THE MORNING POST.

osecution Files Documents and Examines Witnesses

Col. J. C. Harris and B. Perry Examined-Col. Kenan on the Stand-Lawyers Contest Every Point

The managers and counsel for the secution and the defendants and their asel in the impeaciment trial arrivand took the seats assigned them veral moments in advance of the hour 2 o'clock noon) set for the session of

The balconies were crowded with las and the lobbies througed with men, thy of them being members of the louse, when the President called the and to order, exactly at noon by the Cook."

the sergeant-ar-arms made the customy proclamation and the roll of Senawas called, 48 Senators answering. The reading of the journal of last y's proceedings was dispensed with.

the Arrington offered an amend in, vitiont the formality of a rollli, which was adopted.

he proceedings of the morning session | question competent.

three-hours session of the court was J. C. L. Harris, who was attorney Shoophilus White, and Clerk of the Perquimans county, The Col. T. S. Kenan, clerk Supreme Court, was in progress hour of adjournment arrived. brilliant array of legal talent on sides opened up for the first time ing the afternoon. The admissibility ertain testimony provoked lengthy in the first district?" arguments. The defendants ob-I to many questions and their obons were sustained in the majority ustances. The prosecution attacked manner in which "the case agreed" writ of mandamus was instituted 'erquimens county. The records in case were sought to be introduced. defence resisted stubbornly, mainresponsible for records they had r read or sern. President Turner susand the objection of the counsel for Again he sustained their ction when the prosecution endeav- that time?" to introduce the letter which Attor-Harris sent to the clerk of the court I' reprimans accompanying the records n the case agreed.

Morning Session

The President announced that the nt was ready to proceed with the and of David Moffitt Furches as vit?" I Justice of the Supreme Court, and meta January 7, 1901, before Asso- nie, . Justice Montgomery of the Sume Count. (Read as others, with blary of State's certificate). text piece of evidence we offer entitled transcript of record from Clerk of the Superior Court of Perin the case of White. of for proscention then offered a for defense objected (through | considered. affer the original demand, Mr. of a presiding officer.

h was read). Next, the man- | sion. issued to Worth, State treassame date .(Read.)

Mr. J. C. L. Harris, was several minutes before he decantime, Senator London sugthat court sit till 2 o'clock, and a order to that effect. Sender Foushee opposed this. We have fixed the hours for the sitting of his court, and they should be rigidly adacred to without change, unless there some very unusual and important reaon for it. His observation and expeience had been that this course was always productive of the best results. Senator London thereupon withdrew his order, and as it was nearly 1 o'clock

AFTERNOON SESSION

lar hour, 3 p. m.

When the Court of Impeachment convened at three p. m. the galleries and obbies were thronged with people, the faces of fair women predominating.

Senator London stated that after consultation with counsel on both sides and members of the court, he had decided to to introduce a resolution providing that the court should meet on Saturdays at 10 a, m. and adjourn at 2:30 p, m, and that the hours of the court on other days should be from 12 m. to 2:30 p. m., and from 4 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.

The resolution failed of passage by the vote of 28 to 16.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris Witness

Mr. J. C. L. Harris, who was the atorney for Theophilus White in his case against the Auditor and Treasurer was the first witness. He was examined by Hon. Cyrus B. Watson for the prosecuan hour and a half.

the court as to what counsef appeared in the case of White against the Auditor and Treasurer?

Mr. Harris-"No one but myself." "Who appeared for the defendants?"

"In what county was the suit institu-

"In Perquimans county."

"Where were the facts agreed upon?"

"In this city." "Was the Auditor and Treasurer pres-

Capt. Chas. M. Cook, for the defense, at to the Rules. No. 18, governing the swer he said the prosecution referred to President Turner said he thought the

> Mr. Harris-"They were not present. "Who agreed on the facts?"

"Mr. Busbee and myself. "Were you present when the affidavits were signed? "I drew them, but was not present when sworn to before Mr. Cade. "What was done with the papers af-

"They were sent to Judge Starbuck at Washington, N. C., I think "You sent them to him somewhere ter they were made out and sworn to?"

"Do you remember the date the facts agreed upon were sworn to?"

preme Court, was it not?

"Was the Attorney General consulted about the case?"

"I think not."

"I think so. In May 1900."

