Woolen Dress Goods

There are many kinds of "Special Sales." There is that kind which is brought to your notice with wearisome frequency and which involves goods of have a healthy town, and our splendid inferior grade, manufactured expressly for "catch" purposes. There is that kind which is gotten up for the sole purpose of getting rid of old and unsalable goods. Then there is that kind, the genuine article, which offers bargains in up-to-date goods. Our patrons know from past experience, that when we advertise a special sale they can depend upon securing bargains. They know the styles are late and correct. They know the goods are of first quality of their respective grades. They know that the goods are the product of the best factories. There- Walter, son of Capt. D. J. Dr. Rumple next spoke of the member-ship of the church during his pastorate. At its beginning, November 24, 1860, there were 91 resident members. Of these, only 9 remain today. The first shortly after the firing on Fort Sumter and the secession of the State. Dr. Rumple spoke of a brief experience as army chaplain in eastern Carolina and Virginia in which he observed there were more survivors at the front than at home. The membership of the church shows additions of 704 during Dr. Rumples pastorate, the largest number in any one year being in 1887, immediately after a revival held by Evangelist Pear-
