

WEATHER TO-DAY.
For Raleigh and vicinity:
Rain this evening.

THE MORNING POST.

VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., SUNDAY, APRIL 23, 1899. NO. 124.

LAWTON MOVES ON NOVALICHES

The Town Taken After a Running Skirmish.

TROOPS PROSTRATED BY HEAT

Administration Officials Incensed at "Seditious and Treasonable Telegrams" Received at Manila. Plot Will Be Exposed and Plotters Be Made to Smoke.

Manila, April 22.—General Lawton's brigade of 2,500 men advanced along the road east of Laonoma at daylight this morning. No signs of the enemy were seen until the troops had advanced seven miles, when scouts exchanged the first shots with insurgents near Jalalan river.

The firing developed into a running skirmish on Novaliches, which the troops reached at 10 o'clock. They found the town deserted, the enemy having retreated in the low hills surrounding the place. Their sharpshooters directed a harassing fire upon the Americans, though they did no great damage. Only one man, a member of the First North Dakota, was wounded. The troops will encamp at Novaliches until tomorrow morning to await the arrival of the baggage train.

The heat is having a depressing effect upon men and animals, many being prostrated.

"Seditious and Treasonable Telegrams."

Washington, April 22.—Officers of the administration are indignant and even bitter toward plotters who are endeavoring to cause dissatisfaction among the troops in the Philippines. General Otis has confirmed the suspicions of officials in a dispatch to the President in which he says, explaining the dissatisfaction among the volunteers, that a number of "seditious and treasonable telegrams" were received at Manila from the United States for distribution among the troops. Otis has been asked to send the names of those who signed the telegrams.

A cabinet officer is authentic for the statement that there is a concerted movement to prevent, by underhand and treasonable means, retention of the Philippines. It is the intention of the government to make public exposure of the plot with the names of those concerned when all the details are obtained. This intention may be changed to a determination to proceed against the plotters with a view of punishing them.

General Otis sent a message today outlining the movement of Lawton's column, which began this morning to the north of Novaliches. It is understood that Lawton will work in conjunction with MacArthur's column at Malabon and vicinity, the plan being to drive the rebels into the mountains. The War Department declines to make public the information on the ground that it might not be successful. It is apparent that the department believes that Otis' dispatches are being sent back to the Philippines for the information of the rebels.

Responsibility of Agitators.

London, April 22.—John B. Garrett, American ex-minister to Spain, who lately returned from Manila, says there can be no doubt that the greatest responsibility rests upon those who encourage insurgents to believe that if they hold out long enough, public sentiment in America will change and the islands will secure independence. The insurgent junta at Hong Kong has complete information from day to day of the drift of American opinion, and their sole encouragement is the belief that within a year public opinion will change. If this moral support is withdrawn no attempt will be made to resume hostilities after the rainy season.

Industrial Enterprise Chartered.

Richmond, April 22.—The Richmond Standard Steel, Spike and Iron Company was chartered here today with a capital stock of $2,000,000. Its purposes, as amended in the charter, are for mining of coal and iron ore, converting coal into coke, iron ore into pig iron, and pig iron into steel; also for manufacturing railroad spikes and all other shapes of iron and steel.

AWAITING SAILING ORDERS.

The Vixen going to Manila and the Abarenda loaded for Dago Dago.

Washington, April 22.—The little converted gunboat Vixen will start for Manila about April 30. The commandant of the Norfolk navy yard reported this morning that the Vixen and the cutter Abarenda were ready for sea and were awaiting orders to proceed to Manila and Samoa respectively. It is the intention of the department to send sailing orders in about a week.

The Vixen will proceed to Manila by the Mediterranean route, and the Abarenda will go to the Pacific by the Straits of Magellan. The Abarenda has a cargo of coal for the coaling station which the United States government is preparing to establish at Pago Pago, Samoa.

CAROLINA LOST ON ERRORS

Marylanders Strengthened by Arrival of Three of Their Best Men.

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 22.—Special. Carolina dropped a game to the University of Maryland by a score of 6 to 5. The defeat was due to costly errors of the home team at critical stages of the game. The Marylanders were strengthened by the arrival of three men who overtook the team today, having been left in Richmond. The score: R. H. E. Carolina 5 11 6 Maryland 6 9 4 Batteries: Lawson and Graves; Minor, Brooks and Alexander.

JURY COULD NOT AGREE.

Judge Brawley Makes Some Pointed Remarks About Mob Law in South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., April 22.—After being out twenty-two hours, the jury in the Lake City lynching case this morning announced that no agreement could be reached. The final count showed only five members hanging out for acquittal. The eight defendants are required to furnish bonds for their appearance in November. Before dismissing the jury, Judge Brawley spoke of the lynching fever which has prevailed in the State. He said this was a white man's State, and if the whites, with all the machinery of the law at their command, were unable to rule the State without resorting to mob rule, it was time to confess their weakness and incapacity to govern.