"When was the next time you took any steps toward enforcing the judg-

"I don't remember. It was in the fall along towards October "What was the first thing you did?" "I had a talk with the now dead Chief The first piece of evi- Justice. I next asked the court to is will offer sue a peremptory mandamus. The Chief copy of the ef- Justice or Judge Furches-I do not reonth of Robert M. Douglas, as As- call which-asked me if I had given the scians Justice and sworn to before the other side notice. I said I did not think is of the court of Guilford county, in they were entitled to notice. I thought stury. 1897. (The formal oath as that having a final judgment by the coars and le Justice Douglas, and certifi- I was entitled to mandamus. The court at clerk were then read by Mr. insisted that I notify the other side. All the members of the court were present. heart piece of evidence we will I then telegraphed Mr. Cook, counsel for is a copy of the oath of David M. | defendants. Mr. Cook waived notice, A. C. Avery, Associate Justice | damus, Judge Furches wanted to know P. Sura-me Court, January 1, 1895 if I had an affidavit. The court declined to hear the matter without an affidavit." "Did you refuse to make an affida-

"I did not. I did not have one with

"And did you make an affidavit?"

"Why did you not make out an affi

"I had a reason in my mind. I never intended to make an affidavit. This answer was objected to by Capt. Cook and Mr. Osborne, who asked that by of the letter of attorney the question be stricken out. They held the intent of the witness was not to be (Islamin) and the document was Capt. Cook stated that the question appointment requires min to sail from British and three were Dutchmen, who Insisting upon this must sooner or later be settled and ceive traveling expenses and transporta- had taken the oath of neutrality. They n, the prosecution withdrew the he asked to know in what manner and tion for himself and family.

the demand for the warrant witness could not testify as to intent. in doubt as to a ruling what should that the son was born in 1863, being now escape. Mr. Guthrie, "is a certified he do. He asked if a division could but thirty-seven years of age. He speaks mandamus writ issued to be called and whether the matter would Spanish and French fluently and is the Senator London said that when a question of evidence was under consideradocuments were filed with tion the presiding officer decided, though of the court of impeachment, a member could call for a division, and suppounced by counsel for the if sustained by one-fifth of the menithat they would next intro- bers of the court could appeal. He said this was the rule in both the John-Harris was called, but not being son and Holden impeachment trials. Mr. Woodard-"Is any discussion permitted in calling for a division.' Mr. London-"A call for a division is the hours fixed for the court | made without discussion. It is not nec-13 to 61 be changed for this essary to go into executive session." Mr. Watson, of counsel for the prose-

(Continued on Sixth Page.)

the court jadourned to meet at the regu- Russians and British in Unplesant Dispute

Count Von Buelow Says Ne- Royal Party Off for Australia Seasoned with a Dash of Fun gotiations are Progressing Soon Be Withdrawn

London, March 15 .- A dispatch from Tien Tsin says the dispute between the Russians and the British over the railway siding is becoming acute. The outin close proximity to each other. The Mr. Watson-"Will you please inform British have been re-inforced. Trouble is imminent unless the Russians retire. A dispatch from Berlin says that Count Von Buelow introduced a bill in the Reichstag today appropriating 123,-"Mr. F. H. Busbee and Mr. C. A. 000,000 marks for the expenses of the German expedition to China.

In introducing the bill he said that slow but continuous progress was being made in the negotiations between the powers and the Chinese peace envoys. definitely concluded.

at Pekin, Count Von Beulow said the powers had not yet arrived at an agreement on the question of the amount of of compliments from President and Mrs. other things said: indemnity to be demanded from China. McKinley. It had been decided, nowever, that each power should specify the expense it had been put to for the expeditions to China, and that this amount would be communicated to every other power. Then the Chinese government would have to India, which has just been completed, make propositions as to how these sums shows a population of 294,000,000, an "The case was then carried to the Su- quate guarantees are given by China tality from disease, there has been a that these demands will be properly met great decline in the birth rate. The na-"After the decision by Judge Star- the German troops will leave the prov- in the birth rate. This result was quite ince of Pechili.

