STATE'S RIGHTS UPHELD.

Important School Case from Georgia

Decided by the Supreme Court. Washington, Dec. 18.—A school case from Richmond county, Ga., was deelded today in the Supreme Court, Justice Harlan sustaining the action of the school board.

The facts are these: The school board, in 1897, for economic reasons, as alleged, temporarily suspended a colored high school in Augusta, attended by about sixty pupils, in order, they said, that the funds thus saved might be diverted to the education of 300 children in primary grades. Thereupon the parents of some of the negro dearth of news from South Africa as leges brought suit to restrain the col-press dispatch from Frere there are lector of taxes from collecting so much of the tax as related to colored high no details of Buller's defeat.
