Where They Play Tomorrow

Raleigh at Charlotte.
Tarboro at Wilmington.

Wilmington, N. C., July 20.—Special. The Red Birds gave the Lobsters a second drubbing today and sailed them down to the tail end of the procession. Sad faces and heavy hearts portray the feelings of Lobsters at this time, for today and had little trouble in their fair. One victory this week—and that a fluke—is their record for the last six days.

The Birds played all around the Lobsters today and had little trouble in winning. Sweeney, a local twirler, did well for the home team, but their game was yellowish and dumb. Stockdale handled the sphere splendidly and was given magnificent support. Kelly's crew stole bases at will and pranced all around their opponents in a scientific interpretation of the national game.

The first two runs made by the Red Birds resulted without a hit. But as they didn't need hits they didn't make them. Mr. Sweeney was a perfect puzzle up until the sixth spasm, but as the game took on age, the visitors began to straighten with better success the curves of the pitcher with the Irish name.

Stockdale pitched superbly and at no stage of the game were the Lobsters a serious factor to be considered. Bill "D" shot em down to second with all the success of a skilled marksman. A lad named Stanley, who has given the majority of the pitchers in the league their troubles, put up a gilt edge article of ball. He ran bases like a deer, pulled down hard ones in the field, tantalized Mr. Sweeney for free passes and swatted a double that counted in the harvest of runs.

There was a drizzle of rain during the game and the weather was very threatening. Some 250 people saw the Lobsters slide to the bottom. Both captains were on the sick list, and Sorber filled Kelly's shoes, while Devlin acted in a like capacity for Clayton.

The Red Birds scored their first run in the second. Stanley was transported to first, stole second and third and scored on a wild throw by Thacker to the third sack.

The Lobsters made their lonesome run in the same inning, Warren reaching first by the free pass route, stealing second and scoring on Thacker's single.

Devlin presented the Red Birds with their second tally in the third. Stockdale was passed to first, stole second, advanced on Powers' infield hit and scored on Devlin's error of Atz' hit.

In the sixth Sweeney and Frost hit safely, but both men were retired on clever work before they reached second. In the seventh after having reached first on Henninger's error Devlin was caught at the plate, while trying to score from second on Sebring's single.

The Red Birds put a castron cinch on the game in the ninth. Sorber singled and scored on Stanley's corking two-base hit to center.

Spinners Win Again
Tarboro, N. C., July 20.—Special.—Charlotte won today in a hard fought contest. Both pitchers did good work and received excellent support. Weaver for the visitors played fine ball at center. Morrissey signed today and will be a great addition to Tarboro's pitching force.

Top of the Column

The Red Birds on top and the Lobsters at the tail end. A sad story for Lobsterville.

The Lobsters have won one game in a week, and are "kidding" "the 300."

The Red Birds are back in their proper place, where they finished the second series.

The Red Birds go to Charlotte for a series of three games, and then return home, playing the Lobsters the last three days of the week on the local grounds.

Well, Kelly's crew has made something of a record during the present series. Three out of five games with Tarboro and two out of three with both Charlotte and Wilmington is the result of their efforts.

The correspondent of the Post at Wilmington was badly mixed on Sorber's magnificent record in the game at Wilmington. Sorber had a batting average of 1.000 making three doubles, a single and a sacrifice. That is hitting a few, but a sacrifice.

And Sorber is the man the Red Birds would have missed had Devlin lived up to his agreement. What a narrow escape!

Morris, who was formerly with Norfolk, has been signed by Tarboro. Morris left Norfolk and went to Baltimore, but failed to make good in the big league.

Pulsifer has left the Tarboro team for his home North.

Sweeney seems to be all to the good.

The cemetery editor of the Star gives to remark as to Friday's game: "We thank our stars it was not a shot-out."

Did the "horse editor" of the Star carry out his threatened intentions with respect to his powder? Cheer up and be good.

"Lost you forgot, we tell you yet," the Red Birds are on top.

The Messenger said yesterday: "Meade's umpiring is good, notwithstanding the howling of some of the spectators. He knows the game and is conscientious in his work."

The $3.65 round-trip rate from Raleigh to Charlotte by the Seaboard Air Line is a serious factor to be considered. A "D" shot em down to second with all the success of a skilled marksman. A lad named Stanley, who has given the majority of the pitchers in the league their troubles, put up a gilt edge article of ball. He ran bases like a deer, pulled down hard ones in the field, tantalized Mr. Sweeney for free passes and swatted a double that counted in the harvest of runs.

