To this England will never agree. That is why preparations have been made for calling out the naval reserve. A curious rumor prevalent declares that the tiny squadron commanded by Prince Henry of Prussia, now en route to China is being secretly followed all through its long voyage by three British warships.

This rumor has not found its way to the newspapers, but has taken possession of the West-end social, naval and military clubs.

The suggestion, of course, is that the position is so critical that before Prince Henry gets to China there will be war between England and Germany, in which event the "Deutschland" and "Gefion." Prince Henry's ships, will be gobbled up by the mysterious following warships.

A Sensational Murder in Paris.

By Cable to the Morning Post. PARIS, Jan. 8 .- A sensation was created here this afternoon by the murder committed in Rue Droupt, by a tailor named Verdier. As Verdier was passing along a street, a woman named Daccusso. with whom he was formerly 'intimate, and who was lying in wait for him, threw a basin full of vitrol in his face. Verdier then drew his revolver and shot at and wounded the woman.

After she fell, Verdier knelt upon her chest and fired three more shots into her head, killing her. A year ago the woman shot at Verdier in the street with a revolver, but missed her mark, the bullet striking a passerby.
