first volume of the "Library" being closed, the work may now be considered as fairly before the public, and permanently established. How far the proprietor has redeemed his original pledge, public opinion must of course decide. Where he has fallen short of expectation, he trusts he may claim some indulgence, from the consideration that the path on which he ventured had been previously untried—that, as a pioneer, he had to clear his way of many unforeseen obstacles which necessarily beset an undertaking of such novelty and extent—and to discover, as he went along, the true nature of the ground over which he was traveling. In his progress, he has certainly been encouraged and supported by a large share of public liberality and confidence, his gratefulness of which would be very inadequately expressed by a common place "return of thanks." Unknown as he was beyond a very limited circle—possessed of no name whose talismanic influence might elicit confidence—giving no guarantee, indeed, but his own promise—when he considers the extent of the confidence shown by the public in these premises, he sincerely and truly feels the inadequacy of terms fully to express his gratitude. He brought to the undertaking an unbounding honesty of intention, to substantiate, as far as was in his power, the professions he made—and his motives now are doubly powerful to continue the most strenuous exertions fully to accomplish them. In what has been done, and what he expects to do, he readily acknowledges that no such result would have been produced, nor durst he promise so boldly for his future exertions without the efficient aid of the editor, whose general acquaintance with books, and pecuniary advantageous situation, eminently qualify him to fulfill his arduous duties.

The publisher hesitates to occupy much of the reader's time with his own affairs, yet he ventures to draw attention to the fact, which he believes the Nos. of the "Library" already furnished fully establish, that the publishers of books in the usual form do not always choose the best Books are minutely examined, previous to their insertion in our columns—they are not selected merely from an attractive title—therefore, should we err, it is not from inattention. Not one of the works which we have published had previous been printed in this country—and we rather invite than shun a comparison of the same class that have issued through other channels during the same period.

Some objections have been made to the size and shape of the page; but in no other form could so much matter be put on a sheet, and yet retain a book form; and in a bound volume, it will have a more satisfactory appearance than in single Nos.

Again expressing his acknowledgments for public favor, and renewing his assurances of vigilant attention hereafter, he respectfully solicits a continued and extended patronage.

Philadelphia, April 20.

Turner & Hughes have removed their Books, for the present, to the Session House of the Presbyterian Church, where they will be happy to fill all orders as far as they are able. They expect in a few days a further supply of new Books.

Notice.

There was committed to the jail of Randolph county on the 12th instant, two negro boys, one by the name of Washington, and the other James, who say they belong to the estate of Harry Jones of Halifax county, N. C. and were hired to work in the Gold Mines at Brindleton, to Mr. Simms, from whom they ran away. There is no particular mark to describe them, only they both are young and lively. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges and take them away.

Taken Up.

And committed to the Jail of Franklin county, N. C. a Negro man, supposed to be 15 or 20 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, inclined to stoop, has a down look, and is either partially deaf, or affected so to be; he says that he belongs to Stephen Brown, of Northampton county, N. C. and tells a tale about Brown swapping with Gordon for him. He mentions several of the Browns, Caty Powell, White and others, of Northampton. He had the appearance of a savage when taken; he calls himself Dial. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, and take him away, or he will be dealt with as the law directs.

NEW GOODS

From 50 to 75 packages, Just received and low opening by

William A. Williams;

At the Brick Store opposite the Market House, comprising A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF Fabrics of almost every description for Spring and Summer wear, many of which are of STYLES ENTIRELY NEW AND BEAUTIFUL. Also a general assortment of Hats, Shoes, Cotton Yarn, Hardware, Queensware and Groceries. Any of which will be sold low.

200 Dollars Reward.

On the 9th of November last, I put a letter into the post office in this place, directed to James Fassett & Co. of the city of Philadelphia enclosing a check of $340, payable at the Branch of the Virginia Bank in Peter-burg, to the order of Zachariah Luney and on the 17th day of the same month, only eight days after the letter was mailed, some man who signed his name J. Scott, presented the check at the bank master or his deputy, has stolen this check from the mail there can be no doubt; and it is possible that they may have disposed of it to some one who drew the money for them, he not knowing that it was stolen. Should it be the case, and the man who drew the money will make it known to me, with such evidence as will lead to a conviction of the thief, I will pay him the above reward.