FILED FOR LIFE

Party of Revenue Raiders Routed by Moonshiners

Deputy Collector and Posse Ambushed—Another Party to Be Sent to the Scene of Trouble

Nashville, Tenn., July 20.—Seven revenue officers were ambushed early today, supposedly by moonshiners, about six miles from Monterey, in Putnam county. One man was killed and one badly wounded.

A posse of six, led by a deputy collector, was creeping a steep hillside above an illicit still when they received orders to throw up their hands. They had barely located the speaker when a deadly volley from eight guns was poured upon them. Deputy Marshal Thomas Price was instantly killed and posseman C. Mackey was badly wounded. The officers returned the fire, but the moonshiners made the place so hot that the collector and the survivors retired and carried Mackey with them.

One moonshiner was heard moaning and calling to his friends that he had been mortally wounded.

Collector Bell has gathered another posse and started out to recover the body of Price.

Washington, July 20.—Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau, has received the following telegram from Collector D. A. Nunn at Nashville, Tenn.: "Deputy Collectors Bell and Stone, accompanied by Deputy Marshal Price, Special Employee Floyd and two other men went on a raid near Monterey. The party was ambushed at 4 o'clock this morning and Deputy Marshal Price was killed. Posseman Corrier and Mackey were wounded and one moonshiner was also severely wounded. The body of Price was left on the ground. A posse has been organized to return to recover the body."

Commissioner Yerkes has telegraphed the collector directing that everything possible be done to recover the body of Marshal Price and to capture and punish the moonshiners.

VIM IN THEIR WORK

Leaguers Abandoned Sight-seeing for Business

San Francisco, July 20.—A spirit of animation and enthusiasm marked the work of the third day of the International Epworth League Convention. The delegates had been admonished at the close of yesterday's meeting by Rev. Dr. Berry, general secretary of the league, that there had been too much sight-seeing and that "all should get to work and pump salvation into these people."

This injunction was obeyed. Under the bright sunshine and a cool, invigorating breeze the visitors sought the places of meeting early today. Enthusiasm and a manifest determination to make this the big day of the convention were everywhere evident. Everything went with a vim that had been lacking at some previous sessions. The sunrise prayer meetings with which the day opened again drew crowded houses at every one of the four principal places of worship.

From that early hour on throughout the morning every path seemed to lead to the Pavilion, the Alhambra Theatre, the Metropolitan Temple and Central and Howard Street churches. The 9 o'clock opening song service at each of these assembling places saw greater audiences than had before joined in the first hymn of the day. A long program of speeches was gone through with commendable promptness, all being listened to with the deepest interest and applauded with heartfelt enthusiasm. Open-air meetings were held at half a dozen places in widely separated districts of the city, as well as at the music stand in Golden Gate Park and the court of the Palace Hotel. Song services, prayers and speeches made up the programs at these meetings, which were attended by crowds.

THE FOSBURGH TRIAL

Sensational Developments are Expected Tomorrow

Pittsfield, Mass., July 20.—Principals and witnesses in the Fosburgh case are resting today in preparation for the stirring scenes anticipated Monday. The prosecution may rest its case that day, but several important witnesses against young Robert Stewart Fosburgh, have yet to testify. The sensation of the trial will probably develop Monday when James Fosburgh will be called to the witness stand by the State and examined as to the details of the tragedy.

Beatrice Fosburgh will also be called for the State. The girl admits that she was one of the first on the scene and saw her sister fall. The State claims that she told the officers that she saw her brother standing in front of her sister, and that she herself was behind her. The State also claims that Robert Fosburgh in his stories said that he was behind his sister when she fell, and the hope of District Attorney Hammond is to make the discrepancies proclaim them false.

Evidence of a Plot

Paris, July 20.—The moment scarcely was opportune for the Orleanists to try to cause trouble in France, but there is no doubt that the French government believes that something is afoot and they are doing their best to discover exactly what that something is. Special reports have been ordered from agents of the government in nearly every capital of Europe, and a strict surveillance has been instituted over the leading Orleanists in France. The Duke of Orleans himself is somewhere in the Mediterranean on board the yacht Maconis, on which he keeps a veritable court.