English Students Win Cable Chess Match

New York, April 22.—After a contest lasting two days, and amounting in many ups and downs, due to the fact that at times brilliant and poor chess was played, victory, by a score of 3½ to 2½ games, rested with Great Britain in the cable chess match between the English universities, Oxford and Cambridge, and American universities, Columbia, Harvard, Princeton and Yale.

Cuban Army Lists Padded.

Havana, April 22.—Gomez called on General Brooke this afternoon to confer regarding disbandment of the Cuban army. Brooke said the total army as indicated by the lists must be reduced, as he had received trustworthy information that the number was greatly exaggerated. The lists show 39,390 enlisted to pay. Gomez will investigate.

Three Killed by a Train.

Baraboo, Wis., April 22.—Two young women and one man were killed and another man injured by a Chicago and Northwestern train early this morning. The four were returning on the tracks from a party at a neighbor's

SUPERINTENDENT FLOWERS RESIGNS

Serious Loss to Durham Graded Schools.

SOLDIERS WILL RETURN TODAY

Great Preparations Made for a Reception and Banquet Monday Night—Mathes Able to Walk Out. Registration Books Closed—Trinity College Notes.

Durham, N. C., April 22.—Special.—Professor W. W. Flowers, superintendent of the Durham Graded Schools, has offered his resignation, to take effect at the expiration of the present school year. This action on the part of Professor Flowers was quite a surprise to the people of Durham, and even many of his intimate friends did not know that he intended to give up the great work he is doing here until the announcement was made. Professor Flowers is a graduate of Trinity College. He will give up his work here in order that he may take a post graduate course in some Northern college—probably Harvard. He has done fine work in Durham since he assumed the leadership of the graded schools some two years ago. Durham people all regret to learn that he is to leave. Professor Flowers is a brother of Prof. R. L. Flowers, of the Trinity College faculty. Durham's returning soldiers are expected to reach here tomorrow morning at 9:55 o'clock. They will leave Savannah tonight at 8 o'clock, and reach Greensboro at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will leave Greensboro on the regular eastbound train and reach here at the hour mentioned. Monday night a reception will be given to the soldier boys at Parrish's warehouse by the new Durham Light Infantry, assisted by the ladies of Durham. Maj. Leo D. Hearritt will act as master of ceremonies, and Rev. W. E. Tyree, pastor of the First Baptist church, will deliver an address of welcome. Major W. A. Guthrie, one of the city Aldermen, will then welcome them on behalf of the city officials. Colonel Julian S. Carr will speak last and will welcome the returning soldiers in behalf of the citizens of Durham.

After the speech making is over, supper will be served to the soldiers and their relatives. It will be a big day in Durham.

GREENWOOD RUSHING HIS CLAIM

Promoter of Cuban Railroad Scheme Sticks to His Alleged Concession.

Havana, April 22.—General Greenwood is vigorously prosecuting his claim to a franchise to build the Central Cuban railway. He claims that he got a concession from the Spanish and American authorities immediately after the capitulation of Santiago and before the proclamation forbidding the granting of franchises had issued. He refuses to say from whom the concessions came, but it is understood that he received American rights from General Wood.

MISTRIAL EXPECTED

What Has Been Shown in the Trial of Mrs. George for the Murder of Saxton.

Canton, Ohio, April 22.—Testimony in the case of Mrs. George, who is on trial on the charge of killing George D. Saxton, was completed today. The case will go to the jury Wednesday. Disagreement is looked for. The State has proven a motive for the crime and has traced Mrs. George to a point near the scene of the crime very near the time of its commission. It has forged a chain of circumstantial evidence closely associating her with the crime and produced one witness who claims actually to have seen her kill Saxton. The defense has entered a general denial, presented the theory of an unknown man committing the crime, and proved a partial alibi.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

A running track has been made in the athletic field, and other preparations are being made for the field day to be held in the third week in May. Everything is being arranged for the gymnasium exhibition to be held the second week in May. Both of these events will be given under the auspices of the Athletic Association, and under the supervision of the director of the gymnasium.

The third in the course of Saturday lectures by members of the faculty was given Saturday evening, by Prof. Sims. The subject was "Religious Movements of the Nineteenth Century as Reflected in Literature."

Dr. S. Landon, president of the well known female college at Williamson, S. C., was the guest of President Kilgo during the days of this week.

Professor Jerome Dowd is in Charlotte visiting relatives.

