Offers a Monthly Payment Investment Certificate.

One Hundred Dollars per share, for 100 monthly payments of eighty cents.
The certificate is redeemed at the end of 100 months by the payment of $100 cash.
This gives to the wage earner the best savings and investment plan ever offered.
Liberal settlement made in case of death, or certificate will be matured from the guarantee fund.
Forty thousand dollars of these certificates have been sold in Raleigh during the past six months.

The late C. P. Huntington has said that if a young man will save and invest at interest twenty-five cents per day he will become a rich man. We say that if a young man or woman will begin to save and invest twenty-five cents per day in the MECHANICS' AND INVESTORS' UNION, that at the age of sixty they will have accumulated from the investment nearly FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS. And also that the effort to save and invest it will give a financial education that will be worth double the amount saved. FIVE CENTS PER DAY WILL MATURE $200 CERTIFICATE. ### WEDDING IN DURHAM

Joseph Coplan and Miss Jacobson Married Sunday.

SUPPER IN OPERA HOUSE

Cutting Scrape at Hickstown Under Outrageous Circumstances—Mrs. Sarah Taylor Dead at Chapel Hill—Elder Isaac Jones Goes to Person County to Marry—A Death in Durham and One in Florida.

Durham, N. C., Aug. 27.—Special.—There was a Hebrew wedding in high life here last night. The contracting parties were Mr. Joseph Coplan and Miss Rosa Johnson both of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. A. Max, one of Durham's big merchants, in the presence of a large number of the friends of the young people, among the number being many gentiles as well as Jews. Both the Hebrew and American marriage were performed by Rabbi H. Heilig. Supper was served to the guests in the opera house, it having been rented for the occasion. The Jewish festivities following the wedding lasted until late last night. Among those who attended the wedding were several prominent Hebrews from Chicago and other large cities.

Late Saturday night there was a cutting scrape near Hickstown, two miles west of Durham and one man came near losing his life. Ed. Crabtree was the man cut and those implicated in the cutting were Jim Browning, Ed. Dezer and Major Hamlin. Warrants were issued for their arrest yesterday and Browning and Dezer were picked up, but Hamlin had made his escape. They gave bond for their appearance, but when the time for trial came this morning they could not be found. Crabtree was called out of his home, he says, and without a moment's warning they murderously assaulted him, cutting him on the back of the head, side of his face and making a ten-inch gash in his back. The defendants in this case have a long and then a complete record of dangerous characters and this assault is not the first case of the kind in which they have been involved.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor, a wealthy lady, died at her home in Chapel Hill early Saturday morning. The deceased was about 60 years of age and had been in failing health for some time. Last year she had a fall and was considerably injured. She never fully recovered from this and then a complication of diseases set in that hastened the end. Mrs. Taylor has one sister, Miss Hattie Cole, who also lives at Chapel Hill. Two sons also survive her, Dr. Isaac Taylor, superintendent of the Mecklenburg State Hospital, and Mr. James Taylor, who at one time held a high position with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Her remains were embalmed by Messrs. R. T. Howerton & Son, undertakers of this city, and today were carried to New Bern, her old home, for interment.

Elder Isaac Jones, of the Primitive Baptist church, who lives in the eastern part of the State, has gone over into Person county on an important mission. Tomorrow morning he will lead to the hymenal altar Miss O'Brian, who lives near Roxboro. The bride-to-be is a sister of Mr. H. D. O'Brian, of this city. Tomorrow the bride and groom will pass through here on their way to their home in the eastern part of the State.

Mr. W. O. Bennett, late of Granville county, died at his home in Vickers Avenue in the western part of the city this morning at 9 o'clock. Typhoid fever was the cause of his death. He was taken ill about five weeks ago and for several days previous to his death had been in a dying condition. The deceased was about 75 years of age and left a young wife and one child. Tomorrow his remains will be taken to his old home at Bethel church, Granville county, for interment.

News has reached Durham of the death of Mrs. Mallette, relict of the late Dr. W. P. Mallette, of Chapel Hill, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. J. W. Mallette, in Florida. The deceased was about 75 years of age and made her home in Chapel Hill. For a year or more she had been in failing health and finally went to the home of her son. It was of no avail, however, and the end came Friday night.

To Present the Name of Atwater
Editor Post—Chatham county will present the name of John W. Atwater before the congressional convention for nomination for the following reasons:
First, it has always been customary to give a faithful representative two terms or more as an endorsement of his course. Mr. Atwater has made as loyal a representative of the Democratic party during his term in Congress as any man who has ever represented us.
Second, when Atwater made the race two years ago every man that now wants what rightfully belongs to Atwater had the chance to make the race. Atwater made the race, redeemed the district and has shown himself ever since the worthy representative of a worthy constituency.