Chancellor Von Beulow expressed the hope that the German troops would never again have to visit Pekin and that Castellane Chooses Seconds "Did the court render as decision, at only German merchants and missionaries would be seen there in the future.

the situation requires or the powers de-authority that the duel is scheduled for England on that basis October 16th Leuons. This convention did not contain any seret clauses and did not refer to Manchuria, as was stated in certain quarters when it was signed, Manchuria, the chanceller said, was of little importance

Lamar C. Quintero Appointed a Judge in the Philippines

New Orleans, March 15.-Lamar harles Quintero, who was recently called to Washington at the request of President McKinley for a personal in-killed and wounded. terview relative to the former's appointment to a district judgeship in the Philippines, returned to the city today. He had refused the district judgeship on account of the small salary attached to the office, but, upon going to his . Harris making demand upon that the statement was not communi- office this morning, he found there and Aver for the warrant upon the cated to the court. They maintained that official appointment from the Philippine Commission as one of seven supreme: indges of the Philippine Islands. The litor, and dated October 17, be settled in open or executive ses- Rica. He is married and has several children.

WAR DEPARTMENT'S BIG UNDERTAKING

Washington, March 15 .- The officers of the adjutant general's and quester- are serious. master's departments are devoting their | Col. H. V. Horton, manager of the earnest attention at present to the send- Riverside race track, has arranged a race ing of regular troops to the Philippines for next Monday between Washington people, and some of them worthy and deto take the places of the volunteers who horses, Advance and Republic, for a serving measures, are being brought home as rapidly as the tween Jim Monroe and Fisher. The transportation facilities of the govern- horses are evenly matched. Heavy bets ment will permit. The entire volunteer have been placed, army is to be brought home and discharged before the first of July. New regiments are being recruited and organized in this country with a view to their early transfer to the Philippines. The main object of the officials is to prevent any material reduction in General MacArthur's army of 60,000 men. There are about 40,000 regular troops in the Orient, including those now in China, The volunteer army, which is being withdrawn, numbers nearly 25,000: In order to keep the strength up to 60,000 it will be necessary to transport 20,000 fresh troops from the United States before the first of July. This is an immense undertaking, and is taxing the resources of the War Department to the REGULAR LOVE

London, March 15.-The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York left Vic-Slowly—Hopes Troops May the first stage of their journey to Australia. The king and queen accompanied them to Portsmouth, where the duke and duchess will board the steamship Ophir, which has been converted into a royal yacht.

Affair of Honor Abandoned

Berne, Switzerland, March 15,-Owing shadowing them constantly, the duel betion, Mr. Harris was on the stand for posts of the British and Russians are tween De Roulede and Buffet has been abandoned. The seconds of both men met at midnight in the Hotel Beau Rivag at Ouchy, and a verbal agreement was reached that the meeting had been prevented by force of law of the Swiss authorities, that the same obstacles would be met everywhere, and that as political, the honor of the principals was safe and the incident was closed

M. Buffet to Basie.

Flowers from the White House Washington, March 15.-A magnificent Germany, he said, had refused to re- floral wreath has been sent from Washed to come there on a special mission rison. It is of Golden Gate and Amerof penance for the murder of Baron Von ican Beauty roses and calla lilies inter-Detailing the present state of affairs special direction of the President. The pro tempore, being in the chair.) wreath has been forwarded to Indianap- Senator Webb made a particularly elo-

Population of India

Calcutta, March 15 .- The census of of the German troops in China, the chan- the first time, really remained stationcellor said, will depend on the develop- ary, the increase being due to improved ments of affairs and especially on the methods of taking the census. Owing good faith of the Chinese government in to the two famines that have raged since settling the German claims. When ade- the last census was taken, and the mortive statistics show an excessive decline unexpected.

Paris, March 15.-Count Boni de Castellane has selected Count de Dion and In conclusion, Jount Von Beulow de- M. Caston Ollivet as his seconds for the clared that Field Marshal Count Von duel with M. De Rodays, the Figaro Waldersee, the German officer who is editor whom he chastised yesterday for all feel like putting our arms around you chief in command of the allies in China, an alleged insult printed in the news- and thanking you for your excellent emotions of the heart are given expreswill not remain there a day longer than paper mentioned. It is said on excellent tomorrow.

Count Boni was accused of betraying The chancellor said that some of the the De Roulede Royalist plot for a coup powers had economic interests in China during the funeral of President Faure in while others had political ones. Ger- 1899. It is said here today that the many, he declared, belonged in the first person who came from M. De Roulede lass and had signed a convention with on the evening of the funeral with the story of the plot was M. Honore De

Mexicans Defeat Yaquis

Orti, State of Sonora, Mexico, March 15.-Another engagement between small force of Yoqui Indians and several hundred Mexican troops, commanded by The Associate Justice and sworn and said I was entitled to the man- OFFICE SOUGHT THE MAN Colonel Torres, has occurred near Marcial, according to advices received here paring to make a raid of the citizens. when Colonel Torres' forces overtook finally routed.