COGHLAN STANDS HIS GROUNDS.

Captain of the Raleigh Affirms All He Said About the Germans.

New York, April 22.—Captain Joseph B. Coghlan and officers of the Raleigh were the guests of the Army and Navy Club tonight at the club house. Captain Coghlan made a speech in which he reiterated everything he had said about the German's the night before at the dinner given at the Union League Club. His utterances were cheered to the echo by 300 odd members and invited guests who had assembled to greet him.

ENGLISH CARLISTS ALERT.

There Are Evidences of Revived Activity, But No One Will Talk.

London, April 22.—There is renewed activity this week among English Carlists. The Earl of Ashburnham, the pretender's chief partisan in this country, refuses to say anything at present, but it is known that he and some other Englishmen recently purchased a Carlist paper published in Madrid and are now furious with indignation that the Spanish government dared to suppress a sheet owned by Englishmen and preaching Carlistism. Don Jaime, the eldest son of Don Carlos, is somewhere in the Pyrennes. That is the only admission obtainable here at present.

ed guests who had assembled to greet him.

Captain Coghlan had evidently expected to be let off without a speech, but his admirers would not have it so. He said:

"I thank you sincerely for myself and officers and my commander, Dewey. Since entering the club I have been informed that my remarks last night have given offense in Washington. For that reason I am almost afraid to say anything now. What I did say last night was true. I said what I did about a certain power because its representatives hampered us in our work. They were continually nagging us, damn 'em, and we were ready for them. I have read a good many stories in the newspapers about what Dewey had to contend with, but not one of them placed our gallant old admiral in the proper light."

Washington, April 22.—The Navy Department will not take any action whatever in regard to the Coghlan incident. Stories sent out this afternoon that Secretary Long was holding up his promotion are unfounded.

THE RALEIGH LINERS

Her Sailing Delayed on Account of a Social Affair Monday Night.

New York, April 22.—Secretary Long has revoked the sailing orders sent to Captain Coghlan, and the Raleigh may not leave New York for several days instead of tomorrow. There are several reasons for the Secretary's decision. Captain Coghlan was especially anxious that the officers of the cruiser should have a chance to attend a smoker and vaudeville which had been proposed by Wm. McAdoo, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and several other men who wanted to have a good time all together before they left the city. The smoker and vaudeville will be held Monday night at the Waldorf-Astoria.

SMALLPOX IN VIRGINIA.

Expert Army Surgeon Sent to Confer With State Health Authorities.

Richmond, April 22.—Surgeon Wirttenbaker, sent by Surgeon General Wyman at the request of Governor Tyler to look into the smallpox condition in the eastern portion of Virginia, arrived here tonight. He will confer with the Governor and State Board of Health with the view of establishing a quarantine system. Cases are numerous and so widely scattered as to be beyond local control.

EX-GOV. ALTGELD ILL.

And Fears Are Entertained for His Recovery.

Chicago, April 22.—Ex-Governor Altgeld is critically ill at his home. He is suffering from grippe. Two physicians are in constant attendance. From their report today his condition is of the gravest nature. The ex-Governor's friends decided today to call in several additional doctors.

STEAMER GENERAL WHITNEY SUNK.

New Orleans, April 22.—A dispatch received here says the steamer General Whitney was sunk fifty miles east of Cape Canaveral, on the Florida coast.

Twelve men, including the captain, are reported to be drowned, and fifteen are still missing. The Whitney left this port for New York Tuesday. She was an extra freighter on the Morgan line.

CLARK, THE TURFMAN, COMMITS SUICIDE.

Memphis, Tenn., April 22.—Col. M. Lewis Clark, a well-known turfman, committed suicide here this morning. He was considered the foremost racing judge and authority on turf matters in America. He had been for a long time a sufferer from stomach and throat troubles, and his suicide is attributed to despondency over ill health.

JEALOUSY OR A QUARREL.

Frederick, Md., April 22.—Excited either by jealousy or a lovers' quarrel, Edward Morgan, a prosperous farmer, this afternoon shot Ortha Hershman, his eighteen-year-old sweetheart, so seriously that she will die, and then sent a bullet into his own head. He may recover.

DEATH OF REPRESENTATIVE BAIRD.

Washington, April 22.—Representative Baird, of Eastport, La., died here this afternoon after two months' illness. For many years he has been prominent in Louisiana politics, and was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress. He was a Democrat.

MANY WOO THE BELLE OF THE NAVY

Cities Anxious to Honor the Cruiser Raleigh.

THREE ONLY ARE SUCCESSFUL

After Visiting Philadelphia, Wilmington and Charleston, the Raleigh Will Be Laid Up for Repairs—Spanish Gun to be Presented at Wilmington—Colonel Boyd's Speech at New York.