Third, Mr. Atwater worked unceasingly in the last campaign, having made ninety-five speeches for the amendment in the Fourth district, besides he gave liberally to the campaign fund.
The nomination of Mr. Atwater would be failing to recognize the services of this old veteran, performed for the white people in this district in two of the hottest campaigns ever fought in North Carolina.

ELIZABETH CITY

Hon. C. H. Mebane Delivers a Lecture Before the Colored Normal—William McQueen Returns to His Former Home in Scotland.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Aug. 25. Correspondence of The Morning Post.
Hon. C. H. Mebane visited our city yesterday. The prime object of his visit was to deliver a lecture before the Colored Normal, now in session in this place. His lecture was eminently practical and very suggestive and helpful. The Normal, which is under the efficient management of Prof. P. W. Moore, has been largely attended. Its enrollment has reached 107, representing thirteen different counties.

Mr. Mebane left on the morning train for Raleigh. He looks well and seems to be in good shape for the enormous work of the school room, upon which he is soon to enter. May success attend the efforts of one who has evinced such deep and abiding interest in the education of the State.

A very attractive catalogue of the Atlantic Collegiate Institute has been issued. From its pages we glean valuable data as to its interesting history, its thorough equipment and its large enrollment. The prospects for a good attendance for the incoming year are fine.

Mr. William McQueen has left for his old home in Scotland. He has been in our city for a number of years, his genial, social, gentlemanly bearing won for him many warm friends who regret to see him leave.

Mr. Jno. F. Williams, who has been in the employ of Mr. C. W. Overman for quite awhile, has accepted a position with Mr. J. P. Steger.

The genial countenance of Mr. Smith N. Brickhouse was noticed on our streets yesterday.

Mr. C. E. Kramer, of the firm of Kramer Brothers, made a business trip to Norfolk today.

Mr. E. F. Aydtlett is in Winfall taking depositions in some important case.

The mayor's court was the centre of attraction this morning. There were several parties who attempted to paint the town red and in consequence had to contribute liberally to the town's revenue. Old John Barleycorn never fails to do the boys up.

Rev. R. C. Beaman has returned from his outing.

Rev. Josiah Elliott is in the city today.

HIGH POINT

Barn Struck by Lightning and Burned—Firm Recently Burned Out Finding New Locations—Shoe Factory and Tannery at Archdale Closed Permanently

High Point, N. C., Aug. 25. Correspondence of The Morning Post.
Lightning struck a barn on the farm of W. H. Pegrum, a few miles from town, burning it and its contents amounting to $400.

Joseph J. Neave, a Quaker preacher, who came here for yearly meeting and was taken ill, is still quite feeble at Hollowell boarding house. John Watson, another minister, is with Mr. Neave.

The firms who were burned out are now busy locating themselves. Sapp's Racket will occupy the John A. Lindsay store room. G. H. Kearney & Bro. will occupy the J. M. Cochrest building. Cecil & Falls, livery men, have opened in Beneen's stables.

Ed. Kearns and bride will board with Mrs. Harmon until they can locate themselves in a home to their liking.

The insurance adjusters have been on the ground and have adjusted nearly all claims.

Wide Rankins, bookkeeper for the Southern Chair Company, will shortly leave High Point to travel for a Western house.

The Archdale shoe shop has closed down indefinitely. This is an enterprise that has supported the village for years. The tannery will also be closed. This tannery has been running fifty years or more.

An Error Corrected
To the Editor of The Morning Post.
I feel it my privilege to correct a statement made by your Goldsboro correspondent in regard to the proprietor of these springs. Having boarded here for several weeks and knowing all about the situation I do not hesitate to affirm that the boarders at the other hotel here have never been forbidden to partake of the water of the Seven Springs, but simply that they pay for it.

The seven Springs have been well patronized this season and we are all much benefited and are well pleased with them and their management.

50,000 COPIES

OF TURNER'S N. C. ALMANAC
Will be Issued for the Year 1901

To advertise is simply to make known, who you are, where you are, and what you have to sell. How to do this effectually, and at the smallest possible cost is the problem for you to solve. The failure to obtain desired results from advertising is due to the way some people do it, and they invariably say, "It does not pay." The judicious way is to use a medium that has reputation, circulation and permanency. Turner's N. C. Almanac has been the State Standard for 64 years, has an annual circulation of 50,000 copies, and remains a standing advertisement for a year. Advertising rates upon application.