The losses on the government side to him. were small. A number of Indians were

Boers Shoot Prisoners

London, March 15 .- A dispatch to the Central News from Durban says that a refugee from Klerpsdorp states that General Delarey, after General Methuen defeated him at Haretbeesfontein, had appointment requires him to sail from five prisoners shot. Two of them were had been previously arrested at Klerpsdepend stated that they would appeal could be taken from the ruling of a presiding officer.

The original demand, Mr. President Turner here stated that the witness could not testify as to intent.

The new appointee is the son of Jose dorp for refusing to fight against the Augusten Quintero, born in Cuba, but a citizen of Louisiana, who, during the witness could not testify as to intent.

NEGRO STABS NEGRO

Next Monday

Asheville, N. C., March 15.-Special.-

Last Day's Proceedings of the North Carolina Senate and Levity-Elegant Gift to Lieut-Gov. Turner--Extra

As the dying notes of the swan are always the sweetest, so were the last moto the fact that detectives have been ments of the Senate of 1901 the most (and he never expected to return, for no communication with the eastern displeasant and enjoyable.

The most interesting feature was the Senator. last, viz., the presentation of a magnificent chest of silver table-ware to Lieutendant Governor Turner, after a vote of the origin of the affair was exclusively had been tendered the president of the said in the heat of debate. Senate for his fairness and impartial M. De Roulede has gone to Milan and rulings in presiding over the sessions of the Senate, and the uniform courtesy he had extended to every Senator.

Remarks

ceive Prince Chin, the brother of the ington by President and Mrs. McKinley in and placed on a table at the head of section, etc. Chinese emperor, who had been appoint to be placed upon the bier of Gen. Har the main aisle. Senator Webb of Cleveish so as to permit adjournment at any the agreed case and no objection was Ketteler, the German minister at Pekin, twined in green. The design was preparticers, pages and other employes of the the smile that usually played over nist twined in green. until the peace negotiations had been ed by Robert Balluff, the chief florist at Senate, came forward and formally pre- kindly countenance must know that in the White House conservatory, under the sented the gift (Mr. London, president the bosom of such a man there was not

olis by express, bearing a simple card quent and feeling speech, and among tice said the record of this Senate would It is the custom to present the presid- that the Legislature of 1901 had done its

General Assembly with a testimonial of stings among its members. appreciation of their services at the close of each session of the Legislature.

But, in presenting to you this elegant piece of evidence of our regard, Mr. years. The population has, however, for is not done in a merely perfunctory kins of Granville, manner, but that it is given with the accompaniment of our highest regard for you both as an officer and as a gentleman-prompted by the deepest feelings of our hearts toward you personally. When this session of the Senate began many of us did not know you, sir, personally-now we all love you. Not one member of this body has found fault or raised objection to a single ruling or official act of yours during known as the 'father of the Senate.' the session now about to end-not even one of the Senators of the opposition party.

As for the Democratic majority, we a full man.

When those of us now gathered here with me in sorrowful regret. gone before, I feel that our posterity olina has been blessed with a Legisla- Branch library stations in Greater New in North Carolina will endorse and thank ture such as this one has proved to be. York to be operated from the central you for your good work.

It is presented, Mr. President, with the prayer that God will favor our State by increasing your sturdy tribe, freme horseness he was unable to comand shower blessings upon you every ply. day of your life.

The President's Reply

Governor Turner was visibly affected, and made a most feeling reply. He said that on an occasion like this today. The Indians had arrived within the emotions of the heart were too great a few miles of that place and were pre- to permit the tongue to give full expression to them.

He was profoundly grateful, and only monstrated his feelings of regard for basis of legislation me-and my heart overflows with gratitude that it is so.

