Among the prominent speakers to be present are B. R. Lacy, president of the State Sunday School Association; Revs. F. W. Farries, W. Carey Newton, B. W. Spillman, D. Swindell, J. W. Bryan, John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Messrs, R. N. Simms, Jo H. Weathers, George E. Hood, R. B. Raiford, H. B. Parker, Jr., and Joseph E. Peterson. of welcome. Important topics have been selected and it is thought great good will come to the Sunday school cause from this great gathering of workers. Heretofore when the convention has been held in the city our country friends have complained at the lack of interest manifested by Sunday school workers of the city. Now this will not of course be the case this time. Certainly we have in the city a very large number who are active Sunday school workers. and many, while not regarded in the of interest on the part of our city folks against Guilford college, but it has been this time, The Post man will do the informing act.