Washington, April 22.—Special.—The belle of our navy, the cruiser Raleigh, is wooed by all the large cities along the Atlantic seaboard. Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, Charleston, Wilmington, Del., Wilmington, N. C., Savannah, Annapolis, Newport and Boston have all asked for her, but only Philadelphia, Wilmington, N. C., and Charleston will enjoy her company. The other cities have been refused the honor of receiving her, as it is the intention of the Navy Department to put the Raleigh out of commission and into the dry dock at Portsmouth, N. H., for repairs, not later than May 23. Her welcome home at New York is to be followed by another reception to the gallant cruiser at Philadelphia. She is ordered to report at the Quaker City by April 27, and will remain there several days. Already preparations have been perfected to make her trip up the historic Delaware one continuous ovation. From Philadelphia the Raleigh will proceed to Wilmington. The exact date of her arrival is not yet known, but as near as it can be ascertained it will be Monday, May 8. In Wilmington the ceremony of presenting the captured Spanish cannon to the city of Raleigh will take place on the deck of the goodly ship. The occasion will doubtless be one to be remembered.

On the occasion of the Raleigh's visit to Wilmington quite a delegation of North Carolinians from here, headed by Assistant Attorney General Boyd, will go there to participate in the ceremonies.

After the Wilmington ceremonies the Raleigh will go to Charleston, S. C., arriving there May 10 and remaining until May 14. The good ship will then, according to present plans, depart at once for Portsmouth, N. H., which she is expected to reach by May 21. She will make no stops en route. It will probably take three months to make the necessary repairs on the Raleigh. A board of survey has been ordered to examine her, and it will depend upon their report whether she is cut in two or lengthened as she is now advocated in the construction bureau of the navy. This change, it is asserted, will make her more effective. There is some sentiment in the argument advanced not to materially alter her. In her present shape she was effective against the Spanish fleet in Manila bay, as the Spaniards who are still alive will testify, and in time to come the warship that fired the first gun in that most marvelous of modern naval engagements, unchanged, unaltered, will be more of a subject of veneration if left the same as of old. Still the board of survey will make its recommendation and it will then be for Secretary Long to decide what to do regarding her.

That portion of the North Carolina committee, temporarily residing here, who visited New York to participate in the reception to the cruiser, have returned and are enthusiastic in praise of her officers and crew. Through some mistake William Jennings Bryan and his party were put upon the launch of the Raleigh to be conveyed to that ship instead of the Raleigh committee, and in this single respect the ceremonies did not run smooth. When started, however, all went well. The press reports, there was so much to say, did not do full justice to the several speeches. That of Col. James E. Boyd, on behalf of Mrs. Haywood, was one that was but briefly mentioned. It should be preserved in connection with the Raleigh's return to her native shores, and in no way can this be better done than its insertion in the Post in full. It reads:

COLONEL BOYD'S SPEECH.

"Captain Coghlan and Gentlemen, Officers and Crew of the Cruiser Raleigh.

"The whole nation is ready to pay tribute to you and your comrades for the great glory which your heroic deeds have brought to the country and to the flag. No words or symbols or great omissions can pay the debt of gratitude which we owe you; but engraved upon the hearts of a proud and patriotic people is a monument of love and appreciation which is more durable than brass or marble. No portion of the United States feels more deeply sensible of your great achievements than the people of North Carolina. The war ship which you, Captain Coghlan, have so worthily commanded derives her name from the capital city of North Carolina, and the citizens of our grand old commonwealth are justly inspired with the highest pride in its magnificent work which you have done.

"When the Raleigh was launched at Norfolk she was christened by Mrs. A. W. Haywood, one of North Carolina's most accomplished and popular ladies, the daughter of a distinguished Governor of the State, the late Governor Holt. Mrs. Haywood has, consequently, felt great interest in the career of the Raleigh, and she desires to present to the ship, through her brave commander, a substantial testimonial.

"I, therefore, as the representative of Mrs. Haywood, and at her request, now present to the ship, to accompany the punch-bowl heretofore a gift from the people of North Carolina, the one dozen punch-cups which you see before you, and which have, at Mrs. Haywood's instance, been manufactured, prepared and specially engraved for this purpose. Please accept them on behalf of the ship, and may the name of the Raleigh live long in the memories of our people, and may the deeds of her heroic commander and crew adorn forever the brightest pages of our country's history!

"As often as you tip these cups remember that they are the gift of a patriotic North Carolina woman, and that the people of North Carolina, the place which gave the first life of a hero in the war with Spain, will always cherish the name and the fame of the fighting cruiser the Raleigh."