I have tried to be fair and impartial in all my rulings and acts, and I truly the clerk. believe that in the bosoms of the minority, as well as of the majority, there fice of "State Educational Agitator" and abide warm feelings of regard for me. I could ask no greater endorsement of Aycock to the office. my official conduct than that, and I am | The bill then went on to provide the of the city under British control. They ruly, deeply grateful for it all.

passing cloud. I thank you, one and all, with all my to pass the House bill giving the negro friend and pet, the Judiciary Commit-Two Horse Races at Asheville orphan asylum an extra appropriation tee. ($1,600) to meet some of its pressing needs. This in addition to the regular annual Will Reynolds, a negro saloon employe, appropriation which that institution re-Bailey, a negro, three times. His wounds Senate had refused to pass a number of sions of this body," and a provision was adoption of the idea of Sir Robert Hart, bills calling for the expenditure of much smaller sums, in the interest of white

> A Little Nonsense New and Then After the dispatch of the business reported below, and preceding the presen- (Continued on Fifth De- topics and official equipment, tation of the testimonial to the presiding officer noted above, the Senate inhulged in a little fun-for the spirit of levity began to crop out "in spots" both sides of the chamber. Several "funny" bills were read by the

One of these was to prohibit the cary rying of intoxicating liquors by railroads express or otherwise, into Cumberland county upon any pretext (that county soon to become a prohibition county as a result of the fight between the dispensary and anti-dispensary advocates.) The bill was referred to the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. McXciil. Senator Marshall (Rep.) arose and said he wanted to thank the Senate for its courtesy to him, and as an evidence of his appreciation he offered a discount to each Senator on the price of a certain article he manufactured up in Surry

He added that Beading Clerk Cohoor "desired our congratulations," and when he heard the laughter that ensued he corrected himself and stated that he intended to say "deserved" and not "desired." That was more in accordance Money for Negro Orphans with the facts, and the Senate stopped

> Then some one suggested that the Senator from Buncombe be heard from, and Mr. Gudger made some remarks to the effect that he would leave the Senate vaders have cut the wires and there is

It had been his fault, if it is a fault, to some times advocate too strongly thanks, offered by Senator Dula (Rep.) mosities toward any one for anything One British soldier was dangerously Incidentally he touched up the Republican minortiy, which later on caused several Republican Senators to "strike back"-all "in fun," of course. Because. as Mr. Gudger said, his closest personal friend is a Republican (Senator Pritch- approached, the burghers fired on them. Senator Webb's Eloquent Presentation ard) and, as Senator Candler (Rep.) One of the scouts was severely wounded. said, the brother of Senator Gudger was | An armored train from Kimberley col-The elegant silver service was brought the Republican leader of their particular lided yesterday with a regular train near section, etc.

Senator Justice bore testimony to the kindness of heart of Senator Gudger and colling stock was considerably damaged, land, on behalf of the Senators, the of- said that any one who would observe a bad heart. Speaking more generally, Senator Jus-

He Felt Like Crying returned from a visit to the House where dered. He has captured two hundred he had listened to the farewell speech rifles, 3,900 rounds of ammunition, 2,400 should be raised. The length of the stay apparent increase of 7,000,000 in ten President, I want to assure you that it of the "father of the House," Mr. Jen-

> He referred to the burning eloquence of the gifted old minister of God, who occupied a seat in the same hall forty from Klerksdorp with some prisoners years ago, and said:

"When I hear a speech like that feel like crying-and don't ask any one to excuse me for doing so, either." It was a high compliment to the ven erable member of the House, coming "I believe in men who have souls and hearts and emotions. That one who has not a heart that can be reached is not

"It is an occasion like this that the work and uniform courtesy and patience, sion, and I want to thank every Senator This gift is laden with feelings of the here for his courtesy and kindness to before he left for Europe the retired ruest friendship and of tender personal me. I recall nothing that has been said upon this floor that I shall carry home are all called hence to join our fathers ."I thank God the State of North Car-

Senator Ward was called on to make ator Warren-that he be allowed to de-has shown a familiarity with and regard cepted there seems to be no reason to for the Consetitution of his State that doubt. The correspondence relative to would be a credit to many lawyers who the proposition was withheld from publiessay to know more about it and all to cation at Mr. Carnegie's request amtil them after a long forced march. The In- wished he was fully deserving of the prove it by their position on questions of after he had sailed for Europe. dians stood their ground well, but were kind and loving words addressed to him, legislation. Indeed, he more than once and the magnificent gift just presented during the session surprised and confounded more than one antagonist in the LOOPHOLE FOR CRIMINALS I can say, however, that every Sena- Senate by his familiarity with that tor on this floor has, before today, de-|sacred and ought-to-be-more-respected

