BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

No 10.

What the Brethren Did Yesterday at Oxford, N. C.

The Baptist State Convention met Today Civil Service Policy of under a full moon in a clear sky Thursday night. The audience was tremendous; the delegation unusually large.

This morning the first blessing was fair and balmy air. There was present SHOULD SPOILS MEN WIN a large delegation at the opening exercises conducted by Dr. A. T. Robertson, of Louisville, Ky., after some uninteresting routine business interest came to a white heat when Secretary White arose and offered resolutions advising the retirement of President Whitsett, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the question which has so disturbed Southern Baptists for two years.

After many short speeches, an especially able one by Dr. J. W. Carter, of tute was adopted refusing so take any action in the matter. This surprised many. The vote stood 88 to 77. The opposition to Dr. Whitsitt declined to make an argument against him, giving all the time to the advocates of his cause. Dr. Tichenor is at noon making a