Negroes to Replace Strikers

New Orleans, July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburgh to get negro laborers to take the places of the strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel Corporation. They secured 50 men here and have received reports from agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that 40 men have been secured there.

DOMESTIC TRAGEDY

Husband of Murdered Woman Has Nothing to Say

New York, July 20.—After an all night search through the saloons and lodging houses of Third avenue from the neighborhood of Seventy-first street far up into Harlem, the police located a hotel at Third avenue and One Hundred and Eleventh street, Matthew McGarran, the husband of Ellen McGarran, who was found dead yesterday afternoon in the kitchen of her home at 420 East Twenty-first street. McGarran would make no statement, and he was locked up.

That Mrs. McGarran was murdered the police have no doubt. The revolver with which the shooting was evidently done, was found hidden away behind some crockery on a shelf too high for the woman to reach. The shot had been fired, some one with bloody hands had turned the knob of the bath room door and washed his hands. The woman was found lying on the floor in the kitchen. She had been shot in the bed room. In front of a little shrine on which hung the crucifix, she had evidently been dragged and killed. The shot had been fired. The body was found after she was dead. The body was found by Mrs. Mary Bentz, a neighbor, after it had been seen by the dead woman's 3-year-old son and one other child.

DIAZ COULD BE SPARED

The President of Mexico not Her-Only Statesman

Washington, July 20.—Joanquill Baranda, who was a member of the cabinet of President Diaz for eighteen years and will probably re-enter the cabinet if his health permit, was one of the visitors at the White House today. Mr. Baranda has been travelling in this country for his health since April and will leave in a few days for Mexico. He said today that he had greatly enjoyed his trip and was much impressed with the greatness of the United States. When asked about the health of President Diaz he said that his information was that the chief executive of Mexico was doing well, although 71 years old. It was suggested that the death of Diaz might leave Mexico in a bad condition. Mr. Baranda said:

"President Diaz is a great man, but if he should die or leave his position there are many men in Mexico able to cope with the situation and to conduct a good government. Mexico has never been so prosperous or more peaceful."

Signs Himself "Prisoner"

Manila, July 20.—Aguinaldo is considerably irritated at his continued surveillance by the American authorities. Whenever he signs his name he must add the word "prisoner." He has refused the request of his friends to write the insurgent general, Malvar, still at large in Southern Luzon, advising him to surrender. Aguinaldo consented to sign a copy of his oath of allegiance with the understanding that it be forwarded to Malvar for the purpose of effecting a surrender, but under his signature to the oath the former leader wrote "prisoner in Malacanang prison."

Buried Under Snow

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—Advices from Nome City bring information of the discovery, through the disappearance of the snow, of the frozen body of Mike Clifford of Camp Creek, on Nome River. There was every indication that the man had perished in one of the winter blizzards, and had lain for months under the snow. Clifford came from Maryland. He went to Alaska in 1897, was 38 years of age, and unmarried.

Divine Healer a Vagrant

Washington, July 20.—Francis Schlater, the alleged divine healer, who was yesterday adjudged sane after being committed to the insane asylum, was today convicted of vagrancy in the police court, and in default of a fine of $10, was sent to the workhouse for 30 days.

NEVER SAID IT

Pauncefote Misquoted in Regard to Canal Treaty

TOO DISCREET TO TALK

British Position Uncompromising in Favor of Neutrality in Peace and War—And There It Is

London, July 20.—It is not possible, unfortunately, to remove the impression created on both sides of the Atlantic by the published version of the recent conversation between Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington, with an American journalist. It has been inferred, very naturally, from the report given of the ambassador's words, that he meant to foreshadow such concessions by the British government as would make the proposed canal treaty acceptable to the American Senate, whose views on this subject are well known and defined. It may be noted in passing that the interpretation of his speech's meaning has aroused no hostile resentment in this country. Lord Pauncefote, however, authorizes me to say that he has said nothing to justify any such inference. He has, in fact, furnished no information whatever about the pending negotiations beyond what was publicly known before he left Washington, the reason being that there had been absolutely no development in the matter since that time.

No good purpose could be served by publishing the ambassador's comments upon the interview as printed, and it will suffice to give his statement, which is as follows:

"What I said was what the press announced long ago, that Secretary Hay had been in consultation with prominent senators and subsequently had requested me to sound my government on certain proposals. These proposals are still under consideration by my government, and no reply has been communicated. As to what President McKinley or the senators may do I have not the slightest idea. I know nothing about it, and it would be quite ridiculous for me to make any conjecture."

