The bride wore white satin duchesse, pearl possementerie, duchesse lace, chiffon and long tulle veil; she carried lilies of the valley. The bride entered on the arm of her sister, Miss Alice Small, the groom with his best man, Mr. F. P. Haywood, of Raleigh. The bridal party was tendered a reception at "The Cedars," the fine surburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Branch H. Merrimon, which was magnificently decorated, and a large number of the friends of the popular couple were present. The bride is a petite, piquant brunette: The groom is a son of the late Chief Justice Merrimon. The pair left on the northbound vestibule for a wedding tour. They will reside in Char-

"RETRENCHMENT AND REFORM." Twenty-Two Employes of the Philadelphia Mint Discharged Yesterday.

By Telegraph to The Morning Post. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 8 .- Supt. Kretz has notified 42 employes of the United States Mint that their services would not be required after December 15th. The men dismissed were employed in the coining, refining and melting departments. The dismissals were the result of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vanderlip's recent investigation here, and the desire of the Treasury Department to save about $40,000 annually in the expense of the Philadelphia mint.
