

COMING BACK SIX WEEKS HENCE

The Legislature Adjourned Last Night Till July 24

WORK OF YESTERDAY

Old Shell-fish Commissioners Voted Salaries. THE LIQUOR QUESTION Sent Satisfactorily to Both Sides.

Friday, July 24, a revival of the departing legislature morning.

Yesterday afternoon, however, a number of the outgoing evening trains, and his night after the formal adjournment.

A few more of the law-makers left Raleigh today.

The session has been a most successful and highly gratifying to the people of good government.

The simple fact that all of the Democratic members of both branches of the General Assembly.

The work done yesterday. The 25th day's proceedings.

No Money Paid Theophilus White. Mr. Tolman, of the special committee.

The report also recommends that a change in the laws governing the State Prison be changed.

Eloquent Eulogies. The committee (consisting of Messrs. Craig, Abbott and Brown).

FOUR FIRST CLASS North Carolina Post Offices Moving Upward.

THE SALARIES INCREASED Only One in the Whole List Drops Back

Washington, June 14.—Special.—The Postmaster General has issued an order making Raleigh a first-class postoffice.

By JOHN BOYLE

Washington, June 14.—Special.—The Postmaster General has issued an order making Raleigh a first-class postoffice.

PHILLIES CLINCH IT

Their Victory Over St. Louis Made Sure. Boston's Winning Streak Continues.

Philadelphia, June 14.—Philadelphia clinched its victory over St. Louis in the seventh inning.

R. H. E. Philadelphia .41010050x-11 14 1 St. Louis .210100010-5 12 6

Boston 7, Pittsburg 3

Boston, June 14.—Lewis pitched superb ball for Boston today.

R. H. E. Boston .23000020x-7 10 3 Pittsburg .00000021-3 5 2

Brooklyn 3, Cincinnati 0

Brooklyn, June 14.—A heavy storm stopped the Brooklyn-Cincinnati game in the sixth inning.

R. H. E. Brooklyn .000102-3 5 0 Cincinnati .000000-0 3 1

Standing of the Clubs

Table with 4 columns: Club, Won, Lost, Pct.

American Association Games

At Chicago: Chicago, 3; Indianapolis, 0. At Milwaukee: Milwaukee, 7; Buffalo, 3.

Republican Leaders Say There is No State for Vice President

Philadelphia, June 14.—All the prominent Republican leaders here today called on Senator Hanna.

ASSEMBLY A GREAT SUCCESS

Some of the Matters Discussed at Yesterday's Session. Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, N. C., June 14.—Special.—This was a public school day.

dent should be a practical teacher; in character a paradox; combining the bold, inflexible leader with the faithful servant.

Superintendent R. B. Hunter, of Mecklenburg and A. L. Rucker, of Rutherford condemned partisan and sectarian bias in the administration of public school affairs.

Prof. M. L. White, better known as "Cora Cracker," is quite an humorist. He had the assembly roaring with laughter.

Superintendent Wilkinson informed the assembly that Edgecombe had all the money needed for public schools.

BOXERS BURN BRIDGES

Communications of Foreign Expedition Cut Off. ALL DISPATCHES OMINOUS

Mission Buildings at Yunan Fu Destroyed—Japan Taking Steps to Increase Her Forces in China—Feeling of Bitterness Toward Russia Increases—Five Thousand Troops May Be Sent from Manila to China.

London, June 14.—A dispatch to a news agency from Tien Tsin of today's date says: "Railway communication between Tien Tsin and the foreign expedition under Admiral Seymour which is on its way to Peking has been cut three miles beyond Yang Tsin, the second station from here.

Such other advices as have been received here indicate no important improvement in the Chinese situation.

OPEN CLASH EXPECTED

Chinese Imperial Troops Will Oppose International Forces Entering Peking. London, June 15.—The rumor from Shanghai that Chinese regular troops were preparing to oppose the entry of the international force into Peking.

These Shanghai correspondents profess that Admiral Seymour will not now advance beyond Lang Fang pending the arrival of reinforcements.

Another Shanghai rumor is to the effect that 400 Russian troops, with four guns, have arrived outside Peking.

TROOPS MAY BE SPARED

Washington, June 14.—The Navy Department received the following dispatch from Rear Admiral Kempff this morning: "Fongku, June 13.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Twenty-five hundred men on road to Peking, relief legation."

This dispatch is regarded as very important by War and Navy Department officials.

At the State Department it was said that while the American troops are acting in coalition with those of the other powers in forcing a path to Peking.

It is possible that the Russian and English troops may attempt to patrol the city and act as a guard.

The Burnside's Precious Cargo. New York, June 14.—The transport Burnside, which left New York yesterday for Porto Rico, carried $1,000,000 of gold.

It was reported by the Quartermaster's Department that there were already more than 200,000 men at Manila to rush the troops to Taku.

turbance 1,000 men will be immediately sent to aid the marines. Word was received at the State Department today that large forces of Japanese troops were being prepared to advance to Chinese territory.

Beilin, June 14.—The foreign warships in Chinese waters have been increased by the arrival of the German cruiser Kaiserin Augusta.

Rumor of a Battle

London, June 15.—A dispatch to The Times from Shanghai says that a telegram from Peking reports a serious engagement between Admiral Seymour's force and the Chinese under General Ting Fu Siang near Peking.

Such other advices as have been received here indicate no important improvement in the Chinese situation.

CAMPAIGN ASSESSMENTS

Overstreet Considers Collecting Them a Very Commendable Occupation. Washington, June 14.—Considerable comment has been caused here over the fact that the Republican congressional committee, through F. F. Schrader, has asked the capitol employes to devote the extra month's salary Congress voted them—$50,000—with the committee.

Mr. Schrader has been connected with this committee through two campaigns and has the full confidence and respect of the committee.

A Burglar Fatally Wounded. Chicago, June 14.—Monroe McKean, a burglar and porch climber, was shot and fatally wounded in Lake View late last night.

Smallpox in Cincinnati. Cincinnati, June 14.—There are seventy-five cases of smallpox in the city, nearly all in the suburbs of Mount Auburn and Corviller.

One Outlines the Issues and the Other Predicts Democratic Victory. Chicago, June 14.—The following statements by William J. Bryan and Chairman Jones, of the Democratic National Committee, are published by The Tribune today.

"Money, imperialism and trusts will be the three great issues in the Democratic platform. Money includes silver and paper, imperialism carries militarism and the Boer war."

"I believe that Colonel William J. Bryan will carry every state he carried in 1896, and moreover will carry Kentucky and Maryland."

The great fight will be in making the change of the currency of the island. The Burnside will proceed to Santiago and other eastern Cuban ports and bring some of the Cuban teachers to Boston where they will take a summer normal course at Harvard.

"I believe that Colonel William J. Bryan will carry every state he carried in 1896, and moreover will carry Kentucky and Maryland."

Secretary Root returned to the War Department this morning after a five days' visit to West Point.

It was reported by the Quartermaster's Department that there were already more than 200,000 men at Manila to rush the troops to Taku.

Such other advices as have been received here indicate no important improvement in the Chinese situation.

Another Shanghai rumor is to the effect that 400 Russian troops, with four guns, have arrived outside Peking.

Such other advices as have been received here indicate no important improvement in the Chinese situation.