It is not necessary to say to any one who is acquainted with Lord Pauncefote's invariable discretion that he is a British subject, and that in a newspaper interview, the outcome of diplomatic negotiations, it may be said with confidence, but not based on any information from the ambassador, that the British foreign office will make the utmost effort to reach an agreement with the United States upon the canal question. It must be said, however, that what was said in his official authority on the eve of the amendment of the treaty by the United States Senate, that Great Britain will insist upon the neutrality of the canal in peace and war. It is necessary only to read the Marquis of Lansdowne's rejection of the amended treaty to understand that Great Britain's position on this point is uncompromising.

UNDUE HASTE

Mob Forgot to Ask Its Victim's Name

New Orleans, July 20.—At Crowl, La., yesterday a mob of 500 persons lynched an unidentified negro. The man was struck up in the court-house yard. The coroner immediately secured a jury from among the crowd of bystanders and returned a verdict of death at the hands of persons unknown.

The negro alighted from the fast mail train yesterday afternoon and was regarded with suspicion by Officer Turner. The latter attempted to place him under arrest, but the negro resisted and a shooting affray followed. The negro escaped into the county, but was followed and captured later. When he was brought back he was hanged as stated.

In the hurry the mob forgot to ask the negro his name, and nothing was found in his clothing by which his identity could be learned.

Striking Firemen Enjoined

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 20.—The Lehigh Valley Coal Company today obtained an injunction to restrain the striking colliery firemen from molesting the men who want to work at the Maltby colliery. The company stated that the strikers formed picket lines and endeavored to stop them on their way to work. A preliminary injunction was granted and argument is to be heard Monday. Deputy sheriffs have served papers on twenty-four of the strikers.

Iron Works Burned Down

Indianapolis, July 20.—The extensive plant of the Indianapolis Iron and Bridge Company, at Kentucky avenue and River street, was destroyed by fire early this morning, entailing a loss of $50,000. The flames communicated to the Van Camp Packing Company where about $30,000 loss was caused. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Baron Krupp's Income

Berlin, July 20.—Baron Krupp, the head of the great gun works, has declared his annual income for the purpose of taxation to be 21,000,000 marks. His net income is valued at 189,911,207 marks. There are 80,000 employees of the Krupp works. Of this number 65,000 are workmen and 15,000 clerks. [A mark is equivalent to about 24 cents.]

No Rain in Nebraska

Lincoln, July 20.—Not a drop of rain is reported within the last twenty-four hours as having fallen in Nebraska. Farmers and commission men have about given up hope of any falling in time to save the threatened crops, and make no estimate of damage.

New Wrinkle in Anarchism

Rome, July 20.—Anarchism has taken a distinct new turn in Italy, where, it seems, there are anarchists who think the world can be regenerated without the shedding of blood. These people have called a congress to meet in Rome in October for the purpose of forming a party to be composed of modern anarchists and socialists.

Committee Ought to Pay

Washington, July 20.—Col. Theodore A. Bingham, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, today submitted to the chief of engineers his annual report of the work of his department for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901. The inaugural committee is criticized for failing to make good the damage to the fence at the executive mansion caused by the burning of a reviewing stand and legal action to recover the amount is suggested.

Sulton Hopes for a Schism

London, July 20.—A private dispatch from Constantinople says that the Armenian bishopric is in a state of schism, the Pope, has been frequently patted on the back by the sultan, who seems to derive much gratification at the prospect of another Christian schism within his dominions. At his last audience, the sultan, in the Turkish equivalent of vulgar Anglo-Saxon, urged the patriarch to break with the Armenians, and the prelate of his august protection against any possible consequences.

British Interests in Korea

London, July 20.—Correspondence of a significant character has been passing between the British and Japanese governments in regard to British interests in Korea, the possible outcome of which may be a convention in the near future. The fact that Russia, for the sake of procuring Japanese assistance, or at any rate, the fact that China is willing to make such important concessions in Korea as will result in giving the Japanese supreme political influence there.

A Philippine Mare's Nest

Manila, July 20.—The American yesterday and today published details of a so-called scheme for a monarchy planned by Aguinaldo's cabinet. This publication has aroused much native indignation and violent denials, and the native newspapers threaten violence against the editors of The American. The American asserts that it has unearthed records which go to show that monarchy stalked behind the idea of a republic. Aguinaldo aspired to be a king, and his real idea was the enslavement of his countrymen after they had gained their independence.