Senator Avcock's New Office

A "new bill" was sent up and read by It provided for the creation of the of the immediate election of Senator B. F.

duties of that official, in a humorous were sentenced to decapitation by a na-He who would have friends must show manner, and stipulated that he was tive court, and today they were turned himself friendly, and I have tried sin- given full power to agitate; that he shall over by the British commander to the agitate in season and out of season; board of punishments. The English re-I shall ever remember this hour and that he shall let no opportunity escape fuse to personally supervise the execuevery Senator on this floor, and I pray to agitate, and that the amount of com- tion of death sentences. The board of Confederate States government at the a force to release them. They were shot God that each and every one of you may pensation he shall receive shall be com- punishments decline to order execution October 10, 1900, and that Senator Woodard desired to know City of Mexico. It was while the father at Womarenstad. One British subject be prosperous and happy the remainder mensurate with the amount of agitation until the emperor returns, and by so dothat when a member of the court was was stationed in Mexico on this mission who was a prisoner with them, made his of your life; that all shades and shadows he does; provided, the payment of the ing it practically sanctions the escape of may pass away from your lives as the salary does not bankrupt the treasury, the condemned men. The jail is becom-

One of the last acts of the Senate was the bill would be referred to his special in the same place were set free when the

Why the Ladies Were Thaked

thanks of the Senate to the ladies for their faithful attendance upon the sesinserted requiring Senator Currie of Bla- director of the maritime customs, that den (the most modest of all the Senators) to at once deliver an address to the but all the candidates getting the highest galleries (they were thronged with beau- degree shall be compelled, while waiting tiful women) in support of the resolu- for office, to take a course in foreign

Boers Sever Communication with Eastern Districts

FIRE ON WHITE FLAG

DeWet Back in Orange River Colony - Recent Captures by General French in the Eastern Transvaal

Cape Town, March 15 .- The Boer inhe would never be a candidate again) tricts of Cape Colony and Natal. A with only the kindest feelings for every party of Boer invaders who were evidently marching with the intention of raiding the remount depot at Bowker's measures which he championed. But he Park, Cape Colony, were met by the never harbored unkind feelings or ani- coloniel district forces and driven back

A small party of Boers in the Tarksa stad district met three colonial scouts The Boers held up their hands and showed a white flag, but when the scouts

Advices from Kitchener

London, March 15 .- The War Office has received the following dispatch from General Kitchener, dated at Pretoria yes-"DeWet is reported to have reached Senekal (northeast of Bloemfontein in go with all as a pleasant recollection; Orange River colony). "French reports from the eastern ing officers of the two branches of the work without leaving any personal Transvaal that in addition to previous captures by him and casualties to the enemy, the Boers have recently lost fortysix killed and wounded and 146 have Senator Justice added that he had just been taken prisoners or have surrenhorses, 120 mules, 370 trek oxen, 2,500

cattle and 400 cars and wagons. "It is still raining hard, and this delays the movement of French's column. "Methuen has arrived at Warrenton

FIVE MILLIONS MORE

from such a source. Mr. Justice is Carngie's Offer to New York for Branch Libraries

New York, March 15 .- Andrew Carnegies has duplicated in New York his $5,000,000 gift to Pittsburg for a library and other purposes. For some time steel magnate had frequent conferences with the library officials of the New York public library, the Astor, Lenox and Tilden libraries, as to the needs of library, and the result was that he agreed to furnish the money to build a farewell speech, but owing to his ex- sixty-five braich libraries in the great The conditions of the gift are that the Senator Morton was excused from car- city furnish the necessary land and prorying out the joking suggestion of Sen-vide satisfactory arrangements for the maintenance of these branches. The ofliver a farewell address with the Con- fer has been submitted to Mayor Van Wyck for action by the city officials. Senator Morton, though not a lawyer. That the magnificent offer will be ac

Two Chinese Burglars Escape the Death Penalty

Pekin March 15 .- Yesterday two armed burglars were captured in the section ing crowded and there is a possibility The chair announced that, at the ur- that the occupants will be released when gent request of the Senator from Wayne. the emperor returns, as all the prisoners foreign troops arrived here.

According to the emperor's command the viceroys and governors have presented A resolution was read tendering the suggestions for reform to the Chinese plenipotentiaries here. One of them emphasizes educational reforms and the the literary examinations shall continue, branches, especially those treating of foreign relations, international law, political