

WHERE TO WORSHIP.

No Electric Fans in These Churches but the Pure Air of the Gospel.

At the majority of the churches today the pulpits will be filled by the regular pastors. Where there is no announcement to the contrary this may be taken for granted.

SACRED HEART (Catholic)—Father Price, the pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Strangers in city invited, as is the public generally.

CHRIST CHURCH (Episcopal)—Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., rector. Thirtieth Sunday after Trinity. Early celebration, 8 a. m. Sunday School, 10 a. m. Divine service and sermon, 11 a. m. Evening service, 6 p. m. Services during the week, Wednesday.

ST. SAVIOR'S CHAPEL (Episcopal)—Sunday School, 10 a. m. Morning service, 11 a. m. Night service, 8:15 p. m.

EDENTON STREET (Methodist)—The pulpit of Edenton Street Methodist Church will be occupied today at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Norman. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Joseph G. Brown, superintendent. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 8:15.—Young People's meeting every Monday evening at 8:15.

CHRISTIAN.—James L. Foster, pastor. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by Rev. C. D. Crouch of Salem, N. C. Mr. Crouch is a young Moravian minister and is a good speaker. The pastor cordially invites all Moravians living in the city, the friends and public generally to hear Mr. Crouch.

TABERNACLE (Baptist)—At 11 o'clock Dr. Simms will preach, his subject being "The Object of Christ's Mission." At night (8 p. m.), Rev. A. R. Love will preach for the last time before going to his new field in Louisiana; subject, "The Christian's Walk." Strangers cordially invited to all the services.

No official notices to the contrary having been sent in, the usual services at the other churches may be expected.

A Pathetic Truth.

(Washington Star.) Acquittal will mean the official removal of the stain upon the name of Dreyfus, and for that he longs more than for life and restoration to family. And the pathetic truth is that such, in the main, is all that it will mean or accomplish. Wife and children and friends await him, but the husband, father, friend who left them will not return to them. As his senior counsel so forcibly has said, the man now is a wreck. Persecution has destroyed the original charm of his personality, and left him dazed, distrustful and unresponsive. This is the shame which cannot be wiped out. It is the most infamous transaction of the nineteenth century, and ranks with the leading infamies of all time.

When a man wants a thing he wonders how he can get it. When a woman wants a thing she just goes and gets it.

W. E. JONES' DOUBLE DRY GOODS STORE, 210, 212 and 214 Fayetteville, Street.

The Acknowledged Cheapest Dry Goods Store in the State.

DEPART All ye odds and eds. DEPART All ye broken dozens. DEPART All ye slow selling goods. We have renegaded every nook and corner of our store for goods to make a Grand Clearing-out Sale. We sometimes get up combinations to cut a "wide swath," as the farmers say, and put in too good plums for a cheap pie, yet it always pays, it increases the excitement, and earns the confidence of would-be sceptical people. Welcome, to every money-saving person! Welcome, to those with little money needing much! Welcome, yes, doubly welcome to the people just now! It's almost needless to tell intelligent people that this a welcome opportunity for all to buy just such goods as everybody needs, and can use to an advantage, and at the same time save about half the money they would pay regularly elsewhere. This is a timely sale in more ways than one, principally when so much is needed in most households having but little to spend. Read every item carefully. Think of its real worth, and note the great saving. All these Short Cuts, Odd Dozens and Remnants are placed on center tables in our Store, and priced so low, some one will be sure to take them. Don't wait, the first buyers secure the best values, yet the lots are large and will last the week. Thousand of items not quoted in this Circular.