A Dreyfus Case in Belgium

Brussels, July 20.—There is a sort of Dreyfus case in the Belgian army, in which the Socialist element, as well as a large committee of lawyers and doctors, have taken a determined stand. It seems that a certain Captain Schurmann has been convicted of espionage, and an order to keep silent in regard to his treatment has been received from their representatives. The committee has been formed and trouble is expected, especially with the Socialists, unless immediate steps are taken for an investigation of the case and the redress of grievances.

Thumpers as Throwers

Philadelphia, July 20.—Thomas Sharkey and Peter Maher met in a wrestling match at the Athletic base ball grounds this afternoon before six hundred people. The first bout was catch-as-catch-can, no hold barred. The second bout was at collar-and-elbow, Maher's long suit. He sent Sharkey galloping in the first thirty seconds, without, however, scoring a fall. Sharkey won in two minutes and twenty-five seconds. The third and last bout was in the Greco-Roman style and was declared a draw.

A Youthful Globie Trotter

Chicago, July 20.—Charles Cecil Fitzmorris, the Chicago boy who made the trip around the world in behalf of a Chicago paper in competition with representatives of New York, San Francisco, Montreal and Paris newspapers, arrived in Chicago, the end of his journey, today. He won in the contest and broke all previous records. The actual time consumed in making the journey was sixty days, thirteen hours, twenty-nine minutes. The best previous record was sixty-three days. The total distance traveled was 20,450 miles, and the actual traveling time fifty-four days, twenty hours and fifteen minutes.

ICE FACTORY BLOWS UP

Plant Wrecked and Fireman Killed by Explosion of Ammonia

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 20.—Special. A terrific explosion occurred at the Crystal ice factory this morning about 10 o'clock. The large ammonia tank gave away, blowing the roof off the building, crushing the walls like egg shells, smashing the machinery and wrecking the entire plant.

WANTS TO WAIT

Evacuation of Pekin May Be Delayed

NOT AN ANNIVERSARY

Imposing Ceremonies to Mark the Retirement of the Foreign Troops—Prince Li Will Meet the Emperor

Pekin, July 20.—It is now believed that the evacuation of the Chinese capital by the forces of the allied powers which had been scheduled for August 14, will not take place until some time between August 17 and August 20. Major Creagh, as the head of the British forces now in the empire, is opposed to the foreigners leaving the city on the anniversary of the relief of the legations. He also declares that the Chinese should not press for evacuation before the foreigners are inclined to leave.

It is understood that the most imposing ceremonies will take place on the day that the foreign troops are withdrawn, and the city is turned over to the control of the natives.

Prince Li, the former head of the cabinet, has decided to go and meet the court and will return to Pekin with the Emperor and Dowager Empress. Li is a leading hereditary prince who fled from the capital on the arrival of the allies. His palace was occupied and looted by the French soldiers. Prince Li has lived in retirement within the city for several months and is in very poor health. By going to meet the royal party he will remain president of the cabinet. He is a man without much knowledge or ability and is timid and reserved. He is negative in character and more conservative than progressive. The fact that he is a prince, however, carries great weight with the natives.

Prince Kon We, of Japan, president of the House of Peers, will arrive here to make a personal examination into the situation. Although he is unaccompanied by a man whose views the Chinese will respect.

A NEW IDEA ON THE LAW OF DIVORCE

Richmond, Va., July 20.—Rev. Richard Melhaine offered a resolution in the Constitutional Convention today which, if enacted in the original law of the State, will have a far-reaching effect on the subject of divorce. It makes the commonwealth a party in all divorce cases and provides for the prosecution of either party to such proceeding if it is shown that they have been guilty of any offense.

Mr. Melhaine is one of the most distinguished Presbyterian preachers in Virginia and president of Hampden Sidney College. He, like other ministers, is concerned at the rapid increase of divorces in Virginia. The resolution declares that the State is granting the marriage license becomes a party to the marriage, and directs the general assembly to enact laws making the commonwealth a party to all divorce proceedings hereafter instituted. If it shall be found that either or both parties have been guilty of misdemeanor or crime leading up to the breach of marriage, they are to be indicted and punished.

A Boy's Stray Shot

San Francisco, July 20.—One of the young sons of Gen.
